The following describes corporate governance at SCREEN Holdings Co., Ltd. (hereinafter “SCREEN Holdings” or the “Company”) and its consolidated subsidiaries (collectively, the “Group” or the “SCREEN Group”).

I. Basic Approach to Corporate Governance, Capital Structure, Corporate Profile, and Other Fundamentals

1. Basic Approach Updated

By striving to improve corporate governance in pursuit of enhanced transparency, soundness, and efficiency in business management, the SCREEN Group aims to ensure that shareholders and all other stakeholders benefit in line with its corporate philosophy, which lays out the corporate purpose. The Group recognizes that effective corporate governance is essential to the achievement of this goal. It has therefore strengthened its capabilities to govern through the establishment of the Management Grand Design; the SCREEN Group CSR Charter and Code of Conduct, which outline standards that all group members should follow and provide principles of conduct based on the corporate philosophy; the SCREEN Group Code of Management, which regulates the internal control policies and systems of group companies; and other regulations that apply to all employees.

Reasoning for Noncompliance with the Principles of the Corporate Governance Code

Not applicable.

The Company complies with all principles of the revised Corporate Governance Code published on June 11, 2021.

Disclosure Based on the Principles of the Corporate Governance Code

Updated

Principle 1.4: Cross-Shareholdings

Maintaining partnerships with a broad range of external corporations is essential to the Company's sustainable corporate development. Accordingly, the Company may retain cross-shareholdings as long as they are deemed strategically necessary to its pursuit of long-term corporate value improvement. To assess the necessity of such shareholdings, the Board of Directors engages in annual reviews aimed at comprehensively examining the status of transactions with investees, the impact of shareholdings on the Company's financial position, the quantitative benefits of such shareholdings vis-à-vis capital cost, and whether the purposes of shareholdings have been met. If these reviews reveal that certain shareholdings are no longer necessary, the Company negotiates with the investees to ensure that the shareholdings in question can be smoothly divested. If the investees indicate their intention to divest shares or to take similar action, the Company will not prevent them from doing so by taking such actions as implying the possibility of reductions in transactions with them. As of the end of the most recent fiscal year, the Company had divested shares of 41 investees, totaling ¥9.8 billion, over the 10 years since the enactment of Japan's Corporate Governance Code.

In addition, the Company exercises voting rights associated with its shareholdings in a way that respects the management policies of its investees while making voting judgments from the perspective of enhancing its own corporate value over the long term. It should be noted that if an investee is found to be involved in major misconduct or has submitted a proposal that is deemed potentially detrimental to shareholder value, the Company will take a particularly cautious approach when making its voting judgment, engaging in dialogue with the investee prior to voting as necessary.

Principle 1.7: Related Party Transactions

When a director intends to engage in a transaction deemed to be competing with any of the Company's businesses or that may result in a conflict of interest ("competition and conflicting interest transactions" as defined by law), the director is obliged to obtain the approval of the Board of Directors in accordance with the Company's Rules of the Board of Directors. Moreover, the Board reviews and approves reports on the content and value of such transactions on a quarterly basis. In addition, no current shareholder of SCREEN Holdings possesses a voting rights ratio of 10% or greater. However, if a major shareholder were to surpass this ownership threshold, the Company would ensure that any possible transaction with said shareholder be properly examined by the Board of Directors based on the aforementioned procedure before moving forward.

Supplementary Principle 2.4.1: Ensuring Diversity in Core Personnel Promotion

(i) Ensuring diversity

Based on the philosophy of supporting the performance of its diverse workforce set forth in the SCREEN Group CSR Charter and Code of Conduct, the Company actively recruits diverse human resources, including women, non-Japanese nationals, and mid-career professionals. The Company trains and promotes individuals to management positions based on their abilities, qualities, and aptitudes, regardless of such attributes as gender, national origin, or how they were hired. In addition, by continuously exchanging human resources between overseas group companies and the Group in Japan (the Company and its business operating and functional support companies), the Group endeavors to develop human resources with broad perspectives.

In addition, the Company strives to provide a working environment that allows all employees to demonstrate their abilities regardless of gender or changes in their various life stages. The Company will continue to emphasize the diversity of its human resources in order to improve the working environment and to ensure strong growth.

Promotion of Women to Management Positions

At the Company and its business operating and functional support companies, women work in a wide range of positions, including as general managers, section managers, and subsidiary executives. In order to encourage their growth, the Company offers career development opportunities oriented toward promotion to management positions according to their qualifications and aspirations, such as overseas assignments, dispatch to overseas MBA programs, and appointment as company-wide project leaders.

By the fiscal year ending March 31, 2031, the Company aims to raise the portion of management positions held by women to 6% or above and the percentage of women among all employees to at least 15%, or to a level that is appropriate for the changing business conditions. The Company is actively recruiting and developing women while working to create an environment that encourages them to play an active role, thereby increasing the number of women in core decision-making positions in the Group.

