Sysmex Corporation

Notice Regarding the Completion of an Investigation by the Japan Fair Trade Commission

Sysmex Corporation has been under investigation by the Japan Fair Trade Commission (“JFTC”) since June 2024 on suspicion of violating the Antimonopoly Act. We would like to disclose that this investigation has now been completed after the JFTC certified the commitment plan submitted by Sysmex Corporation through the Commitment Procedure stipulated by the Antimonopoly Act.

Please note that the JFTC's approval of this commitment plan does not constitute an acknowledgement that Sysmex Corporation has violated the provisions of the Antimonopoly Act.

Regarding this matter, we would like to express our sincere apologies for the inconvenience and concern caused to all those involved, including medical institutions that use our products.

We will ensure that we carry out the commitment plan that has been certified, and we will further strengthen our compliance efforts, including compliance with the Antimonopoly Act.
