2. Reason for the Dividend

The Company recognizes shareholder returns as one of its key management priorities, in addition to achieving sustainable growth and enhancing corporate value over the medium to long term.

With respect to dividends from retained earnings, the Company adopts the dividend payout ratio as a basic indicator, based on the principle of distributing profits earned through business activities to shareholders.

In determining the dividend amount, the Company aims for a consolidated payout ratio of 30%, while comprehensively considering factors such as internal reserves necessary for future business development, maintenance of financial soundness, and improvement of capital efficiency.

For the fiscal year ending February 2027, the interim dividend per share is set at ¥12.00 (ordinary dividend: ¥8.00, commemorative dividend: ¥4.00), as stated in the “Consolidated Financial Results for the Fiscal Year Ended February 20, 2026 (Under Japanese GAAP)” announced on April 4, 2026.
