To Our Shareholders

Isetan Mitsukoshi Holdings Ltd. prepared its thirteenth financial statements as of March 31, 2021, which we hereby submit to you in this notice of the convocation for your perusal.

My name is Toshiyuki Hosoya. I was appointed President in April 2021.

The global COVID-19 pandemic has greatly impacted the lives of our stakeholders, including our domestic and overseas customers. Our thoughts are with those who have contracted the disease, and those who are suffering due to infection, and we are praying for their speedy recovery. COVID-19 has brought about a change in people's value perceptions and modes of life, and has also placed the Isetan Mitsukoshi Group in a harsh business environment. The virtual disappearance of inbound sales, in addition to a slump in consumer sentiment, have contributed to a previously unparalleled decline in business results.

These unprecedented conditions have given us the opportunity to rethink the nature of our business model and the ideal state of the Group, in order to respond more speedily to changes in our customers and markets. In the context of dramatic changes in the business environment, we are now in the process of revising the Medium-Term Management Plan, which we temporarily withdrew in November 2020.

We aim to transform our profit structure by engaging in Group-wide structural reforms and business model reforms, to become a department store-centered retail group that enriches the lives of our discerning customers all over the world. To this end, we will fully utilize the goodwill and assets we have cultivated until now, to respond to the changing times.

The progress of 2021 brings anticipation of a recovery in economic conditions through global vaccination campaigns, but the situation remains unpredictable, with new COVID-19 variants giving rise to a fourth wave of infections. In this context, the Isetan Mitsukoshi Group will review its corporate raison d'être once again and strive to set the standard for society.

We would appreciate our valued shareholders' continued support and encouragement.

Toshiyuki Hosoya
President (CEO)

Proposal and References

Proposal No. 1: Appropriation of Surplus

The Company's basic stance is to maintain a stable level of dividends while comprehensively considering the management environment, business performance, and the soundness of the Group's financial position. Over the medium- to long-term, the Company's dividend policy is to aim to stably increase dividends in line with profit growth.

As a result of the spread of COVID-19 however, the Company recorded a substantial net loss attributable to parent company shareholders for the six months ended September 2020, and the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on business performance continued during the subsequent six months. In view of this situation, from the perspective of maintaining financial soundness, the Company decreased the interim dividend for the 13th term by ¥3 per share compared to the previous fiscal year, to ¥3.

Regarding the year-end dividend, from the perspective of maintaining a stable level of dividends as far as possible, the Company proposes to pay a year-end dividend of ¥6 per share for the 13th term. Accordingly, with the interim dividend of ¥3, the annual dividend will be ¥9.

Matters related to the year-end dividend:

- (1) Type of dividend property
Cash
- (2) Matters related to distribution of dividend property to shareholders and the total amount
¥6 per common share of the Company
Total amount: ¥2,286,333,420
- (3) Effective date of dividend of surplus
June 28, 2021

Business Report

(From April 1, 2020 to March 31, 2021)

1. Matters related to the Group's status

(1) Business developments and results

During fiscal 2020 (April 1, 2020 to March 31, 2021), the Japanese economy suffered a significant impact from the worldwide spread of COVID-19. Supply chains became progressively fragmented, due to factors such as the slowdown in the movement of people around the world, restrictions on the movement of goods, and the suspension of face-to-face services. Real GDP growth in Japan for the April-June quarter was negative 7.9% year-on-year, or negative 28.1% on an annualized basis, indicating a substantial slowdown. A state of emergency was declared in April 2020, and the Group was seriously impacted, implementing temporary store closures (partial operation and shortened opening hours in some stores), as net sales in the department store business and other businesses virtually evaporated. After the first state of emergency was lifted, demand within Japan began to recover from its slump, partly as a result of government measures such as the special cash payments and "Go To" campaign, but economic conditions in Japan remained highly uncertain, due to factors including a delay in the recovery of demand from inbound visitors, the renewed declaration of a state of emergency in response to a new wave of infections, and the continuing slump in consumer sentiment due to the slowdown in employment and income growth.

Under these circumstances, the Group strove to achieve the vision of "online and offline matching platformer" envisioned in the Isetan Mitsukoshi Group Three-Year Plan, which the Group announced in November 2018. However, in view of changes in the social environment and consumption trends, as well as subsequent conditions, we determined to withdraw the Three-Year Plan in November 2020, and we are proceeding to formulate a new medium-term plan to partially revise our strategies and accelerate the process.

During fiscal 2020, we closed stores with profitability issues, including Mitsukoshi Ebisu store, ISETAN HAUS, and Isetan Bangkok, and proceeded with the redistribution of management resources in our business portfolio, including the closure of the Isetan Mitsukoshi Research Institute Ltd., and the sale of shares of Isetan Mitsukoshi Real Estate Co., Ltd. The Group will promote the development of the business foundations for a transformation of the business model based on new ways of communicating and the accelerating digital shift, and push ahead with fundamental cost structure reforms through a more transparent structure of earnings and expenses.

As a result of these efforts, consolidated net sales for the fiscal year amounted to ¥816.0 billion, a decrease of 72.9% from the previous fiscal year, operating loss amounted to ¥20.9 billion, compared to operating income of ¥15.6 billion in the previous fiscal year, recurring loss was ¥17.1 billion, compared to recurring income of ¥19.7 billion in the previous fiscal year, and net loss attributable to parent company shareholders was ¥41.0 billion (The previous fiscal year was net loss attributable to parent company shareholders of ¥11.1 billion.).

Department store

Percentage of net sales: 85.8%

Net sales: ¥752.1 billion (72.6% of the previous fiscal year's net sales)

Operating loss: ¥30.3 billion (operating income of ¥2.2 billion in the previous fiscal year)

In the department store business, as COVID-19 spread, we created systems to give maximum consideration to safety and security at all our stores, including the use of thermography to conduct body temperature checks and sanitization at store entrances. Despite these efforts however, we recorded a substantial drop in revenue due to the impact of shutdowns and reduced opening hours resulting from the declaration of a state of emergency.

Overseas, from February 2020 onward, we were forced to progressively shut down stores amid increasingly stringent government restrictions, primarily in China, Southeast Asia, and the United States, and revenue also fell significantly year on year.

