Notice Regarding the Commencement of Operations of TOKUYAMA TAIHEIYO CORPORATION

TAIHEIYO CEMENT CORPORATION (Head Office: Bunkyo-ku, Tokyo; President and Representative Director: Yoshifumi Taura; hereinafter the “Company”) has been proceeding with the procedures for the acquisition of shares of a company that will succeed to the cement sales business and related operations of Tokuyama Corporation (hereinafter “Tokuyama”), as announced in the release dated March 25, 2026, entitled “Notice Concerning Acquisition of Shares of a Newly Incorporated Company (Wholly-Owned Subsidiary) that Will Succeed to Tokuyama Corporation's Cement Sales Business through an Absorption-Type Company Split”

Effective October 1, 2026, Tokuyama Cement Corporation is scheduled to succeed to Tokuyama’s domestic cement and solidifying materials sales business and related operations through an absorption-type company split. The Company is also scheduled to acquire all shares of TOKUYAMA CEMENT CORPORATION, making it a wholly-owned subsidiary, and to change its corporate name to TOKUYAMA TAIHEIYO CORPORATION. Accordingly, the company is expected to commence operations as a member of the Taiheiyo Cement Group on the same date.

TOKUYAMA TAIHEIYO CORPORATION will inherit the customer base, sales functions, and network of affiliated companies that Tokuyama has cultivated over many years in its cement and solidifying materials sales business. As a member of the Taiheiyo Cement Group, it will continue striving to ensure a stable supply of products and further enhance service quality for its customers.
