(Note) The Company conducted a 10-for-1 stock split of its common shares, effective July 1, 2026. Profit per share has been calculated assuming that the stock split had taken effect at the beginning of the previous consolidated fiscal year.

(3) Reason for the revision

In the first-half consolidated forecast for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2027, net sales and operating profit are expected to exceed the previous forecast as a result of increased sales from stronger demand for data center-related products mainly in the Optical Solutions and Digital Infrastructure Components businesses. Additionally, In the first-half consolidated forecast, ordinary profit and profit attributable to owners of parent are also expected to exceed the previous forecast as a result of increased share of profit of entities accounted for using the equity method.

In the full-year consolidated forecast, net sales, operating profit, ordinary profit and profit attributable to owners of parent are expected to exceed the previous forecast from ongoing increased sales of data center-related products and increased share of profit of entities accounted for using the equity method during the second half.

(Note)The above forecasts have been prepared based on information available at the time of the announcement and assumptions at the time of the announcement associated with uncertain factors that may affect the Company’s performance in the future. Actual results may differ materially from the forecasts presented in this document, depending on various factors in the future.