Despite the pandemic showing no sign of abating, sales of high value-added goods such as luxury bands, watches and jewelry performed strongly, led by the Isetan Shinjuku Main Store and Mitsukoshi Nihombashi Main Store. The newly-expanded BicCamera Nihombashi Mitsukoshi opened on the seventh floor of the new building of Mitsukoshi Nihombashi Main Store in September. In addition to its well-received concierge-style customer service, it has expanded its services to offer fitness equipment and added a new home renovation counter. We also launched initiatives to enhance customer experience through remote customer service at regional stores, including significant growth in our service enabling out-of-store customers to order-in items from the Isetan Shinjuku Main Store and Mitsukoshi Nihombashi Main Store.

In terms of initiatives to promote online sales, we renewed our e-commerce site in June 2020. At the same time, we launched the Isetan Mitsukoshi app, creating an online shopping experience that enables customers to use department store services seamlessly, without needing to visit the store.

Utilization of the Isetan Mitsukoshi e-commerce site is increasing, due to stay-at-home demand for items such as food and lifestyle goods. In response, we strengthened our online offerings targeting occasional and at-home demand during the year-end and New Year holidays, leading to growth in online reservations and sales of Christmas cakes, New Year dishes and grab bags. Likewise, our “ISETAN DOOR” food delivery service and “meeco” cosmetics e-commerce site grew significantly. Our total online net sales for fiscal 2020 exceeded ¥30.0 billion.

In November, we launched the “Isetan Mitsukoshi remote shopping” app, which provides online the same shopping experience that our customers enjoy in-store, and began trial operation. The app has been well received for enabling customers to enjoy an experience uniquely offered by department stores of one-to-one customer service from the comfort of their homes.

We also launched the new “REV WORLDS” smartphone app, which enables users to enjoy conversation with each other and shopping in a virtual city environment. In addition to combining services that would be impossible in a real store to provide new customer experiences, we are taking on the challenge of expanding our virtual reality (VR) platform, including creating mutual traffic between content provided by other companies.

Meanwhile, we closed the Mitsukoshi Ebisu store in February. We apologize for any inconveniences caused by the store closure and sincerely thank customers for their many years of patronage.

Credit & finance / customer organization management

Percentage of net sales: 3.7%

Net sales: ¥32.5 billion (84.5% of the previous fiscal year’s net sales)

Operating income: ¥4.4 billion (78.5% of the previous fiscal year’s operating income)

In the credit & finance business/customer organization management business, MICARD Co. Ltd. focused on acquiring new memberships for department store credit cards and credit cards in collaboration with companies outside the Group, as well as expanding the handling volume through promotion of credit card usage.

Handling volume at the Group’s department stores decreased significantly due to factors such as temporary store closures and shortened opening hours, as part of measures to prevent the spread of COVID-19. Outside the Group, handling volume slumped in the restaurant and travel sectors, despite a strong performance in the mail order, supermarkets, food, and home electronics fields.

As card membership acquisition struggled at the Group's department stores, we engaged in measures to expand sales, including strengthening membership acquisition through online channels, enhancing member convenience and promoting use outside the Group through the introduction of Apple Pay, and issuing cards in collaboration with companies outside the Group, to cultivate new customer segments.

Going forward, in addition to continuing the initiatives in fiscal 2020 described above, we will develop services adapted to the progressive digitalization of society and the needs of our customers, which will lead to future expansion in handling volume and revenue.

Real estate

Percentage of net sales: 3.2%

Net sales: ¥28.3 billion (80.1% of the previous fiscal year's net sales)

Operating income: ¥5.4 billion (91.1% of the previous fiscal year's operating income)

In the real estate business, revenue fell substantially as a result of enforced shutdowns and shortened opening hours at commercial facilities after the declaration of a state of emergency associated with the COVID-19 pandemic.

In the residences business, we sold all our shares in Isetan Mitsukoshi Real Estate Co., Ltd. to an external buyer in January 2021, as part of reviewing our business for selection and focus. As a result, we recorded a decline in revenue and income for the full year.

Despite a strong performance in orders received in the construction business of Isetan Mitsukoshi Property Design Ltd., for interior design and construction work at Isetan Mitsukoshi stores and luxury hotels, as well as reform and renovation work at private homes, revenue and income fell due to the impact of work delays arising from the COVID-19 crisis.

Other businesses

Percentage of net sales: 7.3%

Net sales: ¥63.6 billion (77.2% of the previous fiscal year's net sales)

Operating loss: ¥0.6 billion (operating income of ¥1.6 billion in the previous fiscal year)

In the other businesses, revenue and income fell due to the impact of COVID-19, but some companies recorded a rise in income. Isetan Mitsukoshi Business Support Ltd. promoted the expansion of commissions from existing clients and new client acquisition. Isetan Mitsukoshi System Solutions Ltd. secured an increase in income despite a decline in revenue, as it engaged in structural reforms including back-office efficiency enhancements and a revision of business flows.

Meanwhile, steep declines in revenue were recorded at Mitsukoshi Isetan Nikko Travel, Ltd., which specializes in overseas travel, and SOCIE WORLD CO., LTD. in the beauty business. Mitsukoshi Isetan Nikko Travel suffered a significant drop in revenue, as Cruise tour operations, its main focus, fell to zero throughout the year due to the COVID-19 crisis, the recovery in domestic travel was delayed until after September.

The Company determined to divest itself of SOCIE WORLD CO., LTD., as a result of consideration of changes in the environment that surrounds the aesthetic business and the future direction of SOCIE WORLD's business, in the context of reforms to the Company's business structure and business model.

In addition to engaging in structural reforms and cost reductions with the aim of recovering business results in the future, we will continue to work to achieve our goal of "helping our customers' lives in a variety of scenes," and create value through stronger coordination with the department store business.

(2) Capital expenditures

Our capital expenditures during the consolidated fiscal year under review totaled some ¥29.4 billion, which consisted principally of some ¥21.8 billion for capital expenditures at Isetan Mitsukoshi Ltd.

(3) Financing

During the consolidated fiscal year under review, we procured ¥35.0 billion from financial institutions through long-term debt, which will be used for purposes such as the repayment of long-term debt.

