【First Report】 Service Outages on the Website of the IBIDEN

IBIDEN CO., LTD. confirmed on April 13, 2026, that a service outage occurred on our company's official website, resulting in the display of unauthorized web page. We sincerely apologize for the significant inconvenience and trouble caused to our customers and all other stakeholders.

Currently, emergency measures are being taken, including suspending access to the website. We are also proceeding with identifying the external intrusion route and implementing restoration efforts. At this moment, other than the display of unauthorized web pages, we have not confirmed any damages such as the leakage of personal information. However, for those who may have accessed the unauthorized web page, we kindly request that you update the security of your accessing device to the latest version. We report the currently known details as follows:

1. Background

At approximately 7:30 AM on Monday, April 13, it was confirmed that an announcement for a site unrelated to our company was being displayed on our website. Upon confirmation, we promptly shut down the server and suspended access to our company's website.

2. Current Status

We are continuing to suspend access to the website and are proceeding with investigations into unauthorized access, restoration, and measures to prevent recurrence.

3. Future Actions

We will resume public access to our website once its safety and the correctness of its content have been confirmed. Should any matters requiring disclosure arise in the future, we will promptly announce them.
