I. Basic views on corporate governance, capital structure, corporate profile and other basic information

1. Basic views

We consider the sustainable growth of our group and the enhancement of corporate value as important management issues, while building good relationships with all stakeholders, including shareholders, customers, local communities, employees, franchisees, and suppliers, as well as ensuring sound and transparent management.

To that end, the management decision-making and supervisory functions are separated from the business execution function. This is done to establish a timely and efficient management and execution system and engage in realizing a transparent business model at a high level with the participation of Outside Directors.

Reasons for non-compliance with certain principles of Japan's Corporate Governance Code

As the company listed on the Standard Market of the TSE, we implement all of the principles of the Corporate Governance Code for the Standard Market. Also, we implement all of the principles of the Corporate Governance Code for the Prime Market other than the latter part of the Principle 3.1.3 (disclosure based on the TCFD recommendations or an equivalent framework).

Disclosure based on each principle of Corporate Governance Code

[Updated]

【Principle 1.4 Cross-Shareholdings】

The Company doesn't hold shares of other listed companies as cross-shareholdings.

【Principle 1.7 Related Party Transactions】

The appropriateness of transactions is confirmed through the following procedures.

Transaction contracts are generally subject to review by the Legal Division, and in addition, transactions with directors are subject to Board approval in accordance with applicable laws and regulations as well as the regulations of the Board of Directors. Important transactions with major shareholders, etc., are subject to Board approval in accordance with the regulations for the Board of Directors.

【Principle 2.4 Ensuring Diversity, Including Active Participation of Women】

➤ "People Business"... It is the people themselves that support the growth of a company. Because we believe in this, at McDonald's we value a way of working that enables people to grow and play an active part in the business. To realize this, McDonald's is committed to providing opportunities for growth, enhancing talent, and recognizing contributions through our People Promise with all staff. We aim to create a workplace where a diverse team of people across gender, age, personality, and background can fully realize their strengths and contribute to business growth as a team. To realize these values, we have been implementing a variety of diversity, equity and inclusion ("DE&I") initiatives such as promoting career development of women. We will continue to listen to our people through our cross-company "Open Door! Team" project*1 and other means to implement DE&I in ways unique to McDonald's and further the growth and development of our business. These measures include the (1) active involvement of diverse individuals, (2) diverse ways of working, and (3) career development of individual staff.

We have been selected as one of FY 2023 Nadeshiko Brands, jointly designated by the Ministry of Economy, Trade and Industry (METI) and the Tokyo Stock Exchange (TSE) for companies that are outstanding in terms of encouraging women's empowerment in the workplace.

*1 "Open Door! Team": a DE&I promotion project team consisting of volunteers from within the company.

[Supplementary Principle 2.4.1 Ensuring diversity in the promotion to core human resources]

(1) Ensuring diversity

> Our customers' needs are diverse and continue to change at a rapid pace. To continue to meet the needs of customers in this era of change, we believe our organization needs to have diverse teams and value a culture that actively accepts diversity. We are working towards the realization of a diverse workplace with various personalities and backgrounds, including gender, age, nationality, etc

<Promotion of women in management roles>

> We have continued to promote women's advancement, and since we launched JWLN (Japan Women's Leadership Network) to collaborate with the global community and build an in-house network in 2008, the proportion of women in various positions as well as those in management position has been increasing, offering a greater opportunity to play an active role in the business. Also, from 2019, the "Open Door! Team", a project run by volunteers to promote career development of women, has been in action to listen to the voices of staff, aiming to create a work-friendly environment, while fostering people growth and career development. Currently, 25.3% of management positions are held by women (as of December 2024), and we have been taking actions to reach 40% by 2030.

<Promotion of foreign nationals to management>

> We are continuing with new graduates and midcareer hires regardless of their nationality. Recently, we have been hiring 5 to 10 international graduates every year. Currently, there are More than 20 foreign nationals and about 5 of them are playing an active role as managers. McDonald's is a global company, and as such we want to continue to expand the opportunities for talented individuals of any nationality to fill positions and play an active role in our business.