(4) Issues that need to be addressed

The global spread of COVID-19 has dealt a severe blow to the Japanese economy. The importance of digital technologies has grown worldwide, transforming the labor environment, working styles and consumer behavior, among other effects. The transition to new ways of living is gaining pace.

Restrictions on the movement of people brought rapid progress in the digital shift, accelerating the transition towards a world where society and industrial activity can continue to function despite less direct contact between people. Digital channels have become a direct and important means of maintaining and strengthening engagement with customers, even for companies that have focused on face-to-face sales at physical stores until now. It is anticipated that the presence of digital channels will grow further in the context of stay-at-home requests and temporary store closures, and they are expected to hold the key to corporate management in the future.

An increase in “free time” is anticipated, with shorter working hours. As the range of ways to spend time expands, people will have higher expectations regarding spiritual enrichment and lifestyle comfort. It will become yet more important to focus on consumer experience tailored to value perceptions and offer solutions to meet the needs of individual customers.

Under these conditions, the Group temporarily withdrew its Medium-Term Management Plan in November 2020. We are formulating a long-term vision and a new three-year plan, in order to transform our business model from the conventional department store model, promote structural reforms, and create business foundations even more swiftly than before. Even in a society transformed by the COVID-19 crisis, we will steadily implement our strategies, to be a retailing group centered on department stores, which helps customers enrich their lives and lifestyles.

■ Priority strategy 1 – “High sensitivity, fine quality” strategy

We will expand and dominate high sensitivity, fine quality consumption, by responding to the needs of discerning people who seek a rich, high quality lifestyle, with the ultimate customer experience. To this end, our two main stores will symbolize “admiration and empathy,” and lead to future “urbanization.” From this base, we will promote a strategy for small and medium-sized stores, centered on the Group’s department stores in Japan and overseas, and provide a seamless customer experience fusing physical stores and online shopping. Our merchandising will be directed towards creating workmanship that inspires “admiration and empathy,” and high sensitivity, fine quality products, services and environments. We will also proceed with new offerings through out-of-store sales and buyer alliances.

■ Priority strategy 2 – “Connections with customers” strategy

We will accompany each individual customer on his or her life journey and enhance lifetime value, by shifting our interactions with individual customers from “mass” marketing to “personal” marketing. To this end, we will redesign the system to connect with customers in line with their loyalty as well as the “Group Customer Program.” Together with our high sensitivity, fine quality strategy, we will strengthen “connections” through the reform of personal out-of-store sales.

■ Priority strategy 3 – “Stronger intra-Group coordination”

We will enhance our “high sensitivity, fine quality” and “connections with customers” strategies on a Group-wide basis, by maximizing the combined strength of all our Group companies. To this end, we will strengthen the Group’s platform and promote its unification as a single corporate group, while respecting the uniqueness of each individual company. We will strengthen coordination, not only between the department store business and Group companies, but also between Group companies themselves, aiming for the commercialization of the B2B business model.

■ Building an management platform

We will build a Group-wide management platform necessary to realize above priority strategies. While modernizing a core system using cloud technology, we internally promote the sophisticated use of customer data for system and data platform. With the growth in online sales, we will reorganize our logistics platform to achieve greater efficiency and productivity. Regarding human resources strategy, we will engage in creating an organization in which employees can enjoy a high degree of job satisfaction through workplaces that are both work-friendly and fulfilling. The Company transitioned to a company with a nominating committee, etc. in June 2020, and we will promote even more effective management governance.

◇The impact of and response to COVID-19

There is still no end in sight for the COVID-19 pandemic menacing the world, due the appearance of variants of the virus, among other issues. A state of emergency was declared in Japan, and the department store industry continues to face conditions of unprecedented adversity, as it continues to operate at a loss. In these previously unheard-of conditions, the Group is regularly holding meetings on response to COVID-19, chaired by the President, based on the business continuity plan, and pressing forward swiftly with a range of response measures.

Given the significant negative factors anticipated to continue to weigh on business going forward, including the fall in sales from store shutdowns and shortened opening hours, from customers staying home and refraining from consumption activities, and from the lack of foreign visitors to Japan due to travel restrictions, we will revise the business plan and respond flexibly, including by controlling investment.

We sincerely request your continued support and patronage going forward.

Non-monetary compensation in the table above represents the expenses recorded during fiscal 2020 associated with this share price-linked restricted stock compensation (and share price-linked monetary compensation). The status of shares delivered during the fiscal year under review as consideration for the execution of duties is presented on page 35.

(6) Matters concerning the determination of the details of compensation for individual Directors and Executives (hereinafter referred to as “Executives, etc.”)

1) Basic policy on officer’s compensation, etc.

The Company has established following four basic principles on compensation for officers, etc., by resolution of the Compensation Committee on November 11, 2020.

1. Promotion of mutual sharing of interests of shareholders and officers
2. Expansion of incentive effects to improve financial results and shareholder value
3. Ensuring there is no shortfall in compensation level compared with the industry as a whole
4. Ensuring objectivity and transparency in methods of evaluation and determining compensation

The Company’s compensation system for officers comprises three specific elements: “basic compensation” as fixed compensation, “bonuses” linked to annual performance, and “share-based compensation” as a medium- and long-term incentive. The proportions of each element within annual compensation for Executives, etc. (provided the targets for bonuses and share-based compensation are met) are shown below.

	Basic Compensation	Bonuses	Share-Based Compensation
Directors (excluding Directors concurrently serving as Executives)	12 months (approx. 92%+)	None	1 month (approx. 8%-)
Executives (including Executives concurrently serving as Directors)	12 months (60%)	5 months (25%)	3 months (15%)

The amounts of compensation for individual Executives, etc. are determined by the Compensation Committee each fiscal year, after deliberation by the same Committee, based on the provisions of the Guidelines for Executive Remuneration.

2) Details of each type of compensation

i. Fixed compensation (basic compensation)

Basic compensation for Executives, etc. is paid monthly in a fixed amount based on the designated compensation table. Basic compensation is determined each fiscal year by resolution of the Compensation Committee, after the Committee deliberates on the appropriateness of a proposal for individual compensation prepared using duties analysis and evaluation methods provided by an external consulting company.

ii. Performance-linked compensation, etc. (bonuses)

The Company has introduced performance-linked bonuses for Executives as shown below, to reflect its compensation principles and provide a strong motivation to achieve targets. Bonuses are not paid to Directors who do not concurrently serve as Executives.

