Notice Regarding Cancellation of Secondary Offering of Shares in Light of Market Conditions

GMO Internet, Inc. (the “Company”) hereby announces that a resolution was adopted at a meeting of the Board of Directors held today to cancel the secondary offering of its shares of common stock approved by a Board of Directors resolution on May 14, 2025 and announced in the “Notice Regarding Secondary Offering of Shares to satisfy with the Continued Listing Criteria” issued on the same date.

1. Reasons for Cancellation

The Company announced on May 14, 2025 that a resolution was adopted at a meeting of the Board of Directors held on that date to conduct a secondary offering of its shares of common stock. However, after careful consideration of the Company’s share price and the prevailing market conditions, and with the aim of securing the most favorable conditions for the existing shareholders of the Company, the Company has determined that it is not appropriate to proceed with the secondary offering at this time, and a resolution was adopted at a meeting of the Board of Directors held today to cancel the secondary offering.

2. Future Outlook

Maintaining the Company’s compliance with the continued licensing criteria of the Prime Market remains a critical management priority, and the Company will continue to deliberate the optimal means and timing by which to enhance long-term corporate value and sustainable growth while promoting investor understanding of these efforts, with a view to meeting the deadline for compliance with the continued listing criteria of December 31, 2025.

The cancellation of the secondary offering will have no impact on the Company’s performance.
