2. Positioning of the company in the corporate group centering on the parent company, etc. and the relationships between other listed companies and the parent company, etc.

- (1) We are an equity-method affiliate of Shikoku Electric Power Co., Inc., which operates in the electric power business and belongs to the Shikoku Electric Power Group.
- (2) We are contracted from Shikoku Electric Power Co., Inc. and Shikoku Electric Power Transmission & Distribution Co., Inc., a subsidiary of Shikoku Electric Power Co., Inc., to construct facilities, design, construct, and maintain transmission and distribution facilities. The two companies accounted for 50.9% of our net sales in the current fiscal year.

Orders for construction and facility works are negotiated and determined each time based on the estimated construction prices presented by us. Orders for transmission and distribution facility works are made after consultation and negotiation with Shikoku Electric Power Transmission & Distribution Co., Inc., based on the Wheeling fee approved by the government under the institutional framework for unbundling, which ensures rationality and appropriateness.

- (3) In terms of personal relationships, of our nine Directors (including Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members), one is concurrently serving as an officer of Shikoku Electric Power Co., Inc. and Shikoku Electric Power Transmission & Distribution Co., Inc. We accept four employees seconded from Shikoku Electric Power Co., Inc., and we also contract power distribution design and maintenance operations from Shikoku Electric Power Transmission & Distribution Co., Inc., and so we accept 255 employees seconded from Shikoku Electric Power Transmission & Distribution Co., Inc., mainly in the distribution division.

- (4) As mentioned above, there are construction transactions and human and capital relationships with Shikoku Electric Power Co., Inc. However, as a listed company, we have established a necessary governance system and make our own decisions regarding the operation of our business, so we recognize that independence is ensured.