<Promotion of midcareer hires to management positions>

> Talented midcareer hires are working at our restaurants and offices. In recent years, midcareer hires account for about 60% (61.5% in 2024) of total annual hires. Also, 63% (in 2024) of management positions are filled by midcareer hires and they are actively driving our business. The company is planning to continue to hire people with experience and knowledge in specialized fields to fill various functional needs and positions.

(2) Policy for people development and optimal work environment for diversity

> We are taking actions to create a workplace where people from diverse backgrounds can play an active role and develop an organization to promote respect for individuality, prevent isolation, offer support, and accept one another.

■ Local salaried employee system :

In September 2021, we introduced a system of limiting the workplace, working hours, and positions for restaurant employees who want to work at McDonald's with peace of mind according to their individual lifestyles.

■ Flextime program (for staff and selected restaurant employees), variable working hour program (restaurant employees)

■ Support system for restaurant managers (assigning restaurant managers to lead improvements in working environment to enable restaurant managers to promote greater work-life balance)

■ Support for childbirth, childcare, and nursing care (Shorter working hours program, and childcare and nursing care leave program, etc.)

■ Open recruitment for part-time staff ・ Evaluation training program

【Principle 2.6 Roles of Corporate Pension Funds as Asset Owners】

The Company has adopted a defined contribution pension plan.

【Principle 3.1 Full Disclosure】

(i) Management Principles, etc.

<Business Principles>

At McDonald's, our purpose is to feed and foster communities by bringing delicious food and smiles not only to our customers but also to our employees and local communities. Founded on QSC&V (Quality, Service, Cleanliness and Value), McDonald's values are shared and embodied by all employees with the mission of "making delicious feel-good moments easy for everyone."

<Business Policies>

Our basic policy is to ensure food safety and security and to provide customers with the best possible restaurant experience, including convenience, the highest quality, service, cleanliness and value. In addition, we will build good relationships with all stakeholders, including shareholders, customers, local communities, employees, franchisees, suppliers, etc., and ensure the soundness and transparency of management, and will work to achieve sustainable growth and enhance corporate value as an important management issue. In addition to complying with laws and regulations, to fulfill our responsibilities with respect to various Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG) issues, we will continue to focus on our restaurant operations, procurement of food and materials, reduction of environmental impact, and contribution to local communities, and will leverage our strengths and scale to achieve the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), set as a global agenda by the United Nations.

<Business Strategies>

<Financial strategy, allocation of management resources>

We aim to secure adequate funds for business activities, maintain liquidity, and achieve a sound financial position by generating stable operating cash flow. Our policy is to allocate working capital and capital investment mainly from own funds generated through business activities, and to procure funds through borrowings and other means as necessary.

We allocate management resources to investments to achieve sustainable growth and improved profitability over the medium to long term.

In addition, the basic policy of the company is to return appropriate profits to shareholders stably and continuously while comprehensively taking into account such factors as business result trends and the balance of cash flow with the target dividend on equity ratio set at 3% for FY2027.

Our basic policy is to distribute the surplus once a year as a year-end dividend, and the decision-making body for the distribution of this surplus is the General Meeting of Shareholders.

(ii) Basic Views and Guidelines on Corporate Governance

We consider the sustainable growth of our group and the enhancement of corporate value as important management issues, while building good relationships with all stakeholders, including shareholders, customers, local communities, employees, franchisees, and suppliers, as well as ensuring sound and transparent management.

To that end, the management decision-making and supervisory functions are separated from the business execution function. This is done to establish a timely and efficient management and execution system and engage in realizing a transparent business model at a high level with the participation of Outside Directors.

(iii) Board Policies and Procedures: Remuneration of Senior Management and Directors

In order to ensure transparency and objectivity in the Company's decision-making regarding remuneration for directors, the Company has voluntarily established the Compensation Committee, which is chaired by an independent outside director. The Compensation Committee determines compensation in accordance with the policy established by the Board of Directors.