The number of women being hired is on the rise, and the Company aims to increase the percentage of women among new graduates hired to more than 20%.

	As of the most recent fiscal year-end	Fiscal year ending March 31, 2031
Management position held by women	4.5%	6% or above
Women among all employees	11.2%	15% or above

Promotion of Non-Japanese Nationals to Management Positions

As of March 31, 2025, the Company and the business operating and functional support companies employ 57 non-Japanese nationals, four of whom are in management positions. In overseas subsidiaries, about 40% of the 39 full-time executive positions are held by locally hired non-Japanese nationals, and international employees account for about 40% of overall group human resources. In addition, the Company exchanges human resources with overseas group companies on an ongoing basis by appointing them to general manager or higher positions in the Company and the business operating and functional support companies.

Promotion of Mid-Career Hires to Management Positions

The Group actively recruits mid-career professionals in line with changes in its core businesses and other factors. Mid-career hires account for about 40% of domestic group employees. In addition, mid-career hires account for about 40% of management positions, and promotions to such positions are made regardless of how employees were hired.

- (ii) Ensuring diversity through human resource development policies, internal environment development, and other conditions

In order for each individual to maximize their abilities and enhance the performance of the Group, it is crucial to promote diversity by providing employees with opportunities for growth and a supportive environment, regardless of individual attributes that are not relevant to job performance. The Company will continue to implement hiring from diverse demographics and, while taking into account business conditions, strive to increase the total number of mid-career hires, women, and non-Japanese nationals to 50% or more of all group employees by the fiscal year ending March 31, 2031.

Principle 2.6: Roles of Corporate Pension Funds as Asset Owners

The Company wishes to provide its employees with opportunities for stable asset formation via the administration of corporate pension funds while staying vigilant to the impact of fund administration performance on its consolidated financial position. Accordingly, the Company has put in place the Pension Assets Management Committee consisting of individuals equipped with relevant experience and competencies. In this way, the Company monitors its asset managers and ensures that its pension funds are managed appropriately.

Principle 3.1: Full Disclosure

- (i) Company mission (corporate philosophy, etc.), business strategies, and business plans
As presented above in “1. Basic Approach.”

- (ii) Basic views and guidelines on corporate governance based on each of the principles of Japan’s Corporate Governance Code
As presented above in “1. Basic Approach.”

- (iii) Board policies and procedures regarding the determination of remuneration for senior management and directors

The policy for the determination of the details of compensation for each director (hereinafter the “Policy”) was set by a resolution of the Board of Directors meeting held on February 26, 2021. This was in response to the proposal from the Nomination and Compensation Advisory Committee, which is composed of outside directors and the chairman of the Board of Directors.

Compensation for directors is determined on the basis of individual roles and responsibilities as an incentive to live up to stakeholder expectations and enhance long-term corporate value. Specifically, compensation consists of three elements: (a) fixed basic remuneration (b) short-term performance-linked cash bonuses, and (c) share compensation linked with short- and long-term performance and corporate value or shareholder value. Outside directors receive only basic remuneration and performance-linked cash bonuses.

Responsibility for determining compensation for individual directors and related matters has been granted to the representative directors by the Board of Directors, with the understanding that such matters will be decided based upon the recommendations of the Nomination and Compensation Advisory Committee.

Compensation for executive officers is decided by representative directors after seeking the advice of the Nomination and Compensation Advisory Committee.

- (iv) Board policies and procedures regarding the appointment/dismissal of senior management and the nomination of director and corporate auditor candidates

Candidates for director and corporate auditor positions are selected in accordance with the Company's internal criteria and approved by the Board of Directors after seeking the advice of the Nomination and Compensation Advisory Committee, which consists of outside directors (who hold a majority) and the chairman of the Board of Directors. The criteria for nominating the said candidates are as follows.

Criteria for Nominating Candidates for Directors

- (1) Candidates must be equipped with sufficient business experience and robust expertise in the area of their specialty to be capable of living up to stakeholder expectations and contributing to long-term growth in the SCREEN Group's corporate value.
- (2) Candidates must be capable of making fair judgment based on a neutral viewpoint impartial to any section and be equipped with risk management abilities.
- (3) Candidates must be able to secure sufficient time and effort to appropriately fulfill their roles and responsibilities as directors.
- (4) Candidates must be knowledgeable individuals with integrity and high moral bearing.
- (5) Candidates must not be subject to any of the conditions disqualifying directors under Article 331-1 of the Companies Act.
- (6) Candidates for outside director positions must fulfill the Company's internal criteria for independence of outside directors and outside corporate auditors.
- (7) Candidate selection must be undertaken with the intention of securing diversity in experience and specialty, thereby maximizing the Board of Directors' functional efficiency and effectiveness and maintaining a balanced composition that helps SCREEN Holdings exercise management oversight covering all business units.

