1. Business Results

(1) Overview on Consolidated Business Results

In FY2026 (ended March 31, 2026), the global economy showed resilience, particularly in the United States. However, the outlook remained uncertain as the pace of economic growth decelerated amid the continuation of high tariffs and the rising impact of geopolitical risks. Meanwhile, the Japanese economy continued to grow moderately, supported by the widespread increase in wages and a rebound in inbound demand. Nevertheless, the recovery remained modest due to sluggish real income growth caused by persistently rising prices as well as the impact of a slowdown in overseas economies.

As a result, total consolidated net sales amounted to 4,369.5 billion yen, an increase of 284.6 billion yen, or 7%, from the previous fiscal year. In terms of overall profit, despite an increase in sales and the impact of exchange rate fluctuations, owing to increases in engine certification related costs, labor costs, and an increase in expenses and others, including U.S. tariffs impact and research and development expenses, Toyota Industries posted consolidated operating profit of 137.0 billion yen, a decrease of 84.6 billion yen, or 38%, from the previous fiscal year. Profit before income taxes totaled 279.1 billion yen, a decrease of 72.3 billion yen, or 21%. Profit attributable to owners of the parent totaled 223.7 billion yen, a decrease of 38.6 billion yen, or 15%.

With respect to the FY2026 forecast, due to a weaker yen than initially anticipated, as well as the continuation of high levels of production and sales in both the Materials Handling Equipment Segment and the Automobile Segment, net sales exceeded the forecast by 369.5 billion yen, or 9% and operating profit by 37.0 billion yen, or 37%. Profit before tax exceeded the forecast by 49.1 billion yen 21%, and profit attributable to owners of the parent by 33.7 billion yen, or 18%.

Business results by business segment are as follows.

The Automobile market grew on a global basis, driven primarily by China. Amid these operating conditions, net sales of the Automobile Segment totaled 1,190.3 billion yen, an increase of 30.1 billion yen, or 3%. Operating profit amounted to 17.1 billion yen, a decrease of 27.9 billion yen, or 62%. Within this segment, net sales of the Vehicle Business amounted to 101.3 billion yen, a decrease of 1.2 billion yen, or 1%. This is attributable to an expected decrease in unit sales of Toyota RAV4 following a full-model change, which out-weighed a lump-sum compensation for a related investment.

Net sales of the Engine Business totaled 356.8 billion yen, an increase of 10.7 billion yen, or 3%, resulting from an increase in sales of diesel engines, despite a decrease in gasoline engines. Net sales of the Car Air-Conditioning Compressor Business totaled 484.5 billion yen, an increase of 3.6 billion yen, or 1%, due to the impact of exchange rate fluctuations, despite a decrease in sales volumes. Net sales of the Electronics Parts and Others Business totaled 247.5 billion yen, an increase of 17.0 billion yen, or 7%, attributable primarily to an increase in sales of on-board chargers and batteries.

The Materials Handling Equipment market grew on a global basis, driven particularly by expansion in China. Amid this operating climate, while sales of the core forklift truck business declined in Europe and China, revenue increased in the logistics solutions business. As a result, net sales of the Materials Handling Equipment Segment totaled 3,043.0 billion yen, an increase of 256.7 billion yen, or 9%. Operating profit amounted to 113.5 billion yen, a decrease of 53.2 billion yen, or 32%.

With regard to the Textile Machinery Business, the market has generally remained sluggish. Net sales of the Textile Machinery Segment totaled 74.7 billion yen, a decrease of 5.2 billion yen, or 7%, as a result of a decrease in sales of spinning machinery. Operating loss amounted to 0.8 billion yen, compared to an operating profit of 2.5 billion in the previous fiscal year.

(2) Overview on Consolidated Financial Condition

Assets amounted to 11,187.1 billion yen, an increase of 1,783.7 billion yen from the end of the previous fiscal year, due mainly to an increase in fair value of investment securities. Liabilities amounted to 4,336.5 billion yen, a decrease of 51.7 billion yen from the end of the previous fiscal year, mainly owing to a decrease in deferred tax liabilities. Equity amounted to 6,850.6 billion yen, an increase of 1,835.4 billion yen from the end of the previous fiscal year.

As announced in the "Notice Concerning Result of the Tender Offer for the Company Shares by Toyota Fudosan Co., Ltd. and Changes in Parent Company, Major Shareholders, and the Largest Shareholder of Major Shareholders" dated March 24, 2026, the tender offer for the Company's common shares by Toyota Asset Preparatory Co., Ltd. was completed. As a result, the Company has reclassified the shares of Toyota Motor Corporation, DENSO Corporation, AISIN Corporation, and Toyota Tsusho Corporation held by the Company to assets classified as held for sale. In connection therewith, the related deferred tax liabilities have been reclassified to liabilities directly associated with assets held for sale, and net changes in revaluation of FVTOCI financial assets have been reclassified to other comprehensive income directly associated with assets held for sale.

(3) Overview on Cash Flows

Net cash provided by operating activities was 398.7 billion yen, due to posting profit before income taxes of 279.1 billion yen. Net cash provided by operating activities increased by 227.2 billion yen compared to that of 171.5 billion yen in the same period of the previous fiscal year.

