3. The comments

In July, the three fields combined increased 3.8% year-on-year.

By field, despite a backlash from orders for high-priced equipment in the same month last year, Scientific sector was up 5.5% and Industrial sector was up 8.5%, showing solid performance.

On the other hand, Hospital and Nursing Care sector was down 7.5% year-on-year due to the backlash from large orders in the same month last year, as well as the continued impact of medical institutions cutting back on non-essential purchasing amid the difficult business environment.
