

IPS Group Subsidiary InfiniVAN Participates in Luzon Economic Corridor Investment Forum in Tokyo

InfiniVAN, a Philippine telecommunications and digital infrastructure company and a subsidiary of IPS, participated in the Philippine Investment Forum-Japan held in Tokyo on October 5, 2026.

The forum was organized by the Bases Conversion and Development Authority (BCDA) and related Philippine government organizations to introduce investment opportunities in the Luzon Economic Corridor (LEC) to Japanese businesses. According to BCDA, more than 200 Japanese business leaders and executives attended the event.

During the forum, InfiniVAN introduced its initiatives to strengthen digital infrastructure in the Philippines, including the construction of its Baler Cable Landing Station (Baler CLS) in Aurora province, long-term use of the BCDA's Poro Point Cable Landing Station (Poro Point CLS) in San Fernando, La Union, and utilization of the 240-km fiber optic conduit of the Luzon Bypass Infrastructure (LBI). InfiniVAN also highlighted the advantages of working with BCDA, focusing on the clarity of engagement procedures, speed of transactions processing, and topnotch implementation support.