Base amount of bonus = Basic compensation × 5 months

Amount of bonus to be paid = Base amount of bonus × [1] Payout ratio (degree of achievement against the corporate performance goal)
× [3] Allocation ratio (weight) + Base amount of bonus
× [2] Payout ratio (personal qualitative evaluation)
× [3] Allocation ratio (weight)

[1] Payout ratio (degree of achievement against the corporate performance goal)

	10th Term Fiscal 2017 (From April 1, 2017 to March 31, 2018)	11th Term Fiscal 2018 (From April 1, 2018 to March 31, 2019)	12th Term Fiscal 2019 (From April 1, 2019 to March 31, 2020)	13th Term Fiscal 2020 (From April 1, 2020 to March 31, 2021)
Consolidated operating income goal	¥25.0 billion	¥29.0 billion	¥30.0 billion	-
Consolidated operating income result	¥24.4 billion	¥29.2 billion	¥15.6 billion	¥(20.9) billion

Specifically, the payout ratio is 1.00 if the operating income goal is met, and is designed to vary within the range from 0.00 (minimum) to 2.00 (maximum), in proportion to the degree to which the goal is achieved. The amounts of consolidated operating income corresponding to such minimum and maximum factors shall be determined for each fiscal year, based on the absolute standards of the targeted amount, with a view toward providing clear and effective incentives.

[2] Payout ratio (personal qualitative evaluation)

The payout ratio corresponding to qualitative evaluation for Executives shall be subject to a five-grade evaluation, ranging 50% to 150%, based on an assessment of the degree of achievement of the qualitative goals established through the interview with the President and CEO and other evaluators at the beginning of each fiscal year. This evaluation is then considered by the Compensation Committee.

[3] Allocation ratio (weight)

For the President and CEO, who has ultimate responsibility for results, the allocation ratio (weight) for is set at 100% of the payout ratio corresponding to the degree of achievement against the corporate performance goal. The allocation ratio (weight) is set at 60% for other Executives.

	Degree of achievement against the corporate performance goal	Personal qualitative evaluation
President and CEO	100%	0%
Other Executives (including Executive Vice Presidents)	60%	40%

iii. Non-monetary compensation, etc. (share-based compensation)

In fiscal 2020, the Company revised its previous system of remuneration-type stock options, and introduced share price-linked restricted stock compensation, subject to certain share price-linked conditions, for the Group's officers, including Directors and Executives, in order to increase consciousness of enhancing shareholder value, and expand incentives to improve the Group's financial results in the medium and long term.

Monetary compensation claims	Monthly basic compensation × 3 months × 150% (Monthly basic compensation × 1 month for Non-executive Directors)
Compensation period	1 year
Transfer restriction period	30 years *However, transfer restrictions shall be lifted before the conclusion of the transfer restriction period if the recipient retires from all offices within the Group due the expiration of his or her term of office, or another reason deemed proper by the Company's Board of Directors
Share price-linked conditions (Proportion of shares for which transfer restrictions are to be lifted)  *These share price-linked conditions do not apply to compensation for Non-executive Directors.	Evaluation period	3 fiscal years
	Range	33.3% to 100% *Taking the number of allotted shares for which transfer restrictions are to be lifted as 100% when the share price growth rate (rate of return) benchmarked against the TOPIX growth rate is 100%, transfer restriction shall be lifted within a range from 50% and 150%, corresponding to the share price growth rate benchmarked against the TOPIX.
	Index and method of linkage	Proportion of shares for which transfer restrictions are to be lifted (%) = the Company's TSR ÷ TOPIX growth rate × 2/3 × 100%  *1: The Company's TSR = (B+C) ÷ A *2: TOPIX growth rate = E ÷ D A: Average closing price of the Company's common share on the First Section of the Tokyo Stock Exchange for the three months immediately preceding the start of the evaluation period B: Average closing price of the Company's common share on the First Section of the Tokyo Stock Exchange for the three months immediately preceding the conclusion of the evaluation period C: Total amount of dividends paid per share during the evaluation period D: Average value of TOPIX for the three months immediately preceding the start of the evaluation period E: Average value of TOPIX for the three months immediately preceding the conclusion of the evaluation period

* Indicators for share price-linked conditions (proportion of shares for which transfer restrictions are to be lifted) pertaining to restricted stock delivered under this system for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2021 will be determined after the conclusion of the three fiscal year evaluation period (from April 1, 2020 to March 31, 2023).

* After comprehensive examination of factors including operational issues in the first fiscal year after introduction, the Company is currently considering its response regarding this restricted stock compensation from fiscal 2021 onward.

- 3) Reason why the details of individual compensation for Executives, etc. for fiscal 2020 are deemed appropriate by the Compensation Committee in view of the policy set forth in 1) above Levels of compensation are benchmarked against the industry as a whole, based on the basic principle of compensation for officers “3. Ensuring there is no shortfall in compensation level compared with the industry as a whole” in 1) above. The Company participates in a compensation survey each fiscal year, together with numerous other listed companies, and the levels of compensation have been validated by the Compensation Committee to be average on a yearly basis, provided the performance and share price targets for bonuses and share-based compensation are met.

Moreover, the Compensation Committee considers that the introduction of share price-linked restricted stock compensation in fiscal 2020 constitutes the promotion of basic principles “1. Promotion of mutual sharing of interests of shareholders and officers” and “2. Expansion of incentive effects to improve financial results and shareholder value.”

The details of compensation for individual Executives, etc. are deemed to be in accordance with the decision policy, because they have been determined by the Compensation Committee as mentioned above, based on the basic principle of compensation for officers.

The Company stipulates the maximum age and maximum term of office for each position in the "Regulations of Age Limits of Executives in Office" to promote appropriate rotation. Given this, when deciding on the appointment of the Representative Executive and Executives with Special

Titles, and on whether or not to reappoint them after the expiration of their single-year service contracts, the Nominating Committee will appropriately evaluate and make a decision, based not only on qualitative aspects such as whether the candidate will contribute to realizing the Group's "Our Philosophy," but also on quantitative results during each individual's period of service, as well as objective, management personnel evaluation data, etc. prepared by third-party agencies. This method ensures fairness and transparency.

