transfer restriction and the provisions of grounds for acquisition by the Company without compensation for the purpose of further increasing the motivation to contribute to medium- and long-term improvement of business results and corporate value by sharing advantages and risks of share price fluctuations with shareholders, and (2) a share compensation plan (hereinafter, this plan and the restricted share compensation plan are collectively referred to as the “Plan”) that sets each business year as a performance evaluation period for the purpose of clarifying the correlation between compensation and medium- and long-term corporate performance or the Company’s share value, and issues common shares of the Company (hereinafter referred to as “performance-linked restricted shares”), the number of which is based on the degree of attainment of numerical targets set by the Board of Directors of the Company, such as performance and share price indicators, during the performance evaluation period; based on the Plan, the total amount of monetary compensation claims to be given as compensation, etc. for eligible Directors shall be set to, within the range of compensation, etc. for Directors (excluding Directors who are Audit & Supervisory Board Members), not more than ¥50 million a year for restricted shares (the total number of restricted shares allotted for each business year shall be up to 100,000) and not more than ¥100 million a year for performance-linked restricted shares (the total number of performance-linked restricted shares allotted for each business year shall be up to 200,000); the transfer restriction period of restricted shares or performance-linked restricted shares shall be the period from the date of distribution of restricted shares or performance-linked restricted shares to the date of retirement from the position of Director or Officer of the Company or its subsidiary.

At the Board of Directors meeting held on June 25, 2025, the Company decided, under the restricted share compensation plan, to allot 19,920 common shares of the Company as restricted shares for the monetary compensation claims, ¥ 36,513,360 in total, to be given to 2 eligible Directors and 10 Officers of the Company as restricted share compensation for the period from the fourth ordinary general meeting of shareholders held on June 25, 2025 to the fifth ordinary general meeting of shareholders to be held in June 2026 and to 1 Directors and 4 Officers of the Company’s subsidiary (hereinafter collectively referred to as “persons eligible for allotment”) as restricted share compensation for the period from the 77th ordinary general meeting of shareholders held by the Company’s subsidiary on June 25, 2025 to the 78th ordinary general meeting of shareholders to be held by the Company’s subsidiary in June 2026, by having the persons eligible for allotment pay all the monetary compensation claims through investment in kind.

The amount of monetary compensation claims for each person eligible for allotment was determined after comprehensive consideration of various factors such as the degree of contribution of each person eligible for allotment in the Company or its subsidiary.

The dilutive effect due to the issuance of new shares is minor, which is 0.017 % (rounded off to two decimal places) of the total number of shares issued as of May 31, 2025, or 115,452,817 shares. Therefore, the Company considers it reasonable in view of the purpose of the Plan.

The monetary compensation claims are paid, subject to persons eligible for allotment concluding with the Company a restricted share allotment agreement (hereinafter referred to as the “allotment agreement”) that includes the conditions described below.

3. Outline of the allotment agreement

(i) Period of transfer restriction

The period from July 10, 2025, to the date when a person eligible for allotment retires from all the positions of Director and Officer (hereinafter referred to as the “eligible position”) of the Company or its subsidiary.

During the above period of transfer restriction (hereinafter referred to as the “transfer restriction period”), a person eligible for allotment must not do any act of disposal (hereinafter referred to as “transfer restriction”) of restricted shares allotted to the person eligible for allotment (hereinafter referred to as the “allotted shares”), such as transferring them to a third party, establishing a right of pledge thereon, creating a security interest by way of assignment, and making a gift during life or a testamentary gift.

(ii) Acquisition of restricted shares without compensation

If a person eligible for allotment retires from all eligible positions by the day before the date of the Company’s ordinary general meeting of shareholders that arrives first after the commencement date of the transfer restriction period (the subsidiary’s ordinary general meeting of shareholders that arrives first after the commencement date of the transfer restriction period if the person eligible for allotment is a Director or an Officer of the Company’s subsidiary; hereinafter the same applies), the Company shall acquire the allotted shares automatically without compensation at the time of the retirement, unless there are reasons that the Board of Directors of the Company considers justifiable.

If transfer restriction is not lifted for some of the allotted shares under the provisions of grounds for lifting transfer restriction in (iii) below at the time of expiration of the transfer restriction period (hereinafter referred to as the “time of expiration”), the Company shall acquire them automatically without compensation at the time immediately after the time of expiration.

(iii) Lifting of transfer restriction

The Company will lift transfer restriction on all the allotted shares held by a person eligible for allotment at the time of expiration, provided that the person eligible for allotment continues to be in any eligible position until the date of the Company’s ordinary general meeting of shareholders that arrives first after the commencement date of the transfer restriction period. However, if a person eligible for allotment retires from all eligible positions by the date before the date of the Company’s ordinary general meeting of shareholders that arrives first after the commencement date of the transfer restriction period because of reasons that the Board of Directors of the Company considers justifiable, the Company shall lift transfer restriction, at the time immediately after the retirement, on the allotted shares whose number is the number obtained by multiplying a number obtained by dividing by 12 the number of months from July 2025 to a month including the date when the person eligible for allotment retires from all eligible positions, by the number of the allotted shares that the person eligible for allotment holds at that time (if the result of calculation includes a fraction of less than one share, such fraction shall be discarded).

(iv) Provisions regarding the management of shares

A person eligible for allotment shall complete the opening of an account, in the manner designated by the Company, with SMBC Nikko Securities Inc. for the entry or recording of the allotted shares, and hold and maintain the allotted shares in such account until transfer restriction is lifted.

(v) Handling in the event of reorganization, etc.

If a proposal for a merger agreement where the Company becomes an absorbed company, an equity swap agreement where the Company becomes a wholly owned subsidiary, a share transfer plan, or other reorganization is approved at a general meeting of shareholders of the Company (the Board of Directors of the Company if approval at a general meeting of shareholders of the Company is not required for such reorganization, etc.) during the transfer restriction period, the Company shall lift transfer restriction, at the time immediately before the preceding business day of the effective date of such reorganization, etc., on the allotted shares whose number is the number obtained by multiplying a number obtained by dividing by 12 the number of months from July 2025 to the month including the date of the approval (however, if the result of calculation exceeds 1, it is assumed to be 1) by the number of allotted shares that a person eligible for allotment holds on the date of the approval.

In this case, on the preceding business day of the effective date of such reorganization, etc., the Company shall automatically acquire without compensation all the allotted shares where transfer restriction is not lifted based on the foregoing on the same day.

4. Basis on which to calculate the amount to be paid and its details

The Company sets the issuance price for the issuance of new shares at ¥ 1,833, the closing price of common shares of the Company on the Tokyo Stock Exchange on the preceding business day (June 24, 2025) of the date of resolution by the Board of Directors of the Company, in order to eliminate arbitrariness in the price. This is a market price immediately before the date of resolution by the Board of Directors of the Company, and the Company considers it reasonable and not an especially advantageous price.