Net cash used in investing activities was 197.0 billion yen, attributable primarily to payments for purchases of property, plant and equipment of 204.9 billion yen. Net cash used in investing activities increased by 153.6 billion yen compared to that of 43.4 billion yen in the same period of the previous fiscal year.

Net cash used in financing activities was 81.5 billion yen, due mainly to repayments of long-term loans payable of 242.3 billion yen, which outweighed proceeds from short-term borrowings of 192.9 billion yen. Net cash used in financing activities decreased by 117.1 billion yen compared to that of 198.6 billion yen in the same period of the previous fiscal year.

After adding translation adjustments and cash and cash equivalents at the beginning of the period, cash and cash equivalents as of March 31, 2026 stood at 495.8 billion yen, an increase of 117.4 billion yen, or 31%, from the end of the previous fiscal year.

(4) Future Outlook

With regard to the outlook for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2027, as announced in the news release dated March 24, 2026, titled "Notice Concerning Result of the Tender Offer for the Company Shares by Toyota Fudosan Co., Ltd. and Changes in Parent Company, Major Shareholders, and the Largest Shareholder of Major Shareholders", the Company's common shares are scheduled to be delisted on June 1, 2026 as a result of the tender offer for the Company's common shares by Toyota Asset Preparatory Co., Ltd. and a series of subsequent transactions. Accordingly, no forecast of consolidated financial results for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2027 is disclosed.

2. Basic Rationale for Selection of Accounting Standards

Toyota Industries adopted International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS") for its consolidated financial statements, in order to enhance the accounting analytical capacity in its group management, as well as to improve the international comparability of its financial information in capital market.

3. Future Outlook

Although 191,087,116 shares of the Company Shares were tendered in the Tender Offer, the Offeror was unable to acquire all of the Company Shares through the Tender Offer (excluding the treasury shares owned by the Company and shares held by Toyota Motor Corporation ("TMC")). Accordingly, the Offeror intends to implement a series of procedures aimed at making the Offeror and TMC the only shareholders of the Company.

As described in the Company's press release "Notice Concerning Share Consolidation, Abolition of Provision on Number of Shares Constituting One Unit, and Partial Amendment to Articles of Incorporation" released on April 17, 2026, the Company decided, at its Board of Directors' meeting held on April 17, 2026, to call an extraordinary shareholders meeting (the "Extraordinary Meeting") to be held on May 12, 2026 and submit at the Extraordinary Meeting a proposal regarding a share consolidation and a proposal to abolish the provision on the number of shares constituting one unit and partially amend the articles of incorporation.

In addition, the Company resolved, at its Board of Directors' meeting held on April 17, 2026, to cancel treasury shares it owns pursuant to Article 178 of the Companies Act. The cancellation of the treasury shares is subject to the condition that the proposal regarding a share consolidation as stated in the Company's press release of April 17, 2026, entitled "Notice Concerning Share Consolidation, Abolition of Provision on Number of Shares Constituting One Unit, and Partial Amendment to Articles of Incorporation", with June 3, 2026, as the effective date, will be approved and adopted as originally proposed at the Extraordinary Meeting to be held on May 12, 2026.

In the course of the procedures above, the Company Shares will satisfy the stock delisting criteria of Tokyo Stock Exchange, Inc. and Nagoya Stock Exchange, Inc. As a result, the Company Shares will be designated as securities to be delisted during the period from May 12, 2026, to May 31, 2026, and then will be delisted on June 1, 2026.

After the share consolidation becomes effective, a share repurchase of the Company's stock held by TMC will be implemented, and the Offeror will ultimately become the only shareholder of the Company.

Furthermore, at the Board of Directors' meeting held on April 17, 2026, the Company resolved the matters outlined in items (i) through (iv) below:

- (i) The Company will tender all common shares of TMC owned by the Company in a tender offer for own shares by TMC.
- (ii) The Company will tender all common shares of Denso Corporation ("Denso") owned by the Company in a tender offer for own shares if Denso commences a tender offer for own shares.
- (iii) The Company will tender all common shares of Toyota Tsusho Corporation ("Toyota Tsusho") owned by the Company in a tender offer for own shares if Toyota Tsusho commences a tender offer for own shares.
- (iv) The Company will tender all common shares of Aisin Corporation ("Aisin") owned by the Company in a tender offer for own shares if Aisin commences a tender offer for own shares.

As a result of these transactions, if all of the tendered shares are purchased at the purchase prices set forth in: TMC's "Notice Concerning Tender Offer for Own Shares and Repurchase of Shares" dated March 30, 2026; Denso's "Notice Regarding Change of Conditions of Purchase of Tender Offer for Own Shares" dated January 14, 2026 (upper limit of the purchase price); Toyota Tsusho's "Notice Concerning Amendment of Terms of Repurchase, etc. of the Tender Offer for Own Shares" dated January 14, 2026 (upper limit of the purchase price); and Aisin's "Notice Concerning Changes to the Tender Offer Conditions for Own Share Tender Offer and Changes in Matters Concerning Share Repurchase" dated January 14, 2026 (upper limit of the purchase price), the Company expects to record 4,425,689 million yen as the profit on sale of investment securities in the Company's non-consolidated financial results for the fiscal year ending March 2027. The Company has adopted International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS), and there will be no impact on the Company's consolidated financial results for the fiscal year ending March 2027 as a result of tendering shares in the Tender Offer for Own Shares.
