Notice regarding the filing of a lawsuit against a subsidiary

As announced in the "Notice regarding decision from Mexican tax authorities regarding appeal" dated April 15, 2025, UMC Electronics Mexico, SA de CV ("UMC Mexico"), a consolidated subsidiary of UMC, received a ruling ("This Ruling") ordering it to pay 463 million Mexican pesos* (approximately 3.3 billion yen) on the same day (Japan time).

This Ruling rejects UMC Mexico's claims and is completely unacceptable to the Company. Therefore, in order to reassert the legitimacy of UMC Mexico's claims, the Company resolved at its Board of Directors meeting held on April 24, 2025 file a lawsuit in the Tax Court. On the other hand, in order to avoid additional burdens such as interest, we will provisionally pay 448 million Mexican pesos (approximately 3.2 billion yen), a partial reduction of the award amount, in accordance with Mexican laws and regulations.

We are currently considering the accounting treatment of this payment, and will promptly disclose any events that require disclosure in the future.

* 1 Mexican Peso = 7.16 yen (as of April 15, 2025)
