The corporate governance of Hisamitsu Pharmaceutical Co., Inc. (the "Company") is described below.

I. Basic Views on Corporate Governance, Capital Structure, Corporate Profile and Other Basic Information1. Basic Views

The Company considers corporate governance to be the framework for transparent, fair, prompt and resolute decision-making with due consideration of the interests of its stakeholders including shareholders, customers, employees and local communities, and positions the improvement of corporate governance as an important task. To this end, the Company has placed priority on creating an organization capable of quickly responding to changes in the business environment and has implemented structural reforms.

With this in mind, the Company has adjusted the number of directors to an appropriate level with the goals of enhancing the performance of the Board of Directors and speeding up decision making. The Company has also introduced an executive officer system to clarify roles and responsibilities in business execution.

Going forward, the Company seeks to create a stronger bond of trust with its stakeholders as a good corporate citizen by improving transparency, ensuring compliance, and upholding corporate ethics in its business activities.

[Reasons for Non-compliance with the Principles of the Corporate Governance Code]

The contents contained herein are based on the latest (June 2021) revision of Japan's Corporate Governance Code.

【Principle 1-4】<Policy on Strategic Shareholdings>

The Company believes that long-term partners who understand its business are essential, because there is a prolonged period from research and development to sales in the manufacture and sale of pharmaceuticals, and the Company leverages its management resources to respond to customer needs beyond pharmaceutical boundaries.

As to strategic shareholdings, the Company basically only holds shares of companies that contribute to enhancing corporate value.

<Verification of Propriety of Strategic Shareholdings>

In May every year, The Board of Directors evaluates whether it is reasonable to continue respective strategic shareholdings based on comprehensive consideration of qualitative verification such as the status of transactions and quantitative verification such as economic rationality based on benefits from transactions and dividends of each stock.

Based on the results of the evaluation, the Company will reduce strategic shareholdings that it deems unreasonable to hold, through ongoing discussions with the issuing companies.

<Basic Views on the Exercise of Voting Rights>

The Company will determine the exercise of voting rights of strategic shareholdings by taking into account whether or not it would lead to an enhancement of the Company's corporate value while respecting the management policies of the issuing company.

【Supplementary Principle 4-8-1】

Independent outside directors and outside corporate auditors indicate and exchange information in the Board of Directors based on objective positions. Meetings solely comprised of independent outside directors are held as necessary.

【Supplementary Principle 4-8-2】

The Company has not appointed a principal independent outside director because there are no problems with contact and coordination between independent outside directors and the management team or cooperation with the Board of Corporate Auditors.

[Disclosure Based on the Principles of the Corporate Governance Code] Update

【Principle 1-7】

The Company endeavors to prevent people involved in the Company such as directors from using their positions to conduct transactions that harm the common interests of the Company or shareholders. In regard to transactions with directors and corporate auditors and their close relatives, the Company annually confirms with directors and corporate auditors themselves whether they have conducted such transactions.

【Supplementary Principle 2-4-1】

<Approach to Ensuring Diversity>

The Company needs to continue to be an organization that continuously creates new value in order to respond to drastic changes in the environment and improve medium- to long-term corporate value. The Company continues to strive for increasing diverse employment regardless of their nationality, gender or disabilities. At the same time, The Company is moving forward with efforts to provide opportunities to embrace the challenge of new work, and to improve the working environment with employee satisfaction survey that enables each individual to harness his or her own capabilities to their fullest while capitalizing on a diverse talent pool.

In accordance with the 7th Mid-Term Management Policy, the Company will build a system which promotes work styles that contribute to the continued success of various employees.

(1) Appointment of women in managerial positions

The ratio of female employees improved from 28.6% to 32.0%, and the percentage of managerial positions held by women improved from 6.3% to 9.4% over the five years from FY2020 to FY2024. During the same period, the rate of continued employment of female employees in their 9th to 11th year of employment increased from 36.5% to 47.9%. While maintaining our basic stance of promoting employees to management positions based on their demonstrated abilities and achievements, regardless of gender, whether new hires or mid-career hires, and other factors, the Company has continued training and active promotion of female candidates for managerial positions through efforts to create a work environment in which women can continue to work to ensure and enhance diversity in our organization.

	〈FY2020〉	→	〈FY2024〉	→	〈FY2028 Target〉
1. Percentage of managerial positions held by women	6.3%		9.4%		15.0%
2. Percentage of women continuing employment 9 to 11 years since joining the company	36.5%		47.9%		50.0%

(2) Appointment of women as officers

With the appointment of a female director in 2023, the Company will create a work environment that generates results through discussions and advice from more diverse perspectives than ever before.