◆ Decision on selection and reappointment of the CEO

At the time of appointing a CEO, the Nominating Committee deliberates the advisability of the candidate's appointment, following the proposal of commitments (goals that must be reached) for the expected period of tenure by the CEO himself/herself. In the following years, the CEO explains results against the commitments, the status of progress, the overall situation at the time, future outlook, issues to be addressed, etc., after which the CEO leaves the room, and four (4) External Directors who are the committee members deliberate the acceptance or non-acceptance of the reappointment of the CEO.

Specifically, the Company has administered individual questionnaires for all Directors and Corporate Auditors inside and outside the Company. In the questionnaire, both quantitative and qualitative aspects of issues, including the composition of the Board of Directors, the details of its deliberation, operations such as support from the secretariat, and processes for determining the "nomination" and "compensation" of officers, are evaluated.

In fiscal 2020, the Company deepened its initiatives, administering questionnaires that incorporate new perspectives put forward by a third-party advisor.

◆ Analysis of results and extraction of issues

The evaluation results for fiscal 2020 show a majority of respondents regarded the Board of Directors as effective – either “effective” or “generally effective,” and several respondents were of the view that the Board had engaged in energetic discussions on medium- and long-term strategy to guide the Group’s overall direction and oversee the execution of duties, confirming that the overall effectiveness of the Company’s Board of Directors is ensured. On the other hand, issues were identified regarding explanations to the Board of Directors by those responsible for the business execution, the depth of discussions completed before a matter was submitted to the Board of Directors, and discussions based on dialogue with stakeholders.

Policy on cross-shareholdings

◆ Policy regarding cross-shareholdings by the Company

The basic policy of the Group is not to acquire or hold cross-shareholdings in principle, except when it is deemed to contribute to sustainable growth and enhancement of corporate value of the Group over the medium- to long-term. With regard to the cross-shareholdings the Company currently holds, every year at the Board of Directors, the Company comprehensively verifies the rationality of continued holding from quantitative and qualitative aspects including the purpose of holding, transaction status, and dividend earnings. Regardless, the Company will proceed with phased sales in consideration of factors such as the market environment and status of shares held with the aim of reducing cross-shareholdings.

◆ Standards for exercising voting rights in relation to cross-shareholdings

Regarding the exercise of voting rights for cross-shareholdings, an overall judgment is made as to whether or not exercise of such rights would spur sustainable corporate value of said company or contribute to sustainable growth and enhancement of corporate value of the Group over the mid- to long-term. Such voting rights are duly exercised for each agenda item.

◆Policy in the case that cross-shareholders indicate their intention to sell shares

When shareholders who hold the Company's shares for the purpose of cross-shareholding (cross-shareholders) indicate their intention to sell their shares, the Company will not hinder the sale of the shares by, for instance, implying a possible reduction of business transactions.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

[Basis for Preparation of Consolidated Statutory Reports]

1. Scope of consolidation

(1) Number of consolidated subsidiaries: 38

(2) Name of principal consolidated subsidiaries:

Isetan Mitsukoshi Ltd., Sapporo Marui Mitsukoshi Ltd., Hakodate Marui Imai Ltd., Sendai Mitsukoshi Ltd., Nagoya Mitsukoshi, Ltd., Shizuoka Isetan Co., Ltd., Niigata Isetan Mitsukoshi Ltd., Hiroshima Mitsukoshi, Ltd., Takamatsu Mitsukoshi, Ltd., Matsuyama Mitsukoshi, Ltd., Iwataya Mitsukoshi Ltd., Isetan (China) Investment Co., Ltd., Shanghai Mei Long Zhen Isetan Department Store Co., Ltd., Tianjin Isetan Co., Ltd., Tianjin Binhai New Area Isetan Co., Ltd., Chengdu Isetan Co., Ltd., Isetan (Singapore) Ltd., Isetan of Japan Sdn. Bhd., Mitsukoshi (U.S.A.) Inc., Mitsukoshi Italia S.r.l., MICARD Co. Ltd.

In the consolidated fiscal year under review, Lime Tree Shipping AG was newly established, and Isetan Mitsukoshi Innovations Ltd. has become more significant. Accordingly, Lime Tree Shipping AG and Isetan Mitsukoshi Innovations Ltd. were included in the scope of consolidation.

In addition, as the Company has decided to liquidate ICJ Department Store Sdn. Bhd. and carried out share transfer of Isetan Mitsukoshi Real Estate Co., Ltd., these companies were excluded from the scope of consolidation.

(3) Name of principal nonconsolidated subsidiaries

Leotex Co., Ltd., Isetan Soleil Co., Ltd., Kyushu Communication Service Co., Ltd., Aiu Co., Ltd., Fashion Headline Ltd., LEO MART Ltd.

(4) Reason for exclusion of the above companies from scope of consolidation

These nonconsolidated subsidiaries are of small scale and none of the sum of their total assets, the sum of their net sales, the sum of their net income and losses (calculated according to our equity interest) and the sum of their retained earnings (calculated according to our equity interest) have any material impact on the consolidated statutory reports.

2. Application of equity method

(1) Number of affiliates accounted for by the equity method: 9

Shin Kong Mitsukoshi Department Store Co., Ltd. (Taiwan), West Japan Railway Isetan Ltd., ITM Clover Co., Ltd., Shinjuku Subnade Co., Ltd., Mitsukoshi Isetan Im Facilities Co., Ltd., NOMURA FUDOSAN MITSUKOSHI ISETAN KAIHATSU GODO KAISYA, Yanlord Isetan Commercial Co., Ltd., MI Food Style Co. Ltd., Japan Duty Free Fa-So-La Isetan Mitsukoshi Co., Ltd.

In the consolidated fiscal year under review, Yanlord Isetan Commercial Co., Ltd. was newly established and therefore included in the scope of the equity method.

