Capitalizing on Growth Opportunities & AI Utilization

3.1 Capitalizing on Growth Opportunities

Strategic initiatives to acquire a stable merchant base are progressing well
 Capturing AI as an opportunity, driving enhancement of our cashless platform and productivity improvements

Business Environment

① Household defensive consumption rising amid inflation

Slowdown in personal consumption growth

Widening demand gaps by industry

② Full-scale AI implementation

Intensifying competition in AI utilization

Labor-saving in facility operations

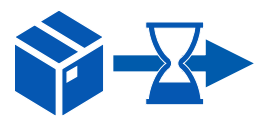

③ Oil price rises & chip shortages

Rising terminal procurement unit cost

Terminal delivery delays

Our Response

- ✓ Spread: Strategic acquisition of life necessities merchants raised their share to approx. 40%
- ✓ Stock: Fixed-fee solution revenue expanded approx. 3x*1

- ✓ Targeting OP per employee of ¥30mn by FY2030
 - ✓ Merchant-facing services: Enhancement of cashless platform
 - ✓ Company-wide operations: Driving productivity improvements

- ✓ Establishing a stable supply system
 - ✓ Secured advance inventory of key payment terminals*2 (vs FY2025 4Q +approx. ¥1.2bn)
 - ✓ Diversified procurement across multiple terminal manufacturers

*1: vs FY2021 Q2
 *2: All terminals needed for this period's major projects are already secured

3.2 Capitalizing on Growth Opportunities 1: Expansion of Fee + Stock

Strategically acquired solid life necessities merchants, raising their share to ~40% and securing stable fees
 Expansion of subscription-based DX and activation solutions is driving further business stabilization

Fee: Capturing active payment activity

Stock: Expansion of subscription-based solution revenue

3.3 Capitalizing on Growth Opportunities 2: Competitiveness via AI

Advancing cashless platform sophistication and productivity through AI utilization; targeting ¥30mn operating profit per employee by September 2030