(3) Promoting mid-career hires to managerial positions

The Company is working on mid-career hiring throughout the year, with mid-career hires accounting for 14% of all hires in FY2024. In addition, mid-career hires account for 19% of management positions. To ensure diversity, the Company will continue to recruit and train personnel with specialized knowledge and experience, and actively promote them.

(4) Recruiting and training foreign employees

The Company continuously hires employees regardless of nationality, and hired some people this year as well. After hiring foreign employees in Japan, the Company supports them to deepen their understanding of the Company through practical work, and trains them with a view to expand their scope of activity as an overseas local executive according to individual abilities in the future. The Company is also actively hiring locally at our overseas subsidiaries and branches, and is making efforts to appoint employees to key positions and share our management philosophy. (The percentage of foreign employees in the entire Hisamitsu Group is 43%)

(5) Recruiting persons with disabilities

Employees with different categories and degrees of disabilities are working in various departments and positions, and the employment rate of persons with disabilities in FY2024 was 2.5%. The Company continues to work to create a comfortable working environment through collaboration with the Employment and Lifestyle Support Center for Persons with Disabilities, follow-up interviews, and education for workplace staff.

<Policy and Implementation Status of Human Resource Development and Internal Environmental Improvement to Ensure Diversity>

Taking a long-term perspective, the Company is committed to investing in the human capital that supports our value chain and to increasing the value of each and every employee, who are the driving force behind the realization of our management philosophy. The Company is also working on cross-organizational training, expanding systems aimed at improving job satisfaction, and creating an environment for diverse work styles.

(1) Intrapreneurship system

The intrapreneurship system aiming at commercialization of new businesses planned by employees respects free ideas considering various possibilities regardless of age, gender and the method of employment, and creates growth opportunities for both employees and the Company.

(2) Outside loan / study abroad system

Interaction of diverse people by dispatching personnel to business school and on loan to outside companies every year helps employees think without being constrained by the company's circumstances and gain the ability to discover issues and make proposals, prompting growth as core personnel for the future. The Company will continue to actively utilize such opportunities in the future.

(3) Continuous training for female candidates for managerial positions

The Company has conducted "Hisamitsu Women's Leader Training" targeted at the candidates for the next managerial positions to open as an initiative cross-organizational. Since 2013, 127 participants have taken the course, and working on the creation of an environment to enable them to think about their future career paths and play active roles in work for realizing those careers through discussion with women working in managerial positions.

【Principle 2-6】

Aiming for the stable operation of the corporate pension plan through the corporate pension fund, the Company has established a basic policy on the operation of pension reserves and established appropriate bodies such as the Board of Representatives and the Asset Management Committee as stipulated under applicable laws and regulations. In order to ensure the effectiveness of the basic policy, a system has been established through which the Company can appropriately keep track and evaluate the management status of pension reserves such as by appointing an personnel with specialized knowledge regarding reserve fund management to the Asset Management Committee as well as asking an outside experts for advice.

【Supplementary Principle 4-1-1】

Important management decisions are made based on deliberation by the Management Advisory Council comprising key directors and executive officers, etc., and particularly important resolutions are debated and decided by the Board of Directors.

Matters subject to resolution of the Board of Directors are specified in the rules of the Board of Directors in order to perform the function of oversight of business execution.

【Principle 4-9】

Candidates for independent outside director are appointed pursuant to the provisions of the Companies Act and the rules prescribed by the Stock Exchange. The Company appoints the candidates for independent outside director who are able to provide accurate oversight and advice for the Company's management based on their experience and insight.

【Supplementary Principle 4-10-1】

Important matters such as nomination and remuneration are sufficiently considered through discussion in the Board of Directors, and appropriate involvement and advice is received from the Nomination and Compensation Committee, which has been established to improve management transparency and objectivity. The majority of the members are independent outside directors, and the Company considers it to have adequate independence.

【Supplementary Principle 4-11-1】

<Our Thinking Regarding the Makeup of the Board of Directors>

Our Board of Directors appoints outside directors within the number specified by the Companies Act and the Articles of Incorporation. They bring both diversity and effectiveness to the Board of Director because they have well-balanced knowledge, experience and skill to practically fulfill their roles and responsibilities.

<Skill Matrix of Directors and Corporate Auditors>

A skill matrix of directors and corporate auditors is described in the reference documents for the General Meeting of Shareholders.

【Supplementary Principle 4-11-2】

At the Board of Directors every period, the Company confirms the companies in which positions are concurrently held by directors and corporate auditors and that there are no problems with the execution of their duties. The Company discloses the state of the main companies in which positions are concurrently held by directors and corporate auditors in the notice of convocation of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

【Supplementary Principle 4-11-3】

The secretariat of the Board of Directors conducts a survey with the aim of substantially evaluating the composition of the Board of Directors and the state of management for improvement of the effectiveness of the Board of Directors. Furthermore, the survey results are reported and discussed at the Board of Directors. The major topics of the survey were as follows.

