Proposal 2: Election of Accounting Auditor

Our accounting auditor, Nakachi & Co. will retire at the conclusion of this general meeting due to the expiration of their term of office. We therefore request that a new accounting auditor be appointed.

Please note that this proposal is based on the decision of the Audit Committee.

In addition, the reason why the Audit Committee selected Audit Corporation A&A partners as a candidate for accounting auditor is that, after comprehensively considering factors such as the independence and expertise of the accounting auditor, as well as their understanding of the business fields in which our company operates, it was determined that they possess the necessary framework to ensure that our accounting audits are conducted appropriately and fairly, and were therefore deemed suitable for the role.

The candidates for accounting auditors are as follows.