The policy in determining the remuneration of Directors is as follows.

1. Basic policy

Compensation for board members of the Company shall be linked to the Company's business performance so as to function sufficiently as an incentive for sustainable enhancement of corporate value. The basic policy is as follows:

- To determine compensation of individual members at a level that is appropriate in light of their respective responsibilities and competitive in comparison with other companies in the same industry and companies of the same size in other industries.
- While developing excellent talents within the Company, the compensation level is set at a competitive and effective level which attracts diverse outstanding talents as board members from inside and outside the country.

Specifically, compensation for executive directors shall consist of basic compensation and retirement allowance as fixed compensation and performance-based compensation including stock price linked compensation, etc. Outside board members who are responsible for supervisory functions shall be paid basic compensation in consideration of their duties.

2. Policy to determine the compensation amount, etc., for each individual as basic compensation (including policies to determine the timing or conditions for offering compensation, etc.)

Basic compensation (monetary) for board members of the Company shall be fixed monthly compensation, which shall be determined in a comprehensive manner based on their roles, responsibilities, years of service and other factors, taking into consideration the level of other companies, business performance of the Company, the level of employee salaries and evaluations. The basic compensation shall be paid at a fixed time every month, and no special conditions shall be set for payment.

The standard for retirement allowance is regulated by retirement allowance regulations based on compensation, period, title, and contributions as a board member. The retirement allowance will be determined accordingly and paid at the time of the final retirement from the Company and its subsidiary for all positions as an officer and employee.

3. Policy to determine details of performance-based compensation, etc., and the method for calculating the amount (including policies to determine the timing or conditions for offering compensation, etc.)

Performance-based compensation, etc., consists of (i) compensation reflecting performance indicators (KPI) to raise awareness towards the improvement of business performance for each fiscal year and (ii) compensation using a pseudo-share format of the Company's shares to raise awareness towards the improvement of corporate value over the medium to long term. (i) The amount calculated in accordance with the degree of achievement against the target value and evaluations shall be paid at a certain time every year. Target performance indicators and their values shall be set so that they are consistent with the targets for the relevant fiscal year. (ii) The number of pseudo-shares determined in accordance with the roles, responsibilities and evaluations shall be granted at a certain time each year. When exercising the right, the amount calculated in accordance with the Company's stock price shall be paid as monetary compensation.

4. Policy to determine the ratio of the amount of monetary compensation or the amount of performance-based compensation, etc., to the amount of compensation, etc., of individual board members

The ratio of compensation for each type of executive director shall be determined within the range of the following percentage table based on the level of compensation benchmarked against companies of a similar business scale or in a related industry or business category, and shall be composed by comprehensively taking into account the role and responsibilities of each individual by the Compensation Committee.

Table of percentages for each role (When each individual's basic compensation is set at 100)

	Basic compensation	Performance-based compensation (1) Single year	Performance-based compensation (2) Medium- to long-term
Representative Director	100	40-80	20-100
Inside Director	100	30-70	15-100

* The ratio of performance-based compensation (① and ②) is when the target is 100% achieved (the standard amount is applied).

* Even within the same job title, the percentage of compensation by type will be determined for each individual.

* When the Compensation Committee decides that there is a reasonable grounds, performance-based compensation can be granted exceeding the above.

* Percentage will not be set for the amount of retirement allowance.

5. Matters relating to the determining of details of individual compensation, etc. of board members

The amount of compensation for each individual (including retirement allowance) shall be determined by the Compensation Committee in accordance with the above policy based on the delegation from the Board of Directors.

(iv) Board policies and procedures in the appointment/dismissal of the senior management and the nomination of directors and kansayaku candidates;

A proposal for appointment/dismissal of the senior management and nomination of directors and kansayaku candidates shall be created by representative directors, based on the required qualifications for directors and kansayaku and the policy on the composition of the Board of Directors as set forth in this report. After deliberation of the proposal by the Nomination Committee and after obtaining consent of the Kansayaku Board specially for nomination of Kansayaku candidates, the proposal shall be resolved by the Board of Directors.