Criteria for Nominating Candidates for Corporate Auditors

- (1) Candidates must be equipped with abundant experience and capable of conducting audits from a neutral and objective viewpoint impartial to any section.
- (2) Candidates must be independent from those charged with business execution and well positioned to maintain a fair and impartial standing.
- (3) Candidates must be able to secure sufficient time and effort to appropriately fulfill their roles and responsibilities during their term of office.
- (4) Candidates must be knowledgeable individuals with integrity and high moral bearing.
- (5) Candidates must not be subject to any of the conditions disqualifying directors under Article 331-1 of the Companies Act, which also apply to corporate auditors in accordance with Article 335-1 of said Act.
- (6) Candidates for outside corporate auditor positions must fulfill the Company's internal criteria for independence of outside directors and outside corporate auditors.
- (7) Candidate selection must be undertaken with the intention of securing a balanced composition in terms of knowledge, experience and specialties. In addition, at least one corporate auditor must be equipped with considerable expertise in finance and accounting.

Regarding the dismissal of directors, the Board of Directors may propose to dismiss an individual to whom one of the criteria for dismissing directors applies after seeking the advice of the Nomination and Compensation Advisory Committee. After a resolution by the Board, the dismissal is then finalized by resolution of the shareholders meeting.

Criteria for Dismissing Directors

1. A director obviously fails to fulfill the criteria for nominating candidates for directors
2. A director is or has been involved in improper conduct or a significant violation of laws, regulations, or internal rules, such as the Articles of Incorporation

(v) Explanations with respect to the individual appointments/dismissals and nominations based on (iv)
The details of individual nominees for directors and corporate auditors selected by the Board of Directors are disclosed via the Company's website. Please refer to the latest notice of the general meeting of shareholders, which includes descriptions of such candidates and is posted on said website.

<https://www.screen.co.jp/en/ir/shareholder-meetinginfo>

When the Company dismisses a director, it discloses the details of such dismissal via its website.

Supplementary Principle 3.1.3: Sustainability

Sustainability Initiatives

The Company is committed to collaborating with a wide range of stakeholders, proactively disclosing information, and improving transparency. For more information about the Company's approach to sustainability and efforts to enhance social value, please refer to the Company's website.

<https://www.screen.co.jp/en/sustainability>

In addition, the Company collects and analyzes the necessary data about the impact of climate change-related risks and opportunities on its business activities and earnings and discloses this information on its website and elsewhere in accordance with the Task Force on Climate-related Financial Disclosures (TCFD) framework. For more details, please refer to the following link.

<https://www.screen.co.jp/en/sustainability/environment/tcfd>

Investment in Human Resources

The Company works to enhance its human resources with the aim of enabling both the Company as a whole and individual employees to become solution creators that address social issues and needs and support the sustainable development of society. Details of investments in human resources are disclosed in the Company's annual reports (integrated reports issued every September) and on its website.

Annual reports: <https://www.screen.co.jp/en/ir/annual>

Corporate website: <https://www.screen.co.jp/en/sustainability/social/employee>

Investment in Intellectual Property

From the perspective of enhancing its own corporate value over the long term, the Company actively promotes the creation of intellectual property, protects it through appropriate rights acquisition, and makes effective use of it. By doing so, the Company seeks to realize a business portfolio that reflects corporate strategies, business strategies, technology strategies, and market trends in its business areas in a multifaceted manner. For more information on the Company's activities regarding intellectual property, please refer to the annual reports.

Annual reports: <https://www.screen.co.jp/en/ir/annual>

Supplementary Principle 4.1.1: Scope of Matters Delegated to Management

In addition to assuming its duties as defined by laws and regulations, the Articles of Incorporation, and the SCREEN Group responsibility and authority rules, the Board of Directors determines basic policies and strategies as well as other important matters associated with group operations. Based on the aforementioned policies and strategies, the Company's business is executed by directors in charge of particular operations as well as executive officers, business operating companies, and functional support companies. The Board of Directors supervises their business execution.

Supplementary Principle 4.1.3: Succession Plan for President and CEO

In principle, the succession plan for securing an ideal successor to the position of president and CEO and the criteria and procedures for appointing such an individual are determined by the Board of Directors after seeking advice from the Nomination and Compensation Advisory Committee, which consists of outside directors (who hold a majority) and the chairman of the Board of Directors.

Supplementary Principle 4.3.3: Procedures for Dismissing President and CEO

In cases where the Company's president and CEO meets the Company's prescribed criteria, the dismissal of such individual from their position is determined by the Board of Directors after seeking advice from the Nomination and Compensation Advisory Committee, which consists of outside directors (who hold a majority) and the Chairman of the Board of Directors.

