Take and Give Needs Launches Casual Wedding Brand “UNWEDDING” -Opening New Venue “UNWEDDING Nakanoshima” in Osaka-

Tokyo-based wedding company Take and Give Needs Co., Ltd. (Head Office: Shinagawa, Tokyo; President: Kenji Iwase; hereinafter referred to as “the Company”) is entering the casual wedding market with the launch of its new venue, “UNWEDDING Nakanoshima,” located in Osaka. Wedding ceremonies at this venue will begin in November 2025.

In the wake of the COVID-19 pandemic, changes in public perception have significantly altered attitudes toward weddings. More couples are choosing not to hold traditional ceremonies or opting for photo weddings. The demand for weddings free from traditional customs and formalities is growing, further accelerating the diversification of wedding styles. Anticipating further this trend will continue, the Company is launching a new venue, “UNWEDDING Nakanoshima” as part of its entry into the casual wedding business.

About “UNWEDDING” – A wedding without the spotlight.

Its new brand, UNWEDDING, is built around the concept of “a wedding without the spotlight.” It is designed for those who feel that traditional weddings don’t quite fit — whether due to style, budget, or life circumstances — or for those who have given up on the idea altogether. UNWEDDING offers a new kind of celebration: a casual gathering with loved ones, more stylish than a home party, yet more relaxed than a formal reception.

With the meaning of “Not a wedding. But still, a wedding.”, the Company intentionally named it UNWEDDING to challenge and redefine the traditional image of weddings.

Unlike its traditional guesthouse weddings, UNWEDDING features minimal planning, a free-flowing party without a set program, venues that require no elaborate decoration, buffet-style dining enjoyed by both the couple and their guests, and casual, comfortable attire. It’s a new kind of wedding that fulfills the feeling of “just right” — something that’s been missing until now.

Even if the couple wears a dress or tuxedo, the space and experience are designed so they can enjoy the day naturally, just as they are, together with their guests. True to its name, UNWEDDING is a celebration that’s not like any wedding before — redefining what it means to come together in love and joy.