【Supplementary Principle 4.10.1 Authority and Role of the Nomination Committee and Compensation Committee】

The Board of Directors shall establish the Nomination Committee and the Compensation Committee. The Nomination Committee shall deliberate on appointment/dismissal of senior management and nomination of directors and kansayaku, and shall communicate the results of its deliberations to the Board of Directors for its deliberation and resolution, and each director shall make decisions with reference to such results. The Compensation Committee shall determine the specific amount of compensation, calculation method and other conditions for Directors based on the policy established by the Board of Directors and under the delegation by the Board of Directors.

The majority members and the chairpersons of the Nomination Committee and the Compensation Committee shall be appointed from independent directors, in order to ensure their independence.

【Supplementary Principle 4.11.1 Policy on Diversity of the Board of Directors, etc.】

Our directors and kansayaku need to have a diverse and high level of knowledge, experience, and ability in order to supervise the execution of business and make important decisions. In particular, we believe that it is necessary to incorporate a wide range of knowledge and experience in business management including marketing and IT, and specialized knowledge in the areas of law, finance and accounting and human resources in addition to knowledge of McDonald's Business. From the perspective of diversity and inclusion, we also believe it is important to maintain diversity in terms of gender, nationality, and background. In order to enable active and substantive deliberations, the maximum number of Directors and kansayaku shall be ten (10) and four (4), respectively, as stipulated in the Articles of Incorporation.

Based on the above, we have prepared a skill matrix and analyzed the skills of the current directors and kansayaku, and confirmed that the current directors and kansayaku meet the above requirements. The skill matrix is provided at the end of this report.

【Supplementary Principle 4.11.2 Status of concurrent positions of directors and Kansayaku】

The number of concurrent positions held by the Company's directors and Kansayaku at other listed companies is kept within reasonable limits.

The status of important concurrent positions held by the Company's directors and Kansayaku are provided at the end of this report.

【Supplementary Principle 4.11.3 Evaluating the Effectiveness of the Board of Directors】

The Company analyzes and evaluates the effectiveness of its Board of Directors at a board meeting once each year from the following points of view and based on the responses of individual Directors and Auditors to a questionnaire survey to improve the functions of the Board.

- ① Roles and functions of the Board of Directors
- ② Size and composition of the Board of Directors
- ③ Operations of the Board of Directors
- ④ Designing of internal control, etc.
- ⑤ Utilization of independent outside directors
- ⑥ Relationships with shareholders and investors

The Company made analysis and assessment in 2024 by using a third-party organization.
The summary of the results is provided below:

(1) Conclusion

The Board of Directors of the Company as a whole is evaluated to have fulfilled its roles and responsibilities effectively at its meetings held in 2024.

(2) Analysis and Assessment

①Roles and functions of the Board of Directors

The roles and functions of the Board are deemed appropriate based on comments that the Board has achieved a good balance between the execution of operations and the supervision of corporate management and that nomination and compensation committees as well as appropriate processes for nomination and compensation of board members have been established.

There are also opinions that the Board should foster a common perception of its desirable future direction and that the activities of the nomination and compensation committees should be stepped up to further enhance its functions.

②Size and Structure of the Board of Directors

The size and composition of the Board are deemed appropriate since it is highly evaluated for including members with a high level of expertise and having adequate diversity of gender, internationality, age and other qualitative factors.

There is also an opinion that the Board should foster a common perception about an appropriate number of its members and the composition of the Board to achieve a more appropriate size and composition and should promote discussions to secure members with appropriate skills and the diversity of membership.

③Operations of the Board of Directors

The Board is evaluated to be operating properly because many assess that information is delivered after it has been examined for enough length of time and that the chairperson proceeds with agenda and manages board meetings properly.

