Travelko Launches Integration with skyticket for International Package Tour Comparison

Expanding the Range of Booking Sites and Tour Plans to Improve Convenience

On September 24, 2026 (Thursday), Travelko (<https://www.tour.ne.jp/>), a travel comparison site operated by OpenDoor Inc. (Head Office: Minato-ku, Tokyo; President and Representative Director: Daisuke Sekine), launched an integration with skyticket, a comprehensive travel booking website operated by Adventure Inc. (Head Office: Shibuya-ku, Tokyo; Representative Director: Shunichi Nakamura), for its international package tour comparison service.

Expanded Booking Site and Packaged Tour Plan Options Through Integration with skyticket

Travelko's overseas tour comparison service allows users to search and compare overseas tour plans offered by multiple travel booking websites in one place. Travelko has previously listed products from skyticket through its domestic rental car comparison service. With this new integration, Travelko has also begun offering skyticket products through its overseas tour comparison service. As a result, overseas tour plans offered by skyticket can now be searched and compared on Travelko. This gives customers considering overseas travel a wider range of options and makes it more convenient to find a tour that suits their needs. We invite you to take advantage of Travelko's enhanced overseas tour comparison service and enjoy your next trip at a better price.

Travelko will continue to prioritize the needs of our customers and strive to provide services that better meet their expectations by responding quickly and accurately to their evolving travel needs.
