Notice Concerning the Recording of Extraordinary Income (Subsidy Income)

OSAKA ORGANIC CHEMICAL INDUSTRY LTD. (the “Company”) hereby announces that it has decided to record extraordinary income (subsidy income) in the fourth quarter of the fiscal year ending November 30, 2025, as described below.

1. Recording of extraordinary income

The Company received an approval notification on October 27, 2025, with regard to the “Subsidy for domestic investment promotion projects for supply chain countermeasures.” for which we applied to the Ministry of Economy, Trade and Industry. Accordingly, the Company will record subsidy income of 3,140 million yen as extraordinary income in the non-consolidated and consolidated financial results for the fourth quarter of the fiscal year ending November 30, 2025.

2. Impact on financial results

The impact of recording the extraordinary income on the financial results for the fiscal year ending November 30, 2025 is currently under review. Should it be determined that revisions to the financial results forecast are necessary, including due to other factors, we will promptly provide such information.
