1. Overview of Financial Performance

(1) Operating Results

For the nine months ended December 31, 2025, the Japanese economy was in a moderate recovery trend due to improved employment and income conditions and various governmental policies. However, the outlook remains uncertain given the impact of trade policies in the U.S., fluctuations in financial and capital markets, and other factors.

The food industry remained in a challenging environment as consumers continued to be reluctant to spend in the face of continued price hikes.

In this environment, based on its “2025–2027 Medium-term Management Plan,” the Fujicco Group has worked to restructure its business portfolio to enhance management efficiency. In August, we transferred all shares of Foods Palette Co., Ltd., and in October, we conducted an absorption-type merger with FUJICCO NEW DELICA CO., LTD., in our efforts to consolidate and optimize our management resources for delicatessen-product-related business. Furthermore, we have developed our foundation to expand our overseas businesses through initiatives such as acquiring shares of FB Food Service (2017) Co., Ltd. in Thailand and establishing FUJICCO FOODS ASIA CO., LTD., which will serve as an intermediate holding company from November through December.

Sales of kombu products and yogurt products increased year on year, whereas sales of delicatessen products, dessert products, and bean products declined year on year. As a result, net sales came in at ¥42,727 million (down 2.6% year on year).

On the profit front, we have worked on advertising which is conscious of investment efficiency and enhancing product appeal, such as introducing new yogurt products. As a result, profitability improved and operating profit came in at ¥1,281 million (up 39.7% year on year). While ordinary profit was ¥1,662 million (up 27.7% year on year), profit attributable to owners of parent amounted to ¥1,385 million (up 41.8% year on year).

Sales by product category were as follows.

Sales of delicatessen products decreased year on year. Although packaged delicatessen foods saw robust sales in Obanzai Kobachi, sales of seasonings and Asanotaberu soup were weak. As a result, sales of packaged delicatessen foods fell year on year. Sales of delicatessen products delivered daily decreased year on year affected by a decrease in sales volume due to price increases and changes in the product lineup of major business partners, despite our efforts to expand new business partners.

Among kombu products, Shio-kombu (salted kombu), which was well received for its value size amid the high price environment, saw strong sales, resulting in a year-on-year rise in sales. Thanks to airing TV commercials featuring Fujicconi, a cup tsukudani (food simmered in sweetened soy sauce), in Eastern Japan in September, followed by Western Japan in October, sales volume, which temporarily decreased after the price increase, has recovered and stayed flat year on year. In addition, from December, we launched the “Yorokombu Campaign 2026,” allowing customers to enjoy happy experiences with kombu, with the aim of cultivating our brand and expanding demand.

Despite robust sales of Omamesan Mamekobachi, sales of bean products decreased year on year due to stagnant sales of the pouched product series of boiled, water boiled, and steamed beans. During the year-end sales season in December, we accelerated the preparation of sales floor for Omamesan Tambaguro Kuromame and launched a new product Omamesan Shinaji Katamedaki Tambaguro Kuromame (firmly cooked Omamesan Tambaguro Kuromame with a new flavor), to meet customers’ needs who favor a firmer texture of kuromame (black soybean). However, overall sales of kuromame fell year on year in December as they were negatively affected by the downward trend in the osechi (new year’s dishes) market.

Sales of yogurt products remained strong in Marugoto SOY Caspian Sea Yogurt and Caspian Sea Yogurt Richmo Plain, a new product launched in September, resulting in a year-on-year increase in sales. In order to attract trial customers and increase repeat rates of Caspian Sea Yogurt, we launched the “Motto! Toro~ Mocchi Campaign,” highlighting its unique melty and chewy texture commemorating the 20th anniversary of its release and carried out web advertising with the use of social media.

For dessert products, we failed to secure sales volume of Fruits Therapy as expected. As a result, sales of dessert products fell year on year. We implemented a campaign linked to social media targeting young people and worked to recover sales, while enhancing product recognition and expanding topicality.

(2) Financial Position

Total assets as of December 31, 2025 increased ¥1,159 million from the end of the previous fiscal year to ¥80,589 million.

Current assets increased ¥2,094 million from the end of the previous fiscal year to ¥36,636 million. This is attributable mainly to an increase in inventories due to seasonality of raw material purchases.

Non-current assets decreased ¥934 million from the end of the previous fiscal year to ¥43,952 million. This is attributable mainly to the progress of depreciation of property, plant and equipment, partially offset by an increase in the fair value of investment securities and an increase in goodwill as a result of new consolidations.