(2) Name of subsidiaries and affiliates not accounted for by the equity method and reason for not applying the equity method

Subsidiaries and affiliates not accounted for by the equity method (Sakaechikamachi Co., Ltd., etc.) have a minimal impact on the consolidated statutory reports and are of little significance as viewed from the overall group business, judging from their respective net income (calculated according to our equity interest) and retained earnings (calculated according to our equity interest). Therefore, the equity method has not been applied to these companies.

- (3) Handling of companies accounted for by the equity method but whose closing dates are different from that of the parent company

With regard to companies accounted for by the equity method but whose closing dates are different from that of the parent company, financial documents that have been prepared based on the business years of the respective companies are used. At the same time, necessary adjustments for the application of the equity method were carried out with respect to material transactions that occurred during the period between the respective closing dates and the consolidated closing date.

3. Closing date of consolidated subsidiaries

The fiscal year ends on December 31 for the following consolidated subsidiaries: Isetan (China) Investment Co., Ltd., Shanghai Mei Long Zhen Isetan Department Store Co., Ltd., Tianjin Isetan Co., Ltd., Tianjin Binhai New Area Isetan Co., Ltd., Chengdu Isetan Co., Ltd., Isetan (Singapore) Ltd., Isetan (Thailand) Co., Ltd., Isetan of Japan Sdn. Bhd., Mitsukoshi (U.S.A.) Inc., Mitsukoshi Italia S.r.l., and Isetan Mitsukoshi (Italia) S.r.l. Financial documents as of the closing date of the respective companies were used in preparing the consolidated statutory reports.

At the same time, necessary adjustments for consolidation were carried out with respect to material transactions that occurred during the period between the respective closing dates and the consolidated closing date.

4. Accounting policies

(1) Standards and methods for evaluation of significant assets

Securities

Bonds held to maturity

Amortized cost method

Available-for-sale securities

Securities with market value

Market value method based on the market price as of the closing date (Differences in valuation are included directly in net assets and the costs of securities sold are calculated primarily using the moving-average method)

Securities without market value

Basically stated at cost using the moving-average method

Investments in investment limited partnerships and similar associations (investments deemed to be securities pursuant to Article 2, Paragraph 2, of the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act) are stated at the net value of the equities based on the most recent financial statements available prepared according to the financial reporting dates specified in the respective partnership agreements.

Inventories

Commercial products

Basically stated at cost using the retail inventory method (method used to write down the book values in response to decreased profitability)

Other	Basically stated at cost using the first-in first-out method (method used to write down the book values in response to decreased profitability)

(2) Depreciation methods for significant depreciable assets

Tangible fixed assets (except Lease assets and right-of-use assets)

Basically the straight-line method

Straight-line method

As for software for in-house use the straight-line method is used with a useful life of 5 years.

Lease assets

Lease assets relating to finance lease without transfer of ownership

The straight-line method is used with a useful life of the lease period and with a residue value of zero.

Right-of-use assets

The straight-line method is used with a useful life of the lease period and with a residue value of zero.

(3) Accounting standards for significant allowances and accruals

Allowance for doubtful accounts

In order to prepare for possible losses on uncollectible receivables held as of the end of the current consolidated financial year, estimated amounts are provided with regard to general receivables according to the historical percentage of uncollectibles and with regard to doubtful receivables considering the probability of collection of respective receivables.

Accrued bonuses

In order to prepare for bonus payments to Operating Officers and employees, provision is made based on the estimated bonus payments, which are attributable to the current consolidated fiscal year.

Allowance for customer-discount points

Provision is made for estimated amount of future use based on the outstanding point amount of points issued via the point system with the aim of promoting sales according to the historical rate of usage.

Allowance for redemption of gift certificates

In order to prepare for possible losses relating to gift certificates collected after cancellation of inclusion in liabilities, provision is made for estimated redemption amount according to the historical percentage of collection of such gift certificates.

Provision for loss on business of subsidiaries and affiliates

In order to prepare for possible losses relating to the business of subsidiaries and affiliates, the provision of an amount regarded necessary is made upon considering the fiscal position, etc., of the relevant subsidiaries and affiliates.

(4) Other significant matters relating to the preparation of consolidated statutory reports

1) Accounting for deferred assets

Bond issue costs

Bond issue costs are amortized by the straight-line method over the period until bond redemption.

2) Significant methods of hedge accounting

Method of hedge accounting

Deferred hedge accounting is employed. However, with regard to foreign currency receivables/payables with forward exchange contracts, designated hedge accounting (“furiate-shori”) is employed and with regard to interest rate swaps that meet the requirements for exceptional accounting (“tokurei-shori”), exceptional accounting is employed.

Means of hedging and hedged items

Hedging instruments: Forward exchange transactions, swaps and options to hedge foreign exchange-rate fluctuation risk and interest-rate fluctuation risk

Hedged items: Interest payable on foreign currency-denominated trade payables and borrowings

Hedging policy

The purpose of hedging activities is to reduce exchange-rate fluctuation risk and interest-rate fluctuation risk in accordance with the risk management policy of the Group.

Assessment of hedge effectiveness

Hedge effectiveness is assessed for each specific transaction at the end of the consolidated fiscal year under review. However, hedge effectiveness is not assessed if the substantial terms and conditions such as principal, interest rates and contract period of the hedging instruments and the hedged assets or liabilities are the same.

3) Accounting for employees’ retirement benefits

Method for attributing the estimated employees’ retirement benefits to periods

For calculation of retirement benefit obligations, we principally use the benefit formula method for attributing the estimated retirement benefits to the periods up to the end of the fiscal year under review.

Amortization of actuarial difference and prior service costs

Prior service costs are recognized on an accrual basis by the straight-line method over various periods (mainly 5 to 11 years) that are not more than the average remaining service period of employees at the time of the accrual.

The actuarial differences that resulted are mainly recognized in the following consolidated fiscal year by the straight-line method over various periods (5 to 11 years) that are not more than the average remaining service period of employees at the time of the accrual of a difference.

4) Accounting for consumption taxes, etc.

Consumption taxes and local consumption taxes are accounted for by the tax exclusion method.

5) Method and period for amortization of goodwill

Amortization of goodwill uses the straight-line method over 5 years.