There are also opinions demanding a review of the Board's resolutions, reports and agenda, and the setup of a place for an informal discussion to strengthen the operations of the Board.

④Maintenance of internal control, etc.

It is evaluated that internal control is designed properly since there are many comments that internal control and an internal reporting system are properly established in addition to the enhanced risk management system.

There is also a comment demanding securing of opportunities to discuss about significant risks and another asking for enhanced efforts and fruitful discussions relating to sustainability, risks and other issues.

⑤Utilization of independent outside directors

The Board is deemed to be using independent outside auditors appropriately since many comments that they provide appropriate advice concerning the Company's business policy, etc. and properly supervise corporate management.

⑥Relationships with shareholders and investors

The Board is assessed to have built appropriate relationships with shareholders and investors because there are many opinions that appropriate systems are currently maintained to disclose information to and have dialogues with shareholders and investors, taking the Company's shareholder composition into consideration. There is also an opinion that the Board should establish a system to have dialogues with institutional investors, taking into consideration the possibility of reviewing the shareholding structure.

[Supplementary Principle 4.14.2 Training Policy for Directors and Kansayaku]

We provide explanations of legal responsibility as directors or kansayaku, and our systems and businesses to newly appointed directors and kansayaku, and also provide such explanations at appropriate opportunities thereafter. We also invite them to attend the Kick-off Meeting, a business briefing session including franchisees and business partners at the beginning of the year, as well as various other briefing sessions held by the Company, and invite them to participate in product tastings, in order to deepen their understanding of the Company's business and products. In addition, the Company will take necessary measures, including providing and mediating opportunities and supporting expenses, to enable directors and Kansayaku to attend external training, etc., when necessary.

[Principle 5.1, Supplementary Principle 5.1.2 Policy for Constructive Dialogue with Shareholders]

The Company's policy on the development of systems and initiatives to promote constructive dialogue with shareholders is as follows.

(i) General dialogue with shareholders

The Company promotes IR communication by designating the person in charge of investor relations to oversee overall dialogue with shareholders.

(ii) Organic cooperation between divisions

Under the direction of the representative director and President, the person in charge of IR shares information as appropriate with the relevant divisions and ensures organic cooperation among the divisions.

(iii) Enhancement of the means of dialogue

The Representative Director and President of the Company or Director and Chief Financial Officer of the subsidiary provide explanations to shareholders and investors at the Annual General Shareholders Meeting and at the financial results briefings at the conclusion of the fiscal year and for the second quarter. In addition, IR staff responds to inquiries from shareholders and investors on an individual basis.

(iv) Feedback on the dialogue with shareholders

The person in charge of IR shares the details of dialogue with shareholders and investors with the Board of Directors, Representative Director and other senior management as appropriate.

(v) Information management

The Company has established rules for the prevention of insider trading and for the management of confidential information, and manages information accordingly. We will not provide insider information in dialogue with shareholders or investors.

【Principle 5.2 Establishing and disclosing business strategies and business plans】

The company discloses the Medium-term Management Plan as described in “I. 1. Principle 3.1 (i)” of this report.

[Actions to implement management that is conscious of cost of capital and stock price.] [English disclosure available].

In order to meet the expectations of our stakeholders, we are working to ensure sustainable growth over the medium to long term, while also ensuring sufficient financial stability and improving capital efficiency, thereby ensuring a continuous and stable return on capital that exceeds our cost of capital. Details of these efforts are disclosed in the following Medium-term Management Plan.

2. Matters on functions of business execution, auditing, oversight, nomination and remuneration decisions: overview of current corporate governance system [Updated]

We are a company with Board of Directors, Kansayaku Board and Independent Auditors.

The Group adopts the executive officer system and separates the Directors and the duties performed by the executive officers. The Board of Directors, made of nine individuals including four Independent Directors, makes important business decisions, executes and supervises the duties of a Director. Executive officers are responsible for the implementation of an agile operation.

