2. BTC Yield, BTC Gain, & BTC ¥ Gain

As previously disclosed, BTC Yield is a key performance indicator (KPI) that reflects the percentage change in the ratio of Total Bitcoin Holdings to Fully Diluted Shares Outstanding over a given period. The Company uses BTC Yield to assess the performance of its Bitcoin acquisition strategy, which is intended to be accretive to shareholders.

BTC Gain represents the Company’s Total Bitcoin Holdings at the beginning of a period multiplied by the achieved BTC Yield for that period. This metric quantifies the hypothetical increase in Total Bitcoin Holdings, assuming no new shares were issued. By isolating the impact of dilution, BTC Gain highlights the net Bitcoin accretion driven purely by the Company’s Bitcoin Treasury Operations.

BTC ¥ Gain expresses BTC Gain in yen terms by multiplying BTC Gain by the market price of Bitcoin at the end of the period. This provides shareholders with a clearer view of the financial impact in local currency.

From July 1, 2024 to September 30, 2024, the Company’s BTC Yield was 41.7%. From October 1, 2024 to December 31, 2024, the Company’s BTC Yield was 309.8%. From January 1, 2025 to March 31, 2025, the Company achieved a BTC Yield of 95.6%. Quarter to Date, from April 1, 2025 to June 30, 2025, the Company’s BTC Yield is 129.4%.

Notes:

1. Fully Diluted Shares Outstanding comprises (i) the total number of common shares outstanding, (ii) potential shares from assumed conversion of outstanding convertible notes, (iii) potential shares from exercise of outstanding stock options, and (iv) shares from moving strike warrants only after exercise, in each case as of the indicated date. To align with U.S. capital markets reporting standards, moving strike warrants are only included after exercise to more accurately reflect potential shareholder dilution. Furthermore, to remain consistent with the reporting standards of At-The-Market (ATM) equity facilities, 0% discount warrants issued to purchase Bitcoin will be reflected in the fully diluted share count only after exercise, when proceeds have been delivered to the Company. This methodology ensures the most accurate and fair measurement of dilution aligning with aligning with ATM facilities in the U.S.
2. Bitcoin per Fully Diluted Shares Outstanding is calculated by dividing Total Bitcoin Holdings by the Fully Diluted Shares Outstanding at the end of each period. The result is then multiplied by 1,000 to express the number of Bitcoin per 1,000 Fully Diluted Shares Outstanding.
3. BTC ¥ Gain (Quarter to Date) is calculated by multiplying the BTC Gain by the BTC/JPY Reference price as defined in footnote (4). Applying a consistent reference rate across all periods ensures comparability and reflects the current yen-denominated value of the period's BTC Gain for shareholders.
4. BTC/JPY Reference is the latest daily closing price on Bitflyer, as published at: <https://bitflyer.com/en-jp/s/closing-price>

3. Capital Markets Activity

On January 28, 2025, Metaplanet's Board of Directors approved the issuance of the 13th to 17th Series of Stock Acquisition Rights to EVO FUND via third-party allotment. This issuance consisted of five tranches, each comprising 4.2 million shares, for a total of 21 million shares. The exercise price for each tranche was set at 100 % of the previous day's closing price (0 % discount), with an adjustable exercise-price mechanism and suspension provisions designed to align with market conditions.

On February 10, 2025, the Board approved the issuance of the 6th Series of Ordinary Bonds to EVO FUND through a third-party allotment, raising JPY 4 billion. These zero-coupon bonds, with a scheduled maturity date of August 12, 2025, will be redeemed with proceeds from the exercise of the 13th – 17th Series Stock Acquisition Rights. On February 13, 2025, Metaplanet confirmed receipt of the JPY 4 billion raised through the 6th Series

As disclosed in the January 28, 2025, issuance of the 13th – 17th Series rights, both redemptions were funded by proceeds from EVO FUND's exercise of the 13th Series rights. The bonds were zero-coupon, and each redemption was conducted on a non-interest-bearing basis.

