◇ Sales Summary

In April, the calendar alignment was the same as the previous year. Sales performed strongly, driven by numerous days of favorable weather and continued fine weather suitable for weekend outings. There was a large turnout at downtown street-level stores and shopping centers. By product, sales of running shoes, walking shoes, and children's shoes were strong, and sales of sports sandals and T-shirts also performed well due to the warm weather.

All stores sales grew 6.0% to a year ago in this month. Existing stores sales also showed a year on year growth of 5.3% compared to the same period in the previous year.