Also, the Company has setup the "Executive Management Team (EMT)", consisting of the CEO and other members selected by the CEO, within McDonald's Company (Japan), Ltd., an operating company. EMT receives reports as required from executive officers and collaborates with them to ensure a smooth execution of the business, and makes business decisions to the extent set by the Board of Directors of the said company to ensure a speedy decision-making process.

Nominations of candidates for Directors and Kansayaku are deliberated in advance by the Nomination Committee, and decisions are made by the Board of Directors with reference to the results of such deliberations.

Remuneration for Directors is determined by the "Compensation Committee", an optional advisory body and chaired by an Independent Outside Director.

Regarding the Company's internal audit organization, an independent Internal Auditing department under direct control by the CEO, is established. The scope of internal audit includes the Company and its consolidated subsidiaries. Through this and based on the risk-approach concept, identification of latent or obvious risks that may exist in individual business processes and auditing of the business and assets are made. Its mission is to make contributions in the areas of compliance in laws and regulations, maintain company assets, streamline the operation and strengthen internal control functions.

Specifically, an audit is conducted based on an annual internal audit plan approved by the CEO, and report the results to the head of the audited division. The Internal Auditing department and the audited division discuss a remediation plan and Internal Audit submits the audit report to the CEO and Kansayaku after the agreed remediation plan is made. A time frame for remediation is set for the audited division, and a follow-up audit is made promptly after the set time to check the remediated results and ensure the effectiveness of internal audits.

Regarding audits conducted by Kansayaku, the Kansayaku Board consisted of one Full-Time and three Outside Kansayaku, is set up to monitor the business. Further, close collaborations are made with Internal Auditing department to conduct strict audits in accordance with "Auditing Standards for Kansayaku."

Also, Ernst & Young ShinNihon LLC, the Independent Auditor, Internal Auditing department and the Kansayaku Board are responsible for reporting the results of statutory audits based on the Corporate Law and the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act. In addition, collaborations are made including a mutual exchange of information and opinions as required, striving to secure the effectiveness and efficiency of audits.

The Company has entered into an agreement with each Director (excluding executive directors, etc.) and each Kansayaku to limit their liability for damages under Article 423, Paragraph 1 of the Companies Act in accordance with the provisions of Article 427, Paragraph 1 of the Companies Act. The maximum amount of liability for damages under the said agreement is the amount stipulated in laws and regulations.

3. Reason for adoption of current corporate governance system

The Company have selected a company with Kansayaku Board that has the dual check function of supervision by the Board of Directors and legality audits by Kansayaku for business execution.

Under the system of a company with Kansayaku Board, the Company have appointed several independent outside Directors for the purpose of receiving advice, etc. from an independent and objective standpoint, and strengthening the supervisory function.

In addition, the majority of the members of the Compensation Committee and the Nomination Committee, which are advisory bodies to the Board of Directors, are Independent Outside Directors and the Independent Outside Directors chair these committees to ensure objectivity and transparency in the remuneration of Directors and the selection/dismissal of Directors.

Regarding business execution, the Board of Directors, the decision-making body of the business and supervision body of the operation, and the business execution body of executive officers are separated to ensure a management system that can respond quickly to changes in business environment.

2. Basic views on excluding organized crime and the progress of system development

The Group has no relations whatsoever with corporate extortionists, organized crime groups and other anti-social forces, and it will continue to firmly refuse any unjust demands from such anti-social forces. In case when an organized crime group or such threatens us by using product complaints as an excuse for the purpose of receiving illegal monetary gains, we will deal with the principles of “we are not afraid of organized crime groups”, “we will not pay to the organized crime groups” and “we will not make use of the organized crime groups.”

The principle ideas of rejecting the above anti-social forces are listed in the “Code of Business Conducts” handbook.

In addition, prior to initiating transactions with new business partners, the Company conducts compliance checks to confirm that the counterparties to such transactions do not fall under the category of antisocial forces.
