Announcement Regarding the Release of Integrated Report 2025

ITOCHU Corporation (“ITOCHU”) hereby announces the release of its Integrated Report 2025 (Japanese edition / English edition) today.

In the Integrated Report 2025, we focus on our “Management Philosophy as a Merchant,” which is the source of ITOCHU’s competitive advantage and enables us to achieve “growth” under any circumstances, as well as our “Mechanisms and Practices for Value Creation,” which embody this philosophy. The essence of our value creation story - balancing both financial and non-financial capital - is summarized within the report.

We have also made various efforts to further enhance reader convenience, such as the reduction of page count, the introduction of interactive PDF format, and the preparation of a digest version to serve as a guide to the entire report.

The report is posted on ITOCHU’s Investor Relations website. We hope that you will find the Integrated Report helpful in gaining an in-depth understanding of the overall picture of ITOCHU’s growth strategies, specific measures, and the connections between them.