Principle 4.8: Effective Use of Independent Directors

The Company appoints qualified and independent outside directors and corporate auditors in accordance with its criteria for independence of outside directors and outside corporate auditors. The rules of the Board of Directors mandate that at least one-third of directors be outside directors to ensure a balanced perspective that allows the Board of Directors to operate with maximum efficiency and effectiveness while maintaining management oversight over the entire Group. Of the eight directors elected at the 84th Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders held on June 20, 2025, four are outside directors, enabling Board of Directors discussions based on independent and objective viewpoints.

Principle 4.9: Independence Standards and Qualifications for Independent Directors

The Company has in place specific criteria for securing the independence from management of outside directors and outside corporate auditors. Currently, the Company has four outside directors, who bring to Board of Directors meetings their frank insights from a fair and neutral standpoint backed by extensive knowledge and experience in such fields as corporate management. These individuals contribute to active and constructive discussions at the Board, thereby fulfilling their roles and responsibilities as outside directors who are independent from management.

Supplementary Principle 4.10.1: Appropriate Involvement and Advice from Outside Directors through the Establishment of an Independent Nomination and Compensation Advisory Committee

The Company has established the Nomination and Compensation Advisory Committee, consisting of outside directors (who hold a majority) and the chairman of the Board of Directors, to strengthen the independence, objectivity, and accountability of the Board of Directors' functions related to nomination (including succession planning) and compensation.

The Committee deliberates and reports on the election of candidates for directors, corporate auditors, and executive officers, as well as the compensation (basic remuneration, performance-linked cash bonuses, and performance-linked share compensation) for directors and executive officers.

Supplementary Principle 4.11.1: Appointment of Directors

The Company's Rules of the Board of Directors include provisions aimed at maintaining an optimal number of directors in light of changes in the operating environment and the nature of duties to be assumed by individual directors. To this end, these provisions mandate that "the number of directors must not exceed 13, and at least one-third of the Board's membership must be accounted for by outside directors." These provisions are intended to secure diversity in terms of directors' experience and their areas of specialty and help maintain a balanced perspective that allows the Board of Directors to operate with maximum efficiency and effectiveness while maintaining management oversight over the entire Group.

Candidates for director positions are selected in accordance with SCREEN Holding's Criteria for Appointing Candidates for Directors and approved by the Board of Directors after seeking the advice of the Nomination and Compensation Advisory Committee, which consists of outside directors (who hold a majority) and the chairman of the Board of Directors.

Supplementary Principle 4.11.2: Status of Concurrent Positions Held by Outside Directors

The Company discloses significant concurrent positions held by its directors and corporate auditors via such media as the notice of the general meeting of shareholders and securities reports.

Supplementary Principle 4.11.3: Evaluation of the Board's Effectiveness

The Board of Directors undertakes an annual evaluation of its effectiveness and discloses a summary of the results, guided by an analysis and evaluation conducted by a third-party organization. Its goal is to ensure the effective functioning of corporate governance by determining how the Board contributes, identifying issues, and making improvements. For a summary of the latest evaluation results, please see the following document.

https://hdjp-corporateweb-files.screen.co.jp/7517/4840/2835/20250528_BME_E.pdf

Supplementary Principle 4.14.2: Training Policies for Directors and Corporate Auditors

The Company provides newly appointed directors and corporate auditors (excluding outside directors and outside corporate auditors) with opportunities to undergo external training programs at its own expense, thereby ensuring that these individuals fully understand the roles and responsibilities they are expected to fulfill in their new positions as well as the relevant laws and regulations. Outside directors and outside corporate auditors are given opportunities to learn the basics about the SCREEN Group's businesses, financial condition, and organizational structure. They are also provided further opportunities to acquire knowledge necessary to fulfill their roles after taking office. Furthermore, the four major business operating companies provide business reports at the Board of Directors every quarter, keeping directors and corporate auditors informed of the latest technological, business, and industry trends.

Principle 5.1: Policy for Constructive Dialogue with Shareholders

<https://www.screen.co.jp/en/sustainability/policy#policy06>

Supplementary Principle 5.2.1: Formulation and Announcement of Management Strategies, Plans, and Business Portfolio

The Group has positioned business portfolio management as one of its key management strategies to achieve sustainable growth and enhance corporate value in a rapidly changing business environment. Specifically, the basic policy of the Board of Directors is to build an optimal business portfolio by using growth rate and ROIC as common indicators to understand the current status of each business, analyzing issues and periodically confirming the progress of necessary measures.

Action to Implement Management that is Conscious of Cost of Capital and Stock Price

The Company ascertains the cost of capital for the entire Group using the weighted average cost of capital (WACC). In addition, from the previous medium-term management plan, Value Up 2023, the Company has introduced ROIC as an indicator of profitability and efficiency and is promoting the adoption of ROIC management.

