Business Report

(April 1, 2025 – March 31, 2026)

1. Overview of the Corporate Group

(1) Business Progress and Results

During the fiscal year under review, the Japanese economy continued on a moderate recovery trend mainly due to a pickup in personal consumption resulting from the improved employment and income environment. On the other hand, the future outlook remained uncertain due to concerns about the impact on the economy of rising prices, the situation in the Middle East, and developments in U.S. trade policy.

In this economic environment, earnings figures for the Group for the fiscal year under review were driven by the favorable performance of the Energy Business and at consolidated subsidiaries in the Product Business. Net sales increased 15.7% year on year to 108,485 million yen, operating profit increased 23.8% year on year to 8,031 million yen, ordinary profit increased 8.9% year on year to 9,036 million yen, and profit attributable to owners of parent decreased 3.7% year on year to 7,507 million yen due to a decrease in gains on the sale of cross-shareholdings compared to the previous fiscal year.

The results by segment are as follows.

From the fiscal year under review, the Company revised the calculation method for segment income, taking into account the profit and loss of equity method affiliates, from the conventional operating income to an amount adjusted by adding equity in earnings of affiliates to operating income.

The year-on-year comparison for the fiscal year under review is based on the revised segment income calculation method.

[Energy Business]

Due to the smooth progress of delivery of periodic maintenance work for thermal power plants and nuclear power plants in the regions of Western Japan and construction of new thermal power plants in the Kyushu region, net sales increased 9.5% year on year to 38,492 million yen. On the other hand, segment income decreased 11.9% year on year to 4,011 million yen from the previous fiscal year, in which negative goodwill was recorded due to conversion into an equity method affiliate. Excluding the negative goodwill, segment income increased 11.5% year on year compared to 3,597 million yen in the previous fiscal year.

[Industrial Machinery Business]

At the Company on a non-consolidated basis, due to deliveries of functional film manufacturing plants for chemical companies and various environmental load reduction equipment, among other factors, net sales increased 43.4% year on year to 35,595 million yen, and segment income was 146 million yen (loss of 325 million yen for the previous fiscal year), making an improvement in performance.

[Product Business]

As the performance of Nippon Daiya Valve Co., Ltd. and the Tsurumi (Europe) GmbH Group, consolidated subsidiaries, remained favorable, net sales increased 1.9% year on year to 34,397 million yen, and segment income increased 23.8% year on year to 4,452 million yen.

Financial results of major subsidiaries

(1) to (4) belong to the Product Business, and (5) belongs to the Industrial Machinery Business.

Notes: 1. The performance of Tsurumi (Europe) GmbH is based on the consolidated figures of its group.

2. In conjunction with ASAHI SUNAC CORPORATION becoming a subsidiary in December 2025, ASAHI SUNAC CORPORATION changed its fiscal year-end to December. As a result, the performance included in the Company's consolidated results for the fiscal year ended March 2026 covers the one-month period from December 1 to December 31, 2025.

Overseas sales of the Group increased 46.2% year on year to 23,497 million yen, and accounted for 21.7% of the total net sales of the Group.

The amount of orders received and net sales of the Group by segment are as follow:

Segment	102 nd fiscal year (FY2024)				103 rd fiscal year (FY2025)
	Amount of orders received		Net sales		Amount of orders received		Net sales
	Amount (in million yen)	Composition (%)	Amount (in million yen)	Composition (%)	Amount (in million yen)	Composition (%)	Amount (in million yen)	Composition (%)
Energy	35,927	34.8	35,158	37.5	42,722	36.0	38,492	35.5
Industrial Machinery	33,518	32.5	24,818	26.5	41,355	34.9	35,595	32.8
Product	33,789	32.7	33,757	36.0	34,482	29.1	34,397	31.7
Total	103,235	100.0	93,734	100.0	118,560	100.0	108,485	100.0

(2) Capital Investments

There are no special matters to be noted.

(3) Financing

Funds required for the fiscal year under review were self-financed or financed through borrowings. Specifically, the Company procured a total of 19.0 billion yen in long-term borrowings from four financial institutions for the purpose of acquiring shares in ASAHI SUNAC CORPORATION, making it a consolidated subsidiary.

Funds were not procured through capital increase or bond issue.

In addition, to efficiently procure necessary funds, the Company has entered into a commitment line agreement of 5.0 billion yen in total with major financial institutions.

The Company has also established an uncommitted overdraft facility totaling 13.3 billion yen.

(4) Issues to Be Addressed

In the Medium-Term Management Plan, the Company has set “green environment” as a theme and made it the most significant mission to support the sustainable generation of energy and industrial activities in harmony with the global environment and to bring about sustainable growth of the Company itself and enhancement of its corporate value by taking advantage of these efforts as a growth driver.

In pursuing its business based on the Medium-Term Management Plan, the Company enhanced its earnings foundation through various activities such as becoming an agent of Mitsubishi Heavy Industries for the nuclear energy business, and performance of the consolidated subsidiaries remained favorable. As a result, the Company achieved the numerical targets for the final year of operating profit and ordinary profit under the Medium-Term Management Plan in the current fiscal year.

Accordingly, the Company revised upward the numerical targets of the Medium-Term Management Plan, which enters its final year in the next fiscal year, and is working towards further enhancement of its corporate value based on the following strategies.

