Notice Regarding CDP Climate Change Program Evaluation Results

Tokyo-based wedding company Take and Give Needs Co., Ltd. (Head Office: Shinagawa, Tokyo; President: Kenji Iwase; hereinafter referred to as "the Company") is pleased to announce that it has achieved a 'B' score in the CDP (Carbon Disclosure Project) Climate Change Program. This program, conducted by the international non-profit organization CDP in 2025, evaluates companies' activities regarding climate change information disclosure. This marks the second consecutive year the Company has received a "B" score.

CDP is an international non-profit organization whose primary activity is to request disclosure of information from companies and local governments regarding environmental issues such as climate change countermeasures, water resource protection, and forest conservation, based on requests from global institutional investors and major purchasing companies with a high level of interest in environmental issues. It also encourages such countermeasures through this process. CDP is one of the information disclosure platforms for environmental issues. In 2024, over 24,800 companies, representing two-thirds of the world's market capitalization, disclosed data through CDP. In Japan, over 2,100 companies disclosed information.

CDP ratings are assigned across eight tiers: Leadership Level (A, A-), Management Level (B, B-), Awareness Level (C, C-), and Disclosure Level (D, D-). The Company achieved a "B" score, the third-highest rating, continuing from 2024.

Based on its Sustainability Policy, the Company is expanding the circle of global environmental conservation activities through the products and services it provides, advancing initiatives toward realizing a sustainable society. To minimize the environmental impact generated by its wedding and hotel business activities, the Company will continue to promote activities aimed at reducing environmental impact through its business operations.
