- The Company’s fundamental approach to corporate governance is to ensure swiftness, appropriateness, fairness, and transparency in the management decision-making in order to earn the trust of society while pursuing sustained development as a business.

[Reason for not putting into practice a part of the Corporate Governance Code's principles]

The Company fully implements each of the Corporate Governance Code’s principles.

[Disclosure based on the principles of the Corporate Governance Code]

[Principle 1.3] (Basic capital policy)

The Company intends to develop foundations that contribute to enhancing the Group’s corporate value, on the premise of maintaining financial discipline (maintaining our credit rating) and ensuring smooth execution of the construction business, while balancing with the shareholder returns (distribution of profits to shareholders), and securing growth investment preferentially portfolio, by introducing the following financial policies:

- 1) Continued assurance of ROE of approximately 10% and pursuit of the optimal capital structure; and
- 2) Implementation of growth investment based on investment criteria and fund allocation policies.

The Company has also made a fundamental policy to maintain a dividend payout ratio of approximately 30% based on the assumption of a long-term stable dividend, while maintaining financial discipline and preferential securing of growth investment quotas, and to provide flexible shareholder returns including the acquisition of treasury shares based on the financial policy.

In addition, as a firm declaration of our intention to realize the performance targets of the Medium-Term Business Plan (2024–2026) and to comply with the dividend policy, we will introduce a “dividend payout ratio with minimum ratio of 30.0%” from fiscal year (FY) 2025. This dividend payout ratio is, the Company sets the cash dividend to be 150.00 per share as the minimum amount of the dividend, which is equivalent to the dividend payout ratio of 30.0% based on the initial consolidated net income forecast for FY 2025 and the target amount of consolidated net income for FY 2026 of the Medium-Term Business Plan, and if the result surpasses the forecast, the Company revises the dividend forecast upward in accordance with the dividend payout ratio of 30.0%. Also, as we have disclosed in the “Notice of Resolution Regarding a Share Repurchase” of November 2024, we will accelerate the plan to acquire treasury stock during the period covered by the Medium-Term Business Plan (2024–2026), with an upper limit of 150.0 billion yen in additional funds it expects to generate through the implementation of the cross shareholdings reduction plan.

For detailed information, please refer to “(4) the basic policy of distribution of profits and the dividend for the current and following terms”, p.4 of the attachment of our “Consolidated Financial Results for the FY Ended March 31, 2025” (Japanese GAAP) (“Kessan Tanshin”).

With regard to shareholder returns in the future, the Company will consider the introduction of a dividend payment-oriented return policy based on the expected reduction of the total number of issued shares to approximately 140 million shares.

In May 2024, alongside the TAISEI VISION 2030 Achievement Plan and the Medium-Term Business Plan (2024–2026), the Company has formulated and publicized the “Action to Implement Management that is Conscious of Cost of Capital and Stock Price”.

[Principle 1.4] (Cross-shareholdings)

(1) Our Policy on Cross-Shareholdings

We maintain cross-shareholdings to establish and strengthen long-term, stable relationships of mutual cooperation with important business partners and to improve our competitiveness and profitability.

We have a policy to timely and appropriately sell cross-holding shares which, as the result of verification by the Board, are considered not to be consistent with our policy on cross-shareholdings because it is not economically reasonable and promising in the medium to long run to maintain them. Regarding the major cross-shareholdings which the Company holds, please refer to the annual securities report.

Based on the policy, we are currently in the process of consistently decreasing the amount of cross-shareholdings towards the target of less than 20% of our consolidated net assets by the end of FY 2026.

As a result, we have sold 91 billion Yen of cross-holding shares in FY 2024 and the balance at the end of the FY is 265 billion Yen (29.4% of the amount of consolidated net assets). Furthermore, there is 71.3 billion Yen (based on the market value as of the end of FY 2024) worth of stock brands not sold but agreed to be sold.

Annual securities report: https://ssl4.eir-parts.net/doc/1801/yuho_pdf/S100VY00/00.pdf (Japanese only)

Moving forward, we will implement additional sales, etc. in order to steadily achieve the reduction target of “aiming to reduce our cross-shareholdings to less than 20% of consolidated net assets by the end of FY 2026”, even in the event of soaring stock prices or fluctuation of our consolidated net assets, etc.

(2) Verification by the Board of the Economic Reasonableness of Cross-Shareholdings

The Board compares the acquisition prices with the business returns from all listed shares and from unlisted shares which the Board decides to verify continuously, while using capital costs as a yardstick. In June of each year, the Board decides on a case-by-case basis whether we should continue to hold the cross-shareholdings. In addition to quantitative verifications, the Board uses qualitative information such as orders of construction to be expected in the future for its decision.

(3) Standards for Exercise of Voting Rights

Voting rights of cross-shareholdings will be exercised appropriately from the viewpoint of whether they contribute to enhancement of our corporate value.