The Company has also set ROIC targets that exceed WACC in the medium-term management plan, Value Up Further 2026 (FY2025/03 to FY2027/03). In addition, the Company has disclosed ROIC targets in this medium-term management plan.

Status of Dialogue with Shareholders

The Company strives to give shareholders and investors a greater understanding of the SCREEN Group by communicating its management, business, and financial position in a clear, accurate, and timely manner. Feedback from shareholders and investors is shared with management as appropriate, including reports provided to the Board of Directors at least once per quarter, to maximize corporate value.

Incentives

Incentive policies for directors	Performance-based compensation system, etc.
----------------------------------	---

Supplementary Explanation Updated

In 2005, the Company abolished its retirement benefits for senior management and directors and adopted a system of stock allowances aimed at encouraging recipients to stay conscious of SCREEN's long-term corporate performance and share price. Moreover, the 76th Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders held on June 27, 2017 approved the introduction of performance-linked share compensation, which replaced stock allowances and has been in place since August 2017.

Accordingly, compensation for directors now consists of three elements: (a) fixed basic remuneration, (b) short-term performance-linked cash bonuses, and (c) share compensation linked with short- and long-term performance and corporate value or shareholder value. This balanced compensation scheme incentivizes recipients to improve business performance and to increase shareholder value over the long term, helping to develop management personnel and advance the sustainable growth of the Company. Outside directors receive only basic remuneration and performance-linked cash bonuses.

The policy on determining the portion of total compensation paid to each director is as follows.

- Basic remuneration is paid relative to the director's responsibility in terms of the size of the business that they are engaged in managing.
- Performance-linked cash bonuses are capped at 50% of basic remuneration.
- Performance-linked share compensation is capped at approximately 40% of basic remuneration. This is approximate because its value may change with fluctuations in share price.

With an eye toward reinforcing the Group's business foundations, performance is measured using such indicators as the operating margin and ROIC, as well as environment and safety indicators to reflect social value enhancement. The amount of performance-linked cash bonuses is determined based on scoring of achievement for each indicator.

2. Business Execution, Auditing, Oversight, Nomination and Remuneration Decisions (Overview of the Current Corporate Governance System) Updated

(1) Overview of the Corporate Governance System and Reasons for Adopting Said System

SCREEN Holdings takes the form of a company with a board of corporate auditors. At present, its Board of Directors comprises eight directors (including four outside directors), and its Board of Corporate Auditors comprises four corporate auditors (including two outside corporate auditors). The Company also retains an accounting auditor. The Group has adopted a holding company structure with four main business areas,¹ each under a separate business operating company, to enable agile and bold business execution. The holding company determines the basic policies and strategies for group management as well as the optimal allocation of management resources. In addition, it provides management oversight of the business execution of each group company, ensuring the functional segregation of business execution and oversight.

The Board determines and approves basic policies and strategies for group management and important matters in business execution and exercises supervision over business execution, holding regular monthly meetings and additional meetings as necessary. By maintaining at least one-third outside directors, the Company seeks to enhance management oversight and maintain management objectivity. Outside directors are selected in accordance with the Company's Criteria for Independence of Outside Directors and Outside Corporate Auditors, formulated with reference to standards prescribed by the Tokyo Stock Exchange. The term of office of director is set at one year to clarify the responsibilities of directors and secure a management structure capable of quickly adapting to changes in the operating environment.

The Company has voluntarily chosen to establish the Nomination and Compensation Advisory Committee, which consists of outside directors (who hold a majority) and the chairman of the Board of Directors. Director and corporate auditor nominees are determined by the Board of Directors after seeking advice from the Nomination and Compensation Advisory Committee. Compensation for each director is determined by the representative directors based on authority granted by the Board of Directors after seeking the advice of the committee. The Nomination and Compensation Advisory Committee thus helps the Board make fair and objective decisions with regard to these matters.

The Company also maintains the Management Committee. This body comprises the standing directors, presidents of business operating companies² and functional support companies,³ and executive officers whom the Chairman of the Committee appoints. The committee meets at least once a month to deliberate matters related to management and facilitate the decision making of the Board of Directors and representative directors.

The Company's Board of Corporate Auditors holds one regular meeting per month, with additional meetings as necessary. In line with the audit policies and plans formulated by the Board of Corporate Auditors, the corporate auditors are responsible for auditing the legality of the official acts of the directors and ensuring their propriety through ongoing auditing and oversight. The Company has set up the Corporate Auditors Department staffed with dedicated employees to support the corporate auditors' duties.