- Composition and management of the Board of Directors.
- Management strategy and business strategy.
- Corporate ethics and risk management.
- Monitoring of business results and remuneration of the management team.
- Dialogue with shareholders.
- Appropriate cooperation with stakeholders.

- Ensure appropriate information disclosure and transparency

Through discussion in the Board of Directors based on the survey results, the Company has evaluated that the effectiveness of the Board of Directors is secured enough. Based on the survey results, the Board of Directors held the following discussions to further improve effectiveness.

- Further enhancement of discussions regarding medium-term management policies and progress in business development

- Strengthening personnel policies, including the percentage of managerial positions held by women
- Strengthening risk management

In light of these efforts, the Company will strive to further enhance discussions on the progress of the Medium-Term Management Policy, business development progress, human resources policies, sustainability, risk management, etc., and secure and enhance the functionality and effectiveness of the Company's Board of Directors.

【Supplementary Principle 4-14-2】

Candidates for director and corporate auditor who have capabilities and experiences in order to promote and practice the company mission "Promoting "TE-A-TE" Culture Worldwide" are determined by resolution of the Board of Directors. Moreover, the Company endeavors to deepen their understanding of the Company and its business environment through the agenda of the Board of Directors. Seminars are also planned and held as necessary at the request of directors and corporate auditors.

【Principle 5-1】

As stated in the "IR Activities" section of this Report, the Company has established an investor relations system. The Board of Directors receives IR reports quarterly and discusses the establishment of necessary system and initiatives.

【Principle 5-2】【Actions to implement management that is conscious of cost of capital and stock price】

The Company aims to ensure return on capital exceeds the cost of capital in order to sustainably increase its corporate value.

The 7th Medium-term Management Policy also targets an ROE of 8% or more, but in the "Basic Policy on Cash Allocation" disclosed in March 2025, it was announced that during the period of the next Medium-Term Management Policy from the fiscal year ending February 2027 to the fiscal year ending February 2031, the company will utilize over 250 billion yen from its operating cash flow and financial assets, of which 200 billion yen will be allocated for growth investments and over 50 billion yen for shareholder returns, aiming to further improve return on capital.

Disclosure of Policy on Determining Remuneration Amounts and Calculation Methods

At the Board of Directors meeting held on February 18, 2021, the Company established the following policy on determining the content of individual remuneration for the directors. As the basic remuneration policy for the directors, the Company has adopted a remuneration system linked to shareholder interests so that it will fully function as an incentive to continuously improve corporate value. Also, the Company has decided that the remuneration of the individual directors is to be determined at an appropriate level based on their respective responsibilities.

Specifically, the remuneration of the executive directors consists of basic remuneration as fixed remuneration, performance-linked remuneration, and stock remuneration, and the remuneration of the outside directors who have supervisory functions is only basic remuneration in view of their duties.

The remuneration ratio for each type of executive director is examined by the Nomination and Compensation Committee based on the remuneration level with reference to other companies which have same business scale and employee scale as the Company, or belong to related industries.

The guideline for the ratio of each type of remuneration is 50% basic remuneration, 30% performance-linked remuneration, etc. and 20% non-monetary remuneration, etc. (when the Company achieves 100% of its performance indicators).

The resolution date of the General Meeting of Shareholders concerning the remuneration, etc. of directors was May 25, 2006, and the maximum amount of remuneration for directors was approved to be ¥500 million per year. (The number of directors at the time of the resolution was eight.) In addition, the resolution date of the General Meeting of Shareholders concerning the share acquisition rights as stock options was May 21, 2015, and the maximum amount of remuneration related to the share acquisition rights as stock options for directors apart from usual directors' remuneration was determined to be ¥200 million per year. (The number of directors to be granted these at the time of the resolution was ten, excluding outside directors.)

Corporate auditors' remuneration is determined through discussion with corporate auditors within the range approved at the General Meeting of Shareholders.

The resolution date of the General Meeting of Shareholders concerning the remuneration, etc. of corporate auditors was May 25, 2006, and the maximum amount of remuneration for auditors was determined to be ¥100 million per year. (The number of corporate auditors at the time of the resolution was four.)

[Support System for Outside Directors and/or Corporate Auditors]

To better facilitate precise and fair auditing, outside directors and outside corporate auditors attend important meetings such as those of the Board of Directors together with inside corporate auditors.

