2. Business Strategy – Expansion of Sustainable Products

By utilizing the strengths of paper as a sustainable material, expanding sales of high-value-added products contributing to reducing the environmental impact on society and customers

OJI Sustainable Mulching Sheet Biodegradable, Reduces Soil Heat Buildup, and Improves Yield

Rising summer temperatures lead to reduced yields, a serious agricultural challenge.

- Paper-based OJI Sustainable Mulching Sheet achieved a 40% yield increase by moderating soil temperature *2
- Biodegradable in soil, reducing collection and disposal after harvest

Walki (Finland):Packaging Solutions Strengthening Corporate Sustainability Commitments

Global brand owners value paper-based packaging as a symbol of their commitment to sustainability.

- Nestlé's "Maggi" instant cup noodles (sold in Southeast Asia) adopted Walki's recyclable, aluminum-free paper lid material
- Nestlé responded proactively to growing consumer scrutiny on sustainability—well ahead of packaging regulations*3—enhancing its brand value.

^{*2)} Case Study: Chinese Cabbage Cultivation in Ibaraki Prefecture

^{*3)} In Southeast Asia, regulations equivalent to the European "Packaging and Packaging Waste Regulation (PPWR)" have not yet been implemented.

2. Business Strategy – Latest initiatives / Today's news releases

Title	Alignment with Medium-Term Plan Initiatives	Details
Wood-Derived Material "Sulfated Hemicellulose" Obtains Approval as Veterinary Pharmaceutical API in AUS	R&D investment to centralize the Forest Biomass Business	In Australia, obtained approval for the manufacture and export of sulfated hemicellulose (PPS) as an active pharmaceutical ingredient (API) for veterinary use.
Establishment of New Liquid Packaging Carton Plant in Vietnam	Growth investment, Expansion of sustainable packaging business	Will establish a new liquid packaging carton plant in southern Vietnam aiming to develop market around SE Asia area. Planned start of operations: around March 2028
Production Expansion of Cellulose-based Press Board for Transformers	Growth investment	To respond to the rapid expansion of global demand, will increase production capacity – approximately 3 times the current level. Planned start of production: April 2029
Closure of a Newspaper Production Machine	Production consolidation	To optimize production system in line with the change of demand / market structure, will close one machine. Machine to close: N-4 at Tomakomai Mill, Oji Paper Timing of closure: around the end of March 2026

3. Sustainability Strategy – Carbon Neutral and Nature Positive

Aiming for the full utilization of our valuable forest resources

Development of Biochar from Oji's Biomass Resources

Sequestering carbon

Reducing atmospheric CO₂

Soil improvement

Improving the soil's water retention and aeration, which promotes plant growth.

- promoting resource circulation by utilizing unused resources
- contributing to climate change mitigation
- creating economic value through the generation of carbon credits

- Verification tests are currently underway at multiple agricultural sites.
- Starting in FY2025, we have begun a demonstration trial applying biochar produced from unutilized bark of plantation trees in our company-owned forests in Vietnam.

Participation in Natural Capital Accounting (NCA) Initiatives

Engage globally to strengthen participation in discussions on the institutionalization of NCA.