Reference: Skills matrix of directors and corporate auditors

Based on the purpose redefined in the corporate philosophy, the Group has charted a 10-year vision as part of the Management Grand Design and is implementing the medium-term management plan as a step toward the goals of said vision. The Company's board members play the following important roles in achieving the targets set out in the Management Grand Design and medium-term management plan and in continuously enhancing corporate value.

- (1) Deciding important management matters

(2) Status of Internal Audits, Corporate Auditors' Audits, and Efforts to Develop the Auditor's Faculty

The Company maintains the Group Audit Department, which comprises ten specialized staff members who mainly handle internal audits and internal control assessments. The department performs internal audits for the Group in line with the annual audit plans and assessments of internal control over financial reporting. The department reports the detailed results of internal audits and internal control assessments to the representative directors and the standing corporate auditors. If necessary, the department also makes a summary report thereof to the Board of Directors, the Board of Corporate Auditors, and the Management Committee. The Group Audit Department acts in close collaboration with the corporate auditors of both the Company and the other group companies, the accounting auditor, and the internal control departments and divisions by sharing information and opinions in an effort to enhance the effectiveness and efficiency of internal audits.

The Board of Corporate Auditors consists of two standing internal corporate auditors and two non-standing outside corporate auditors. Internal corporate auditor Hirofumi Ota, who has many years of experience in accounting at the Company, and outside corporate auditor Seiji Yokoyama, who is a certified public accountant, are both equipped with considerable knowledge about finance and accounting. The corporate auditors attend the meetings of the Board of Directors to audit the meeting proceedings and decisions, contributing their opinions as needed. They also meet periodically with the representative directors, outside directors, and presidents of business operating companies to confirm the status of their execution of business and exchange views. The corporate auditors work with the accounting auditor by mutually sharing audit plans, confirming the accounting auditor's audit system, and exchanging opinions at the accounting auditor's audit reviews. In addition, the internal corporate auditors audit the directors' execution of their duties by attending important meetings, such as those of the Management Committee; holding periodic interviews with the standing directors, executive officers, and key employees; reviewing important documents to be approved; and conducting on-site audits of key business sites operated by the Company and the other group companies in Japan and overseas. Furthermore, the corporate auditors receive reports with regard to the establishment and operating status of the internal control systems and the internal reporting system from the directors and employees in charge and also attend the meetings of the Group Risk Management Committee and the Sustainability Committee to assess the progress of initiatives to strengthen risk management and promote sustainability management, providing the committees with their insights as necessary. To enhance the effectiveness of corporate auditors' audits, the Board of Corporate Auditors strives to improve coordination between the Internal Audit Department, group company accounting auditors, and the accounting auditors; regularly receives reports of the status and results of audits conducted by each; and holds discussions with them.

(3) Status of Accounting Audits

The Company has formed an audit contract with KPMG AZSA LLC with regard to accounting audits pursuant to Japan's Companies Act and the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act.

IV. Matters Related to Internal Control Systems

1. Basic Approach to Internal Control Systems and the Progress of System Development

By resolution of the Board of Directors, the Company has determined the following matters related to the development of internal control systems to ensure that duties executed by directors comply with laws, regulations, and the Articles of Incorporation, as well as the development of other systems prescribed by the Ministry of Justice orders to ensure the proper business activities undertaken by a group of enterprises consisting of a company and its subsidiaries.

Basic Approach

SCREEN Holdings, along with other group companies, has established the SCREEN Group CSR Charter and Code of Conduct, a set of fundamental precepts formulated to ensure that all group activities uphold the corporate philosophy, which consists of the corporate purpose and the founder's motto. Under these, all group members are committed to maintaining strict legal compliance, high ethical standards, and transparent business dealings and to living up to stakeholder expectations and thereby contributing to the sustainable development of society.

In line with the policies described above, the Company aims to develop its internal control systems in the following manner.

Status of Internal Control Systems

Systems for ensuring the properness of operations undertaken by the corporate group consisting of the Company and its subsidiaries

