1. Overview of the operating results, etc.

(1) Overview of business performance for the current half year

During the current first half year period (July 1, 2025, to December 31, 2025), the business environment for the in vitro diagnostic medical device industry was characterized by the arrival of the 13th wave of COVID-19 infections, which peaked in the first half of August 2025. Subsequently, the influenza outbreak began earlier than usual in late September and persisted throughout the current first half year period. On the other hand, the reduction phase of antigen test kit inventories in the market, which wholesalers had secured during the previous outbreak period, continued until around the end of September. This served as a factor depressing sales for the six-months period. Conversely, due to factors such as the influenza outbreak starting in late September, quarterly sales for this second quarter reached a record high for the second quarter.

As a result, for the current first half year period, net sales were ¥8,276 million (30.9% decrease compared to the same period of the previous year), operating income was ¥3,252 million (50.3% decrease in the same), ordinary income was ¥3,146 million (51.8% decrease in the same), and net income was ¥2,060 million (56.0% decrease in the same).

<Quarterly net sales trend> (Unit: millions of yen)

	1st Quarter	2nd Quarter	3rd Quarter	4th Quarter	Total
FY2024	6,943	4,673	4,754	2,063	18,434
FY2025	6,419	5,561	5,626	1,020	18,627
FY2026	2,368	5,908	—	—	—

Regarding quarterly sales trends, the second quarter saw influenza begin to spread earlier than usual in late September, and the COVID-19 infections to a certain extent. As a result, second-quarter sales increased by 6.2% compared to the same period last year, reaching ¥5,908 million.

For the second quarter period from October to December, gross profit increased by 2.3% to ¥4,000 million compared to the same period last year, despite increased labor costs due to securing personnel in advance of the new factory's full-scale operation. However, selling, general and administrative expenses increased by ¥195 million compared to the same period last year due to higher transportation costs, increase in personnel expenses to strengthen our organizational capacity, and initial expenditures to prepare the new factory for operation. As a result, operating income decreased by 3.2% compared to the same period last year to ¥2,704 million. Ordinary income decreased by 4.7% compared to the same period last year to ¥2,641 million due to increased interest payments resulting from higher borrowings for the construction of a new factory. Additionally, an extraordinary loss of ¥241 million was recorded due to the loss on devaluation of investment securities in affiliates. As a result, net income decreased by 14.4% compared to the same period last year to ¥1,702 million.

<Six-month Period Sales by main product> (Unit: millions of yen)

Sales by main product	FY2024 First half	FY2025 First half (a)	FY2026 First half (b)	(b) / (a)
COVID-19 single-use test kits	3,043	3,945	2,191	(44.5%)
Influenza/COVID-19 combo test kits	4,210	4,579	3,366	(26.5%)
Influenza test kits	2,689	2,080	1,598	(23.2%)
Others	1,674	1,375	1,120	(18.5%)
Total	11,617	11,981	8,276	(30.9%)

Sales by main product category during the interim period fell below the same period last year for all products. This was due to factors including the continued phase of reducing market inventories from the previous fiscal year, which lasted until around the end of September.

<2nd quarter from October to December Sales by main product> (Unit: millions of yen)

Sales by main product	FY2024 2nd quarter	FY2025 2nd quarter (a)	FY2026 2nd quarter (b)	(b) / (a)
COVID-19 single-use test kits	668	661	961	45.5%
Influenza/COVID-19 combo test kits	1,730	2,565	2,992	16.6%
Influenza test kits	1,402	1,679	1,418	(15.6%)
Others	871	654	536	(18.2%)
Total	4,673	5,561	5,908	6.2%

Sales by main product category for the second quarter were as follows: Sales of COVID-19 single-use test kits increased by 45.5% compared to the same period last year to ¥961 million, and sales of Influenza/COVID-19 combo test kits increased by 16.6% compared to the same period last year to ¥2,992 million, due to the influenza outbreak occurring earlier than usual in late September and the continued prevalence of the COVID-19. On the other hand, sales of influenza test kits decreased by 15.6% compared to the same period last year to ¥1,418 million, reflecting a reactionary decline from the high level of sales in the same period last year, which was driven by a sharp increase in market inventory.

(2) Overview of financial position as of the current half year end

(Assets, Liabilities and Equity)

Total assets increased by ¥7,683 million from the end of the previous fiscal year to ¥44,198 million at the end of the interim period. This increase was mainly due to growth in accounts receivable, accompanied by higher sales during the second quarter, as well as an increase in construction in progress related to the new factory construction.

Total liabilities increased by ¥7,695 million from the end of the previous fiscal year to ¥26,792 million at the end of the interim period. This increase was mainly due to an increase in long-term borrowings resulting from the execution of a syndicated loan facility with financial institutions for the new factory construction.

Total net assets decreased by ¥11 million from the end of the previous fiscal year to ¥17,405 million. This decrease was mainly due to a reduction in retained earnings resulting from dividend payments, despite an increase in interim net income.

(Cash Flow)

Cash and cash equivalents (hereafter referred to as “funds”) decreased by ¥5,011 million from the end of the previous fiscal year to ¥4,255 million.

(Cash Flow from operating activities)

Cash flow from operating activities decreased by ¥5,507 million (increase of ¥1,093 million in the same period last year). This was mainly due to an increase in accounts receivable.

(Cash Flow from investing activities)

Cash flow from investing activities decreased by ¥5,163 million (decrease of ¥4,664 million in the same period last year). This was mainly due to expenditure on the acquisition of tangible fixed assets associated with the construction of a new factory.

(Cash flow from financing activities)

Cash flow from financing activities increased by ¥5,659 million (increase of ¥1,718 million in the same period last year). This was mainly due to proceeds from long-term loans associated with the drawdown of the syndicated loan facility for the construction of a new factory

(3) Explanation on financial forecasts

Regarding the full-year earnings forecast for the fiscal year ending June 2026, while interim sales for this period fell below the same period last year, quarterly sales for the second quarter reached a record high for that quarter. Furthermore, given the ongoing influenza and COVID-19 at present, we are maintaining the earnings forecast announced on August 13, 2025, at this time.

If we determine that revisions are necessary in the future, we will disclose them promptly.