Current liabilities increased ¥558 million from the end of the previous fiscal year to ¥9,357 million. This is attributable mainly to an increase in accounts payable - trade due to seasonality of raw material purchases, partially offset by the reversal of provision for bonuses as a result of payment of bonuses.

Non-current liabilities decreased ¥401 million from the end of the previous fiscal year to ¥1,632 million. This is attributable mainly to a decrease in retirement benefit liability as a result of the contribution to the retirement benefit trust.

Net assets increased ¥1,002 million from the end of the previous fiscal year to ¥69,599 million. This is attributable mainly to increases in profit attributable to owners of parent, valuation difference on available-for-sale securities, and non-controlling interests as a result of a new consolidation, partially offset by dividends paid.

As a result, the equity-to-asset ratio declined to 86.3% from 86.4% at the end of the previous fiscal year.

(3) Forward-looking Information Including the Consolidated Financial Results Forecast

The consolidated financial results forecast for the fiscal year under review are as announced in the “Notice of Revision to Earnings Forecast” on October 24, 2025. Actual operating results may differ from the forecast figures due to various factors in the future.

(3) Notes to Quarterly Consolidated Financial Statements

Going concern assumption

Not applicable.

Significant changes in shareholders' equity

Not applicable.

Changes in scope of consolidation or equity method

Changes in scope of consolidation

During the nine months ended December 31, 2025, Foods Palette Co., Ltd., which had been a consolidated subsidiary of the Company, was excluded from the scope of consolidation as a result of the transfer of all of its shares. In addition, FUJICCO NEW DELICA CO., LTD. was excluded from the scope of consolidation, as it was dissolved as a result of an absorption-type merger in which the Company was the surviving company.

Furthermore, FB Food Service (2017) Co., Ltd. was included in the scope of consolidation in Thailand, and FUJICCO FOODS ASIA CO., LTD., which was newly established to serve as an intermediate holding company, was included in the scope of consolidation. The deemed acquisition dates of these two companies had been set as December 31, 2025, and the Company consolidated only the balance sheets of the acquired companies in the third quarter ended December 31, 2025. Therefore, the operating results of the acquired companies are not included in the quarterly consolidated statements of income.

Quarterly Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows

The quarterly consolidated statements of cash flows for the nine months ended December 31, 2025 have not been prepared. The amounts of depreciation for the nine months ended December 31, 2024 and December 31, 2025 (including amortization of intangible assets) are as follows:

	Nine months ended December 31, 2024 (From April 1, 2024 to December 31, 2024)	Nine months ended December 31, 2025 (From April 1, 2025 to December 31, 2025)
Depreciation	2,601	2,666

Segment information

As the Group operates in a single segment that exclusively manufactures and sells similar or related processed foods, as judged by the similarity of product type, characteristics, manufacturing methods, and sales markets, the segment information is immaterial and therefore omitted.

Business combinations

Absorption-type merger of a consolidated subsidiary

The Company resolved at a meeting of its Board of Directors held on July 7, 2025 to conduct an absorption-type merger with its wholly owned subsidiary, FUJICCO NEW DELICA CO., LTD. (hereinafter “NEW DELICA”), and merged the subsidiary on October 1, 2025.

1. Purpose of the absorption-type merger

In August 2021, the Company established NEW DELICA as a new entity to assume the operations of the manufacturing division for delicatessen products delivered daily, aiming to enhance responsiveness to the evolving needs of the home meal replacement market amid the COVID-19 pandemic. However, the surrounding business environment has since undergone significant changes, including the decline of the pandemic, sharp increases in ingredient prices driven by global inflation, surging gas, electricity, and other energy prices, rising logistics costs, and higher labor costs due to labor shortages.

To respond to this new environment, we carried out an absorption-type merger with NEW DELICA to accelerate Group-wide efforts to optimize the entire supply chain—integrating production, sales, logistics, and management functions. We will also focus on human resource development by promoting interactions among employees and providing training, aiming to further strengthen business competitiveness and enhance management efficiency.

2. Outline of the merger

(1) Schedule of the merger

Date of the merger: October 1, 2025

(2) Method of the merger

An absorption-type merger in which the Company was the surviving company, and NEW DELICA was the dissolved company.

(3) Details of allotment pertaining to the merger

As NEW DELICA was a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company, no shares, cash, or other consideration were allotted in connection with the merger.

(4) Treatment of share options and bonds with share options of the dissolved company

Not applicable.