- As the holding company overseeing the affairs of the SCREEN Group, the Company develops and maintains a group management structure that clearly defines basic policies for the Group's operations as well as roles and responsibilities assigned to each group company in line with the SCREEN Group Code of Management.
- From the perspective of consolidated business management, the Company aims to secure the functional separation of business execution and supervision and to this end focuses on strategic planning for the entire Group, optimally allocating management resources and exercising management of and supervision over operations undertaken by each group company.
- The Company develops and appropriately maintains systems for securing the propriety and reliability of its financial reporting in line with the group internal control policy for financial reporting.
- The Company constantly assesses the Group's financial position and ensures appropriate financial and tax reporting by handling these affairs in accordance with the group accounting and financial policy and accounting standards.
- In line with the group human resource management policy, the Company strives to nurture and better utilize diverse talent capable of achieving success on the global stage. To this end, the Company maintains a personnel system focused on clearly defining the roles of individual employees and accurately assessing their accomplishments while providing skill development programs and other assistance to help employees achieve personal growth in a way that respects their diverse backgrounds.
- The Company develops and maintains the systems necessary to properly operate and manage IT infrastructure for the Group in accordance with the group IT management rules.
- The Company develops and maintains systems for ensuring the timely and accurate disclosure of information on the Group's corporate activities in a manner that conforms with its basic disclosure policy.
- The Company holds Consolidated Management Committee meetings attended by its directors, corporate auditors, and executive officers as well as presidents of group companies in an effort to ensure that all group members firmly embrace its management strategies and operational policies while sharing a sense of unity that transcends organizational boundaries and helps them work as one.
- The Company dispatches directors, executive officers, and its own employees or those of managing group companies to other group companies, where they assume positions as directors or corporate auditors in order to manage and/or supervise operations undertaken by these group companies.
- The Company receives periodic reports on the status of group companies' marketing, financial position, and other operational conditions either directly from said companies or via their managing group companies.

- Internal audit departments audit the status of internal control systems the Company and other group companies have put in place, while ensuring that departments subject to auditing make improvements based on audit findings, in the pursuit of even more robust internal control systems.

Systems for ensuring the efficient execution of directors' duties

- The Company's Board of Directors meets monthly, holding additional special meetings as necessary, and is charged with making swift decisions on important matters in addition to supervising directors' execution of duties.
- To ensure its directors possess the authority necessary to efficiently execute their duties, the Company defines tasks to be delegated to each director based on a resolution passed by its Board of Directors and mandates that other group companies follow similar practices.
- Based on the internal responsibility and authority rules, the Company clearly defines the responsibilities to be borne by and the authority to be delegated to its directors, executive officers, and employees in the course of their duties and mandates that other group companies follow similar practices.
- The Company maintains the Management Committee, which comprises the standing directors, presidents of business operating and functional support companies, as well as executive officers appointed by the chairman of the committee. The Committee meets at least once a month to deliberate matters related to management and facilitate the decision making of the Board of Directors and representative directors.

Systems for ensuring that duties executed by directors, executive officers, and employees comply with laws, regulations, and the Articles of Incorporation

- The Company ingrains the CSR Charter and Code of Conduct into the hearts and minds of directors, executive officers, and all employees so that it can operate in a fair and transparent manner.
- The Company maintains officers and departments in charge of legal affairs to confirm the status of various significant contracts and transactions affecting the Group in terms of compliance with laws, regulations, and the Articles of Incorporation.
- The Company maintains the membership of outside directors in the Board of Directors to ensure the legal compliance of the execution of directors' duties and the rationality of directors' management decisions and to strengthen the Board's supervisory functions.
- The Company develops and maintains a whistleblowing system for the entire SCREEN Group with the aim of preventing and detecting the occurrence of violations of laws and regulations, fraudulent activities, and other corporate misconduct at the earliest stages. The Company and other group companies tolerate no disadvantageous treatment of whistleblowers due to their actions in reporting on the violation of laws or other corporate misconduct.
- The Company is determined to sever any relationships with anti-social forces and reject illicit demands from such forces and, to this end, takes a firm stand against them by acting in collaboration with external lawyers and police agencies. The Company also complies with prefectural and other local ordinances aimed at eliminating organized crime groups and in no way provides anti-social forces with any benefits that may facilitate or contribute to their activities and operations. Moreover, the Company mandates that other group companies follow similar practices.

Systems and rules for the management of risk and losses

- To minimize risks that may affect the Group's operations, the Company mandates that all business units within the Group develop and maintain risk management systems in conformity with the group risk management guidelines and relevant operational rules while periodically monitoring the status of such systems.
- In the event that a critical risk materializes, the Company sets up an emergency headquarters led by the CEO to implement countermeasures and restore operations in line with the business continuity management (BCM) regulations.

Systems for storing and managing information related to the execution of directors' duties

- In accordance with laws, regulations, and its internal rules, the Company swiftly prepares, stores, and manages minutes of meetings and other important documents containing information related to duties executed by directors and executive officers while ensuring that these documents are always accessible to directors and corporate auditors.
- The Company maintains a strict approach to information management and, to this end, abides by the group IT management rules as well as internal rules for securing confidential information and trade secrets.

Systems for securing the effectiveness of auditing by corporate auditors

- Corporate auditors are authorized to attend and freely voice their opinions at Board of Directors, Consolidated Management Committee, Management Committee, and other important group meetings.
- The Company bears expenses incurred by corporate auditors in the course of executing their duties.