[Principle 1.7] (Transactions between related parties)

The Company ensures that transactions with any of its Members of the Board or Executive Officers, major shareholders, or other stakeholders are brought before the Board or the Management Committee in advance in accordance with the “Board Regulations” or the “Regulations of Management Committee” according to the importance and nature of such transactions so that the same are reviewed and approved through due procedures.

[Principle 4.8] (Effective utilization of Independent External Members of the Board)

[Supplementary Principle 4.10.1] (Views on the independence of the composition of the nominating and remuneration committee)

The Company has established the Executive Personnel Committee and the Remuneration Committee as prior deliberative bodies within the Board. Both Committees are established voluntary, but like the Board, the members thereof are composed so that diverse discussions can be held among internal Members of the Board with expertise in the management of the construction industry and independent External Members of the Board with diverse insights, where monitoring by independent External Audit & Supervisory Board Members functions effectively.

Our view on independence means that deliberations are conducted with a high degree of objectivity and transparency, respecting the opinions of each independent External Member of the Board and independent External Audit & Supervisory Board Member, on the premise that each internal Member of the Board (the top management) will fulfil its responsibilities for explaining the proposed items. In both Committees, the majority of the members of each Committee including its chairperson are composed of independent External Members of the Board and an independent External Audit & Supervisory Board Member that serves as an observer to ensure the appropriateness of deliberations. This helps to invigorate deliberations at the Committees, while ensuring independence, objectivity and transparency.

The Executive Personnel Committee deliberates on the matters related to the personnel affairs of Members of the Board and executive officers, including the nomination of candidates for Members of the Board and Audit and Supervisory Board Members, the appointment and dismissal of executive officers, and the remuneration and punishment of Members of the Board and executive officers. In addition, the Remuneration Committee deliberates on the remuneration system for Members of the Board and executive officers and the amount of compensation based on the system.

Please refer to Section II.1. "Establishment of voluntary committees, committee structures, attributes of chairperson" for the current composition of the members of both Committees.

[Supplementary Principle 4.11.1] (Structure of the Board and procedure for selecting members)

The Board of the Company analyzes and evaluates effectiveness of the Board and discloses the results annually.

I. FY 2024 initiatives based on the FY 2023 evaluation

In order to strengthen supervisory functions and invigorate the deliberations at the Board, and to accelerate decision-making on business execution, the Company reviewed its governance system in March 2020, that includes a review of agenda items to be resolved by the Board, and further delegation of its authority to executives accordingly. Taking account of the review, since FY 2020, we have strived to enhance the effectiveness of the Board, and continuing in FY 2024, we have been also trying to address the issues found in the effectiveness review in the FY 2023 as follows:

a) Enhancing discussions on the appropriate governance system, including the number of members and composition of the Board

The size, composition, and the content of the deliberations of each Committee within the Board were reviewed by each of the respective committees and then by the Governance System Review Committee, to improve the effectiveness of the governance system. In addition, the Executive Personnel Committee sufficiently deliberated on the important ongoing issues, including the composition of the Board, the nomination of members of the Board, and the President's succession plan, etc. In addition, the Remuneration Committee sufficiently deliberated on the important ongoing issues, such as the remuneration system for executive officers to realize medium- to long-term strategies, including the review and redeveloping of the overall remuneration system.

b) Monitoring the execution of operations of important matters

The Board conducted the monitoring of the execution of important matters by reporting the progress of important matters such as M&A issues and large scale construction projects, the Group's domestic building construction and overseas business, and human capital, which were set as items to achieve results to the Board within the period of the Medium-Term Business Plan (2024-2026).

c) Further enhancing the deliberations in the Board meetings by a medium- to long-term perspective in consideration of its role and responsibility

The Board established the Group's overseas business policy and implemented the operations such as the reform of human resource system based on the intensive deliberations on important issues of medium- to long-term such as the Group's overseas business and human capital.

 - Then the Board deliberated the third-party assessment and the overall assessment.

(2) Overview of the evaluation results

Since the corporate governance system as a company has consistently been put in place, it was assessed that the effectiveness of the Board was improving, while there were some matters which needed to be enriched from the standpoint of the roles and responsibilities of the Board.

Chairman and Chief Executive Officer: Shigeyoshi TANAKA 105 million yen

President and Chief Executive Officer: Yoshiro AIKAWA 105 million yen

Is there a policy for determining the amount of remuneration and its calculation methods?	Yes

(1) Remuneration for Members of the Board

(i). Basic policy on the determination of the details of remuneration, etc. for each Member of the Board

The remuneration, etc. for Members of the Board of the Company consists of fixed compensation and performance-based compensation, both of which are monetary compensation, as well as non-monetary performance-based compensation (stock compensation).

The maximum total amount of fixed compensation and performance-based compensation (monetary compensation) is 70 million yen per month in accordance with the resolution at the 146th General Meeting of Shareholders held on June 27, 2006.

