Notice of the Designation of the Company's Shares as a Margin Trading Issue on the Sapporo Securities Exchange

The Company's shares have already been designated as marginable securities on the Tokyo Stock Exchange Standard Market. The Company hereby announces that, in connection with its new listing on the Main Market of the Sapporo Securities Exchange, its shares have also been newly designated as marginable securities on the Sapporo Securities Exchange.

Designation Date

February 18, 2026 (Wednesday) · · · the same date as the listing on the Main Market of the Sapporo Securities Exchange.

The designation will become effective for trades executed on and after the same date.

The Company believes that the designation as marginable securities on both exchanges will further enhance the liquidity of its shares, broaden investor participation, and improve overall trading conditions. The Company expects that this development will contribute to more active trading and more efficient price discovery in the market.

The Company remains committed to further strengthening its presence in the capital markets and enhancing long-term corporate value. We sincerely appreciate the continued support of our shareholders and investors.

The Company greatly appreciates the continued support of its shareholders and investors.