Systems for supporting reporting to corporate auditors

- SCREEN Holdings' directors, executive officers, and employees are obliged to report the status of operations, finance, compliance, risk management, and internal audits to corporate auditors and to report any incidents constituting a significant violation of laws or internal rules or potentially leading to significant damage to the Company in the course of their duties as soon as such incidents are recognized.
- All directors, corporate auditors, executive officers, and other employees serving group companies are obliged to provide the Company's corporate auditors with reports on any incidents constituting the significant violation of laws or internal rules or potentially leading to significant damage to the Company in the course of their duties as soon as such incidents are recognized.
- Departments in charge of compliance are obliged to provide corporate auditors with periodic reporting on the status of the SCREEN Group's whistleblowing system and other important matters.
- The Company and other group companies tolerate no disadvantageous treatment of whistleblowers due to their actions in reporting on the violation of laws or other corporate misconduct to corporate auditors.

Matters related to individuals charged with assisting corporate auditors in their duties

- The Company maintains a specialized department that assists corporate auditors with the execution of their duties while allocating to them a dedicated staff equipped with sufficient knowledge and competencies to provide such assistance. This staff operates directly under the corporate auditors, and personnel transfer, performance evaluation, and other matters associated with the management of these individuals are not determined without the consent of the corporate auditors.

2. Basic Approach to the Elimination of Anti-social Forces and the Status of Systems Serving This Purpose

Basic Approach to Eliminating Anti-social Forces

The SCREEN Group takes a firm stand against any groups or individuals (hereinafter "anti-social forces") that may disrupt social order or sound corporate activities and, therefore, absolutely rejects any demand from anti-social forces. In the course of forming contracts with suppliers, the Group confirms that none of the signatories are associated with anti-social forces. In addition, such contracts include provisions allowing the Group to terminate the contractual relationship immediately if any association with anti-social forces is identified.

Status of Systems for Eliminating Anti-social Forces

Individuals responsible for preventing illegal demands

The Company has appointed managers in charge of preventing illegal demands in the Head Office's general affairs department. Also, staff at general affairs departments of the Company's other business sites and subsidiaries are tasked with dealing with any illegal demands in collaboration with their colleagues at the Head Office.

Collaboration with External Specialist Bodies

The SCREEN Group acts in collaboration with external specialist bodies to counter the influence of anti-social forces by, for example, reporting to police agencies and consulting with lawyers as necessary.

Collection and Management of Information Related to Anti-social Forces

The Head Office's general affairs department collects information related to anti-social forces and relays it to group companies as necessary.

Development of Response Manuals

The CSR Charter and Code of Conduct includes an action principle guiding the Group's stance against anti-social forces. The Company has published the CSR Charter and Code of Conduct on its website to ensure that all group members are well aware of this principle. Moreover, the Company has developed manuals to be used by staff appointed at each business site when responding to anti-social forces.

Training

Mandatory training programs on the CSR Charter and Code of Conduct include sessions addressing the Company's stance against anti-social forces.

Supplementary Explanation

2. Other Matters Concerning the Corporate Governance System

The status of the Company's systems associated with the disclosure of corporate information is as follows.

(1) Overview of Systems for Maintaining Timely Disclosure

The Company maintains the Timely Disclosure Committee to ensure that material corporate information associated with the Company and the Group is promptly and appropriately released in a manner that conforms with the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act and related laws and regulations as well as rules stipulated by financial instruments exchanges.

The Timely Disclosure Committee consists of the executive officers and general managers of the Financial Strategy Division and involved departments. The committee is charged with analyzing internal information registered as potentially constituting material facts as well as information submitted to the Management Committee. The committee discusses such matters as whether or not such information requires disclosure and the methods of such disclosure.

(2) Status of Systems for Maintaining Timely Disclosure Information Collection

In each department, managers in charge of controlling internal information are obliged to register any information that may constitute a material fact in connection with their respective departments or group companies managed under their respective departments. As soon as they are aware of the emergence of such information, these managers must register it as such, including an outline of the information in question and the timing of its emergence.

Analysis and Discussions on Disclosure or Non-disclosure

Based on requests from the chief officer in charge of information handling, the Timely Disclosure Committee analyzes the content and materiality of registered information and its impact on profit, then communicates its judgement about whether or not such information requires disclosure and the appropriate methods of such disclosure to this manager.

Reporting to and Approval by the Board of Directors

The chief officer in charge of information handling asks the Management Committee to deliberate on information deemed to require disclosure by the Timely Disclosure Committee, then reports the matter to and obtains the approval of the Board of Directors or representative directors.

Disclosure

Once the disclosure is approved by the Board of Directors or representative directors, the departments in charge of disclosure swiftly disclose the information via the Tokyo Stock Exchange and, as necessary, hold press conferences.

(3) Development of Robust Systems for Maintaining Timely Disclosure

The Company believes that its current systems are capable of ensuring timely disclosure and remains committed to enhancing its timely disclosure practices.

Corporate Governance Structure
