2. Positioning of the listed company in the corporate group of the parent company, etc. and other relationships between the listed company and the parent company, etc.

Prima Meat Packers, Ltd. (“the Company”) belongs to the food segment in the corporate group of ITOCHU Corporation (hereinafter “ITOCHU”), the parent company. The Company purchases raw materials from ITOCHU and its corporate group. Meanwhile, the Company obtains multiple quotations from suppliers other than ITOCHU and its corporate group and selects the supplier in light of actual market prices. In addition, transaction terms and conditions, including prices, for product sale are negotiated and decided in consideration of prices for transactions between independent third parties.

When it comes to personnel, the Company invites former ITOCHU employees to join the management team and appoints senior executives of ITOCHU as the Company’s officers. This does not prevent the Company from making its own managerial decisions but helps to make more appropriate decisions. The Company therefore considers that its management has a certain degree of independence.

4. Status of implementation of measures to protect minority shareholders in transactions, etc. with the controlling shareholder

In purchasing raw materials, the Company obtains quotations from suppliers other than the parent company and takes other measures to select the supplier in light of actual market prices. In addition, important transactions are consulted by the Management Advisory Committee, which consists of three independent outside directors and the President & CEO.

Furthermore, a special committee consisting of independent members, including an independent outside director, deliberates on and discusses important transactions and actions that cause conflicts of interest between the controlling shareholder and minority shareholders.