Between February 18 and 25, 2025, 28.4 % of the 13th Series rights (11,910 rights) were exercised, resulting in the issuance of 1,164,000 new shares and the transfer of 27,000 treasury shares at an average exercise price of approximately JPY 6,131 per share. ## 5. Important Information About BTC Yield, BTC Gain, and BTC ¥ Gain

BTC Yield is a key performance indicator (KPI) that reflects the percentage change in the ratio of Total Bitcoin Holdings to Fully Diluted Shares Outstanding over a given period. The Company uses BTC Yield to assess the performance of its Bitcoin acquisition strategy, which is intended to be accretive to shareholders.

BTC Gain is a key performance indicator (KPI) that represents the Company's Total Bitcoin Holdings at the beginning of a period multiplied by the achieved BTC Yield for that period. This metric quantifies the hypothetical increase in Total Bitcoin Holdings, assuming no new shares were issued. By isolating the impact of dilution, BTC Gain highlights the net Bitcoin accretion driven purely by the Company's Bitcoin Treasury Operations.

BTC ¥ Gain expresses BTC Gain in yen terms by multiplying BTC Gain by the market price of Bitcoin at the end of the period. This provides shareholders with a clearer view of the financial impact in local currency.

BTC ¥ Gain does not represent a fair value gain or loss on the Company's Bitcoin holdings and may be positive even when the Company incurs fair value losses on its Bitcoin holdings.

Fully Diluted Shares Outstanding includes all currently issued common shares at the end of each period, along with any additional shares that could be issued through stock options, stock acquisition rights, or the conversion of any future convertible instruments, such as convertible notes. To remain consistent with the reporting standards of At-The-Market (ATM) equity facilities, moving strike warrants issued to purchase Bitcoin will be reflected in the fully diluted share count only after exercise, when proceeds have been delivered to the Company. This methodology ensures the most accurate and fair measurement of dilution for moving strike warrants, aligning with how dilution is measured in ATM facilities in the United States.

BTC Yield does not account for vesting conditions or exercise prices of stock options, except for moving strike warrants. The Company uses BTC Yield as a KPI to assess its strategy of acquiring Bitcoin in a manner it believes to be accretive to shareholders. This metric helps investors evaluate the impact of issuing additional shares or convertible instruments to fund Bitcoin acquisitions.

Management acknowledges the limitations of BTC Yield, BTC Gain, and BTC ¥ Gain, including their exclusion of debt and other liabilities that take priority over common shares. These KPIs also assume that all debt will be refinanced or, in the case of future convertible debt, converted into common shares under its terms. BTC Gain and BTC ¥ Gain do not take into account debt obligations, preferred stock, or other senior claims on company assets, which may influence the actual accretive impact of capital allocation decisions.

None of these KPIs are measures of operational performance, financial performance, or liquidity. BTC Yield, BTC Gain, and BTC ¥ Gain should not be interpreted as traditional financial metrics such as return on investment, cash flow, or profitability. Additionally, the market price of our common shares is influenced by factors beyond our Bitcoin holdings and share count, meaning these KPIs do not predict or determine our stock price.

These KPIs are specifically designed to evaluate whether the use of equity capital to acquire Bitcoin benefits shareholders in terms of Bitcoin accumulation. They do not consider the source of funds used for Bitcoin purchases. For example, the Company has acquired Bitcoin through various financing activities, including the rights issue disclosed on August 6, 2024. As a result, BTC Yield, BTC Gain, and BTC ¥ Gain may overstate or understate the impact of equity capital on Bitcoin acquisitions, since not all Bitcoin purchases are funded through equity issuances, and not all equity issuances result in Bitcoin acquisitions. Additionally, the issuance, conversion, or redemption of convertible notes may impact these KPIs in ways not captured by their calculations.

The Company has not historically paid dividends on its common shares, and the presentation of these KPIs does not imply any future intention to do so. Holding our common shares does not equate to direct ownership of the Bitcoin we hold. Investors should rely on the Company's financial statements and disclosures filed with the Tokyo Stock Exchange. BTC Yield, BTC Gain, and BTC ¥ Gain are intended as supplemental metrics for those who understand their purpose and limitations, not as replacements for traditional financial analysis.