IV. Matters Related to the Internal Control System

1. Basic Views on the Internal Control System and the Progress of System Development Update

(1) Basic Views on the Internal Control System

The Company has established the Basic Policy on Internal Control for thoroughly improving transparency and ensuring compliance in its business, and has placed priority on creating an organization capable of responding quickly to changes in the business environment and implemented structural reforms while making improvements to corporate governance.

The Company seeks to create a stronger bond of trust with stakeholders as a good corporate citizen by ensuring compliance, and upholding corporate ethics in its business activities.

(2) Status of the Internal Control System

<Overview of the Company's corporate governance structure and reasons for adopting the structure>

The Company is structured as a company with a Board of Corporate Auditors, comprising ten directors (including four outside directors) and four corporate auditors (including two outside corporate auditors) as of May 23, 2025.

In the area of corporate governance, the Company had reduced the number of directors as a way to clarify the responsibilities and authority of management and speed up decision-making and business execution. However, in order to further reinforce and enhance the management structure in conjunction with the expansion of the organization, the Company amended the articles of incorporation to increase the number of directors from ten or less to twelve or less, at the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders held on May 23, 2013. Furthermore, the Company appointed outside directors at the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders held on May 21, 2015 to further reinforce corporate governance, and increased the number of outside directors at the 118th Annual General Meeting of Shareholders held on May 21, 2020.

In addition, the Company introduced an executive officer system in March 2003 to improve the speed, transparency, and strategic focus of business decisions. Moreover, to clarify management responsibilities of directors and construct a management structure that can respond to changes in management environments, the term of directors was changed from two years to one year at the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders held on May 26, 2011.

Important management decisions are made based on deliberation by the Management Advisory Council comprising key directors and executive officers, etc. as needed, and particularly important resolutions are debated and decided by the Board of Directors.

As stated above, the Company has worked to enhance management oversight and to separate, decentralize, and strengthen decision making functions and business execution functions.

To better facilitate fair auditing, the Company switched to an auditing system in which two of the four corporate auditors are outside corporate auditors at the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders held on May 26, 2004.

Corporate auditors attend meetings of the Board of Directors, regularly convene meetings of the Board of Corporate Auditors, and receive audit reports from the accounting auditors as needed. The independence of the two outside corporate auditors from the Company has been ensured, and the Company has determined that a structure sufficiently capable of monitoring management has been established.

<Systems to ensure appropriate operations of the corporate group comprising Hisamitsu Pharmaceutical and group companies>

The Company has requested group companies to prepare and observe their own rules regarding compliance, equivalent to the Hisamitsu Corporate Charter, and are making the best efforts to foster the compliance awareness of directors and employees of the Group as a whole.

The Company is monitoring the business status of each subsidiary through compliance of the Operation Manuals for Overseas and Domestic Group Corporations, reporting at Meetings of Presidents of Subsidiaries and group audits by the Company's corporate auditors, and is also working on sharing information through exchanging opinions between corporate auditors of the subsidiaries and the Company.

Directors, executive officers, division managers of the Company and presidents of group companies have authority and responsibility for the establishment and operation of internal control systems to ensure appropriate business execution in each business division.

The Internal Audit Department of the Company carries out internal audits of the Company and group companies, reports results to relevant business division managers and directors in charge, and provides guidance on improvement measures for internal control as well as support and advice on their implementation as needed.

<Internal auditing and audits by the Board of Corporate Auditors>

The Company established the Internal Audit Department (with five staff members) as an internal audit division. The Internal Audit Department is responsible for auditing the business activities of the Company and group companies to ensure that these activities are effective and appropriate and that they comply with relevant laws and regulations along with the articles of incorporation. Audit results are reported not only to the Representative Director, but also to the Board of Directors and the Board of Corporate Auditors, promoting mutual cooperation, reporting to relevant business division managers and directors, and providing support and advice as needed to improve internal control. Through these activities, the Internal Audit Office ensures the effectiveness of internal audits.

In addition to conducting audits based on predetermined audit guidelines and plans, the Board of Corporate Auditors also regularly holds individual hearings with directors, executive officers, division managers and key staff from each business division.

<Outside directors and outside corporate auditors>

In addition to the criteria for independence stipulated by financial instruments exchanges, the Company has established "Criteria for selecting independent officers" and appoints persons who have no vested interest in the Company in accordance with these criteria.

The Company has entered into agreements, in accordance with Article 427, Paragraph 1 of the Companies Act, with outside directors and outside corporate auditors to limit their liability for damages to the minimum amount stipulated in Article 425, Paragraph 1 of the Companies Act, provided that their duties have been carried out in good faith and with no gross negligence.