[Notes on Changes in Presentation Methods]

Effective from the consolidated fiscal year under review, the Group has applied “Accounting Standard for Disclosure of Accounting Estimates” (Accounting Standards Board of Japan (ASBJ) Statement No. 31, March 31, 2020) and included “Notes on Significant Accounting Estimates” herein.

[Notes on Accounting Estimates]

1. Impairment loss on fixed assets in the department store business in Japan

(1) Amounts recorded in the consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year under review

Impairment loss: 3,356 million yen                      Fixed assets: 609,049 million yen

(2) Other information contributing to understanding the details of accounting estimates

1) Calculation method

The Group engages in the department store business as its primary business and views each store as the basic unit representing the minimum unit responsible for generating cash flow.

For the stores that show a sign of impairment losses to be incurred, the Group compares the book value to recoverable value. If the Group determines an impairment loss should be recognized, the Group writes the book value down to recoverable value and records the decrease amount as an impairment loss. A recoverable amount is estimated based on its net realizable value or its value in use.

If a recoverable amount is its value in use, the Group makes the best estimate of undiscounted future cash flows based on the following fiscal year’s business plan, comprehensively considering the timing of COVID-19 containment and the sales growth rate that reflects the business plan, even under the current economic climate with high uncertainty of the future.

If a recoverable amount is its net realizable value, the amount for the asset group with a high level of significance is measured using appraisal value provided by a real estate appraiser in accordance with the Real Estate Appraisal Standards of Japan established by an external valuation institution.

2) Key assumptions

Key assumptions used to calculate undiscounted future cash flows include the sales growth rate based on the prospect for consumer spending trends in Japan, the outlook for recovery in demand from inbound visitors, the impact of COVID-19, and sales growth that reflects the business plan.

For the sales growth rate based on the prospect for consumer spending trends in Japan, the Group determines the sales growth rate for the following fiscal year based on forecasts provided by more than one outside professionals.

About the outlook for recovery in demand from inbound visitors, based on international transportation forecasts from outside organizations, the Group assumes that such demand in the following fiscal year will recover within the range of their recovery forecasts.

For the impact of COVID-19, it is difficult to predict how COVID-19 will spread and when it will be contained accurately. Given that, at present, the Group assumes that COVID-19 will impact its business performance until fiscal year 2023.

The sales growth rate that reflects the business plan is determined based on the economic climate surrounding the department store industry, store-specific events, and the uncertainty of the future.

3) Impact on the consolidated financial statements for the following fiscal year

The Group assesses that key assumptions used to calculate undiscounted future cash flows are deemed the best estimates based on available data, including external information. However, the future is highly uncertain, and it is difficult to predict the impact of COVID-19 accurately. Given this situation, if these assumptions need to be reviewed due to the prolonged effect of COVID-19, the sales growth rate that deviates from the estimate, or other factors, estimates of undiscounted future cash flows may be affected. Consequently, an impairment loss may incur in the next fiscal year.

In addition, appraisal value provided by a real estate appraiser based on the Real Estate Appraisal Standards may be affected by future trends in the real estate market. As a result, if the net realizable value decreases, an impairment loss may incur in the following fiscal year.

2. Recoverability of a deferred tax asset

(1) Amounts recorded in the consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year under review

Deferred tax assets (before offsetting deferred tax liabilities): 19,869 million yen

(2) Other information contributing to understanding the details of accounting estimates

1) Calculation method

The recoverability of a deferred tax asset is determined over the estimation period of three years for deductible temporary differences and unused tax losses based on the projections of future taxable profits.

The Group makes the best estimate of future taxable profits based on the following fiscal year plan, considering certain assumptions concerning the timing of COVID-19 containment, the impact of COVID-19, including the effect of temporary store closures, and other factors, even under the current economic environment with high uncertainty of the future.

2) Key assumptions

Key assumptions used to project future taxable profits include the sales growth rate based on the prospect for consumer spending trends in Japan, the outlook for recovery in demand from inbound visitors, and the impact of COVID-19.

For the sales growth rate based on the prospect for consumer spending trends in Japan, the Group determines the sales growth rate for the following fiscal year based on forecasts provided by more than one outside professionals.

About the outlook for recovery in demand from inbound visitors, based on international transportation forecasts from outside organizations, the Group assumes that such demand in the following fiscal year will recover within the range of their recovery forecasts.

For the impact of COVID-19, it is difficult to predict how COVID-19 will spread and when it will be contained accurately. Given that, at present, the Group assumes that COVID-19 will impact its business performance until fiscal year 2023.

3) Impact on the consolidated financial statements for the following fiscal year

For the projection of future taxable profits, considering the current economic climate with high uncertainty, the Group uses available data, including external information, and makes elastic estimates over the estimation period of three years to handle uncertainty of the future. In case of an unforeseen event, such as extended temporary store closures due to the declaration of a state of emergency, the Group may need to write down a deferred tax asset in the following fiscal year. On the other hand, if the uncertainty of the future is reduced due to factors such as earlier recovery from the impact of COVID-19 with the increasing vaccination rollout in the future, the Group may recognize an additional deferred tax asset in the following fiscal year.

[Additional Information]

(Note) Of impairment losses recorded in the consolidated income statement, 389 million yen and 72 million yen are included in “loss on closing of stores” and “other,” respectively.

(2) Circumstances leading to recognition of impairment losses

With regard to the asset group in which earnings generated by operating activities were continually negative, the Company conducted write-downs to recoverable value and recorded the amount of decrease as an impairment loss.

(3) Methods of asset grouping

Assets have been grouped primarily with stores as the basic unit representing the minimum unit responsible for generating cash flow.

(4) Method of calculating recoverable amounts

Recoverable amounts for asset groups are estimated based on their net realizable value or use value. If recoverable amounts are based on their net realizable value, estimates for asset groups with a high level of significance are conducted using valuation amounts issued by a real estate appraiser in accordance with the Real Estate Appraisal Standards of Japan. Additionally, if the recoverable amount is the use value, calculations are made by discounting the future cash flows by approximately 8 to 11%.

2. Business structure improvement expenses

These expenses were primarily ones associated with the implementation of the Next Career Plan at Matsuyama Mitsukoshi Ltd. and Nagoya Mitsukoshi Ltd.