3. Outline of the subsidiary

(1) Name FUJICCO NEW DELICA CO., LTD.

(2) Business Manufacture and sale of a variety of food products

(3) Share capital ¥90 million

4. Status after the merger

There have been no changes to the Company’s name, location, representative (name and title), business description, share capital, or fiscal year-end.

5. Outline of accounting treatment implemented

The merger was accounted for as a transaction under common control in accordance with the Accounting Standard for Business Combinations (ASBJ Statement No. 21, January 16, 2019) and the Implementation Guidance on Accounting Standard for Business Combinations and Accounting Standard for Business Divestitures (ASBJ Guidance No. 10, January 16, 2019).

Business combination through share acquisition

The Company resolved at a meeting of its Board of Directors held on September 25, 2025 to acquire shares of FB Food Service (2017) Co., Ltd. (hereinafter “FBF”) to make it a subsidiary, and concluded a share purchase agreement on October 10, 2025 as detailed below. In conjunction with the share acquisition, the Company also resolved to establish a joint venture subsidiary named FUJICCO FOODS ASIA CO., LTD. (hereinafter “FFA”) through joint investment (the Company’s investment ratio: 49%) with SBCS Co., Ltd., SMBC Management Service Co., Ltd., and SMSB Co., Ltd. (hereinafter collectively “SBCS Group” on December 8, 2025.

Furthermore, the procedures for the establishment of FFA, which will serve as an intermediate holding company, were completed in the local jurisdiction on December 8, 2025, and FFA acquired all shares of FBF previously held by SBCS Group on December 24, 2025. As a result, FBF has become a consolidated subsidiary of the Company.

1. Purpose of the business combination

Under the 2025-2027 Medium-term Management Plan, with the fiscal year ending March 31, 2026 as its first year, the Company has set forth the basic policy of “Reshaping the future of kombu and beans together with customers by gathering full force of employees” and has endeavored to enhance its core business and build its medium-and-long-term financial base. The Company considers that, in order to achieve the objectives based on the above Medium-term Management Plan, it is absolutely necessary for the Company to pursue global expansion.

FBF, whose shares the Company has acquired, is engaged in the manufacture and sale of various frozen delicatessen products in Thailand and demonstrates its strength in sales of modern trade such as convenience stores and foodservice channels, such as restaurants. The Company believes that, by bringing FBF into the Company Group (hereinafter, the “Group”), it will be possible not only to build on its existing products but also to leverage the Company’s product development capabilities to expand a lineup of healthier and more nutritious offerings and to develop new sales channels. This, in turn, will strengthen FBF’s business in the Thai market. Initially, FBF will focus on sales in the Thai market. Over time, it will seek to contribute to the health of people worldwide through products centered on seaweed and Japanese delicatessen. In the future, the Company intends to promote its global growth by manufacturing and exporting FUJICCO-branded products not only in Asian markets but also in the U.S. and Europe.

The Company regards Thailand as an attractive market for the Company to realize its management philosophy on a global scale, because it has the largest number of Japanese restaurants among Southeast Asian countries and its people have a high degree of health awareness. Throughout this transaction, the Company plans to build the foundation of its business expansion in the Asian region. For the above reason, the Company determined that this transaction could enhance the Company’s corporate value and conducted this share acquisition.

2. Outline of the business combination

(1) Name and business description of the acquired company

Name of the acquired company: FB Food Service (2017) Co., Ltd.

Business description: Manufacture and wholesale of business-use food products

(2) Date of the business combination

Date of the share acquisition: November 3, 2025

Deemed acquisition date: December 31, 2025

(3) Legal form of the business combination

Share acquisition in consideration for cash

(4) Company name after the business combination

The company name will remain unchanged.

(5) Percentage of voting rights acquired
30%

Following this acquisition, FFA (with the Company holding a 49% stake) acquired 51% of FBF's shares. As a result, the Company holds a 54.99% voting rights ratio in FBF, including 24.99% held indirectly, and FBF became a consolidated subsidiary.

(6) Main factor determining acquirer
Due to the Company's acquisition of shares with cash consideration

3. Period of results of the acquired company included in the quarterly consolidated statement of income pertaining to the quarterly cumulative period

The deemed acquisition date had been set as December 31, 2025, and the Company consolidated only the balance sheet of the acquired company in the third quarter ended December 31, 2025. Therefore, the operating results of the acquired company are not included in the quarterly consolidated statement of income.

4. Acquisition cost of the acquired company and breakdown by type of consideration

Consideration for the acquisition: cash ¥453 million
