

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Notice of Completion of the Acquisition of Shares of the New Company Established to Acquire the Primary Battery Business of Murata Manufacturing Co., Ltd. and Tohoku Murata Manufacturing Co., Ltd.
(Subsidiarization)

Tokyo, March 2, 2026—Maxell, Ltd. (TSE: 6810, hereinafter “the Company”) announced that, as announced in the “Announcement about Acquisition of Primary Battery Business of Murata Manufacturing Co., Ltd. and Tohoku Murata Manufacturing Co., Ltd.” dated June 16, 2025, the Company has completed the acquisition of all shares of the new company that succeeded to the micro primary battery business of Murata Manufacturing Co., Ltd. and its wholly owned subsidiary, Tohoku Murata Manufacturing Co., Ltd., through an absorption-type company split, and made the new company a subsidiary of the Company, as of March 1, 2026. The overview of the new company, which has newly become a consolidated subsidiary of the Company, is as follows.

1. Overview of the new company

(1) Name	Maxell Sakura Co., Ltd.
(2) Address	1-1 Shimosugishita, Takakura, Hiwada-machi, Koriyama-shi, Fukushima
(3) Representative	Kosei Hasegawa, President
(4) Description of business	Production and sales of primary batteries
(5) Capital	10 million yen
(6) Major shareholder and holding ratio	The Company 100%

-###-