Notice Regarding Execution of a Mutual Investment Agreement for Strategic Capital and Business Alliance

We hereby announce that, following discussions with Chunghwa Precision Test Technology Co., Ltd. (Stock Code: 6510.TT), a company based in Taiwan, we have reached a mutual agreement for strategic capital and business alliance and executed a Mutual Investment Agreement today, as outlined below.

1. Partner Company

Company Name: Chunghwa Precision Test Technology Co., Ltd. (hereinafter referred to as “CHPT”)
Head Office: No.12, Gongye 3rd Rd., Pingzhen Dist., Taoyuan City 324, Taiwan

2. Background and Purpose

In our CTC segment, Yokowo globally manufactures and sells semiconductor front-end probe cards and back-end test sockets utilizing micro-precision processing and microwave technologies. CHPT, on the other hand, provides MEMS-based probe cards, IC test boards, and integrated testing solutions to the global semiconductor market.

Both companies have engaged in extensive discussions regarding a strategic capital and business alliance, with the aim of leveraging their respective strengths—such as market reach, customer base, and product development capabilities—to expand business domains and enhance the competitiveness of their product portfolios.

3. Summary of Agreement

Capital Alliance: Yokowo and CHPT will each invest USD 2,000,000 through their respective subsidiaries to strengthen mutual relations.

Business Alliance: Yokowo and CHPT will promote the development of products and mutual supply of products by complementing each other's technological strengths, aiming to further enhance both the competitiveness in the semiconductor testing market and corporate value.

4. Schedule

Alliance Start Date: November 1, 2025

5. Impact on Financial Results

At this time, the impact of this alliance on our consolidated financial results is expected to be immaterial. We will make further disclosures as necessary depending on the progress of the alliance.