The maximum total amount of performance-based compensation (stock compensation) is 35,000 points (1 point = 1 share), and 100 million yen per FY respectively in accordance with the resolution at the 160th General Meeting of Shareholders held on June 24, 2020.

The above policy of remuneration was decided comprehensively considering the matters such as the business scale, content, and performance of both the Company and the Taisei Group, as well as the duties and responsibilities of each Member of the Board.

When determining the details of remuneration, etc. for each Member of the Board, the Board will decide the details of remuneration for each Member of the Board, taking account of the responsibilities and positions of each Member of the Board (including the concurrent positions as an Executive Officer, if applicable; the same applies hereafter), based on examination at the Remuneration Committee, which is authorized to deliberate the details of remuneration, etc. before the Board's decision.

The majority of the Remuneration Committee consists of External Members of the Board and is chaired by an External Member of the Board. External Audit & Supervisory Members are also included to ensure the appropriateness of deliberations. Thus, the Company has established a system that enables appropriate examination of the remuneration, etc.

(ii). Policy on determination of the amount and the calculation methods of the fixed Compensation

The fixed compensation shall be paid to each Member of the Board on a fixed date every month during the term of office, and shall be determined according to the responsibilities of each Member of the Board, comprehensively taking account of the Company's business scale, content, and the duties and responsibilities of each Member of the Board, and the fixed compensation to each Member of the Board other than External Members of the Board, shall be progressively increased according to his or her position.

(iii). Policy on determination of the contents, and the calculation methods of the amount or the number of performance indicators for performance-based compensation; and policy on determination of the contents and the amount, or the number and the calculation methods for non-monetary compensation

The performance-based compensation is established for the purpose of raising the awareness of each Member of the Board to contribute to business performance improvement and enhancement of corporate value. However, External Members of the Board are not eligible for the performance-based compensation.

1) Performance-based compensation (monetary compensation)

The performance-based compensation (monetary compensation) shall be paid to Members of the Board on a fixed day of each month during the term of office, and for the purpose of clarifying the interrelation between the Members of the Board's responsibility for the group management and the amount of remuneration for them, the contents and the amount of the compensation shall be determined in consideration of Taisei Group's overall business performance, which is designated to be linked to Taisei Group's short-term business performance, as well as the individual performance of each Member, which is designated to be linked to the achievement of the Member's individually predetermined goal.

Operating Income in the consolidated statements of income for the most recent FY is used as a performance indicator for Taisei Group's overall business performance because it is an indicator that shows the direct results of the Group's business activities, and provides the system so that the amount paid to each Member of the Board will be progressively increased according to his or her positional ranks.

2) Performance-based compensation (stock compensation)

The performance-based compensation (stock compensation) is designed to raise the awareness of Members of the Board to contribute to improving medium- to long-term business results and enhancing corporate value by clarifying the policy so as to link the remuneration of Members of the Board with Taisei Group's business results and the value of share, and by sharing with shareholders not only the benefits of a rise in the share prices but also the risk of a decline in the share prices.

The stock benefit trust (= Board Benefit Trust) method is adopted, and the date of the annual General Meeting of Shareholders is the grant date.

In accordance with the "Officers' Share Benefit Regulations" established by the Board, each year during his or her term of office, points are granted and accumulated. In the event that a Member of the Board retires and satisfies the beneficiary requirements specified in the "Officers' Share Benefit Regulations", the Company's shares equivalent to the cumulative number of points will be distributed as one (1) share per point after retirement through prescribed procedures to determine the beneficiary. A part of the payment may be made in cash equivalent to the market value of the Company's shares instead of the Company's shares.

Net income attributable to owners of the parent in the consolidated statements of income for the most recent FY is used as a performance indicator because it is an indicator that shows the final results of Taisei Group's business activities.

The points to be granted to each Member of the Board are determined separately for Representative Directors and other Members of the Board respectively considering the status of achievement of business performance, duties and responsibilities.

- (iv). Policy on determination of the ratio of each type of compensation to be applied to the amount of remuneration, etc. for each Member of Board

With respect to performance-based compensation, the Company has set performance values that serve as criteria for monetary compensation and stock compensation and has established a rule that the ratio of performance-based compensation will increase when performance is favorable compared to the criteria.

From a medium- to long-term perspective, the Company is considering a review to reduce the proportion of fixed compensation and to increase the proportion of performance-based compensation.

However, the compensation for External Members of the Board shall be fixed compensation only.

(For Reference)

The ratio of each type of compensation to be applied to the amount of remuneration, etc. for each Member of Board other than External Members of the Board in the current FY (ended March 2025) was roughly 83% for fixed compensation, 7% for performance-based compensation (monetary compensation), and 10% for performance-based compensation (stock compensation).

- (2) Remuneration for Audit & Supervisory Board Members

Remuneration for Audit & Supervisory Board Members is determined by consultation of the Audit & Supervisory Board, and the monthly total is limited to 12 million yen based on the resolution of the 134th General Meeting of Shareholders held on June 29, 1994.