3. Losses due to COVID-19

These expenses were primarily fixed costs (personnel expenses, lease payments, depreciation, etc.) incurred due to the temporary closure of the Group's stores to prevent the spread of COVID-19 in light of the declaration of the state of emergency.

[Notes to Financial Instruments]

1. Status of financial instruments

(1) Policy on handling of financial instruments

When managing surplus funds, the Group limits its disposition of such funds to financial assets that exhibit a high degree of stability, such as bank deposits and highly-rated bonds. Additionally, the Group has a policy of procuring funds through bank borrowings and short-term corporate bonds (commercial paper) and similar means. Derivatives are used to avoid exchange-rate fluctuation risk present in trade payables and interest-rate fluctuation risk present in borrowings and other means of fund raising, and are not used to conduct speculative transactions.

(2) Description of financial instruments and associated risk and risk management system

Notes and accounts receivable, which represent trade receivables, are exposed to client-based credit risk. In regard to this risk, the Group, in compliance with the credit management provisions under each Group company, keeps track of the due dates and balances associated with each business partner and promptly identifies and alleviates collection-based concerns arising from deterioration in financial conditions and other factors. Investment securities are primarily the shares of companies with which the Company maintains a business relationship, and are therefore subject to the risk of market price fluctuations. With regard to such risk, the Group regularly ascertains the market value of these shares, the financial conditions of these business partners, and other factors, and continually reviews its holding position while according consideration to the relationship with these business partners.

Notes and accounts payable, which represent trade payables, are almost entirely payable within the span of one year. A portion of these are foreign currency-denominated items related to payment for product imports, which are subject to exchange-rate fluctuation risk. In order to counter such risks, forward exchange contracts are concluded for a portion of the payment amounts.

Among borrowings, short-term borrowings and commercial paper largely represent a form of fund raising associated with operational transactions, and long-term debt and corporate bonds largely represent fund raising associated with capital expenditure. Borrowings bearing variable interest rates are exposed to interest-rate fluctuation risk. Out of these borrowings, for a portion of long-term debt, derivative transactions (interest rate swap transactions) are used as a means of hedging each individual contract in order to avoid risk associated with fluctuations in interest expenses and to work towards achieving fixed interest expenses. Assessment of hedge effectiveness have been omitted in line with the determination that conditions under exceptional accounting treatment for interest rate swaps have been met.

The execution and management of derivative transactions are conducted in accordance with internal provisions stipulating transaction authority. When utilizing derivatives, the Group engages only high-rated financial institutions in order to reduce credit risk.

Additionally, although trade payables and borrowings are exposed to liquidity risk, in addition to managing that risk through methods that include having each Group company prepare cash flow plans on a monthly basis, the Group has secured sufficient liquidity on hand by establishing commitment line agreements and overdraft agreements with its principal transacting banks.

2. Market value, etc. of financial instruments

Amounts posted on the consolidated balance sheet as of March 31, 2021, market values, and the corresponding differences between the two are as follows.

(Millions of yen)

Items	Amounts posted on the consolidated balance sheet (Note 1)	Market values (Note 1)	Differences
(1) Cash and deposits	100,041	100,041	—
(2) Notes and accounts receivable	116,415	116,415	—
(3) Marketable securities and investment securities
Bonds held to maturity	3,231	3,307	75
Available-for-sale securities	23,687	23,687	—
(4) Guarantee deposits	44,910	44,074	(836)
(5) Notes and accounts payable	(83,140)	(83,140)	—
(6) Short-term borrowings (Note 2)	(7,784)	(7,784)	—
(7) Corporate bonds	(40,000)	(39,969)	(31)
(8) Long-term debt (Note 2)	(111,100)	(110,294)	(805)
(9) Derivative transactions	4	4	—

Note 1: Items posted as liabilities are enclosed in brackets.

Note 2: Long-term debt expected to repay within a year is not included in (6) Short-term borrowings but in (8) Long-term debt.

Note 3: Calculation methods for the market value of financial instruments and transactions involving securities and derivatives.

- (1) Cash and deposits
Cash and deposits are settled within a short time frame and therefore have a market value nearly equivalent to their book value. Consequently, the book value was shown as the market value.
- (2) Notes and accounts receivable
Notes and accounts receivable are settled within a short time frame and therefore have a market value nearly equivalent to their book value. Consequently, the book value was shown as the market value.
- (3) Marketable securities and investment securities
Equities are based on their value on exchanges, bonds are based on their value on exchanges or quotes from counterparty financial institutions.
- (4) Guarantee deposits
The market value of guarantee deposits is computed based on the present value of future recoverable cash flows, discounted by the yield on government bonds, etc., corresponding to the residual period.
- (5) Notes and accounts payable
Because notes and accounts payable are settled in the short term, the market value is almost equivalent to the book value, therefore notes and accounts payable are based on the book value.

- (6) Short-term borrowings
Short-term borrowings and commercial paper are settled within a short time frame and therefore have a market value nearly equivalent to their book value. Consequently, the book value was shown as the market value.
- (7) Corporate bonds
The value of the corporate bonds is calculated according to the market value.
- (8) Long-term debt
The market value of long-term debt is calculated based on the sum of the principal and interest, discounted by the assumed rate that would apply to similar new borrowings. Variable-rate long-term debt is subject to the exceptional accounting treatment for interest rate swaps. Under this accounting treatment, the sum of principal and interest, which is treated as one with the corresponding interest rate swap, is discounted by a reasonably estimated interest rate that would apply to similar borrowings.
- (9) Derivative transactions
Calculated based on prices, etc., designated by financial institutions, etc., that serve as counterparties. Interest rate swaps subject to the exceptional accounting treatment are treated as being one with the hedged long-term debt. As such, the market value of such transactions is presented as being included in the market value for the long-term debt concerned. (Please refer to (8) above.)

Note 4: Non-listed shares and shares in subsidiaries and affiliates, etc. (posted as 85,322 million yen on the consolidated balance sheet) have no market price, their future cash flow cannot be estimated, and it is recognized that ascertaining their market value is extremely difficult. Accordingly, these items are not included in "Available-for-sale securities" under (3) Marketable securities and investment securities above.