1) Business Strategy

Improve profitability by setting strategies based on the characteristic of each business segment, developing structures to analyze business environment and monitor growth effectively, and promoting optimization of business from a medium- to long-term perspective.

i. Business expansion in growing areas

Accelerate complementary M&A in the existing businesses.

ii. Bold implementation of structural reform of low-growth and low-profit businesses

Invest necessary management resources flexibly to improve profitability.

iii. Enhance resilience of the Group companies

Always be conscious of improvement of return on invested capital and implement reform of management, strategic resource allocation, risk management, and appropriate information disclosure.

2) Management Strategy

Manage invested capital efficiently for “realization of the management conscious of capital cost and stock price.”

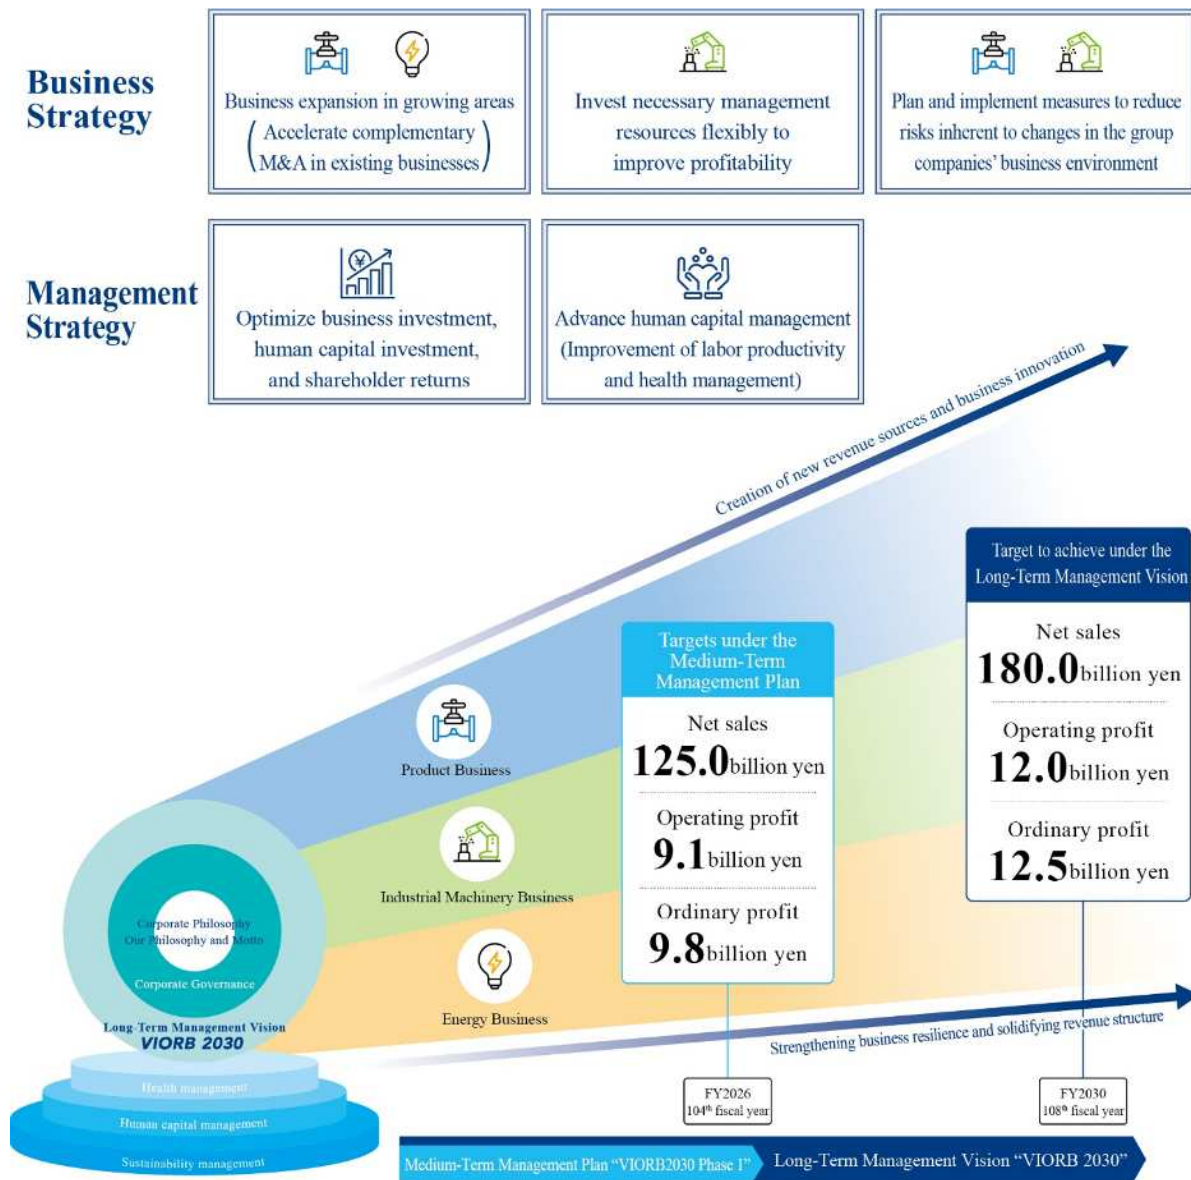

iv. Verification of cash allocation

Optimize business investment, human capital investment, and shareholder returns.

v. Upgrading of the human resources strategy

Implement recruitment of diverse talent, realization of health management, and development of human resources in a planned manner.

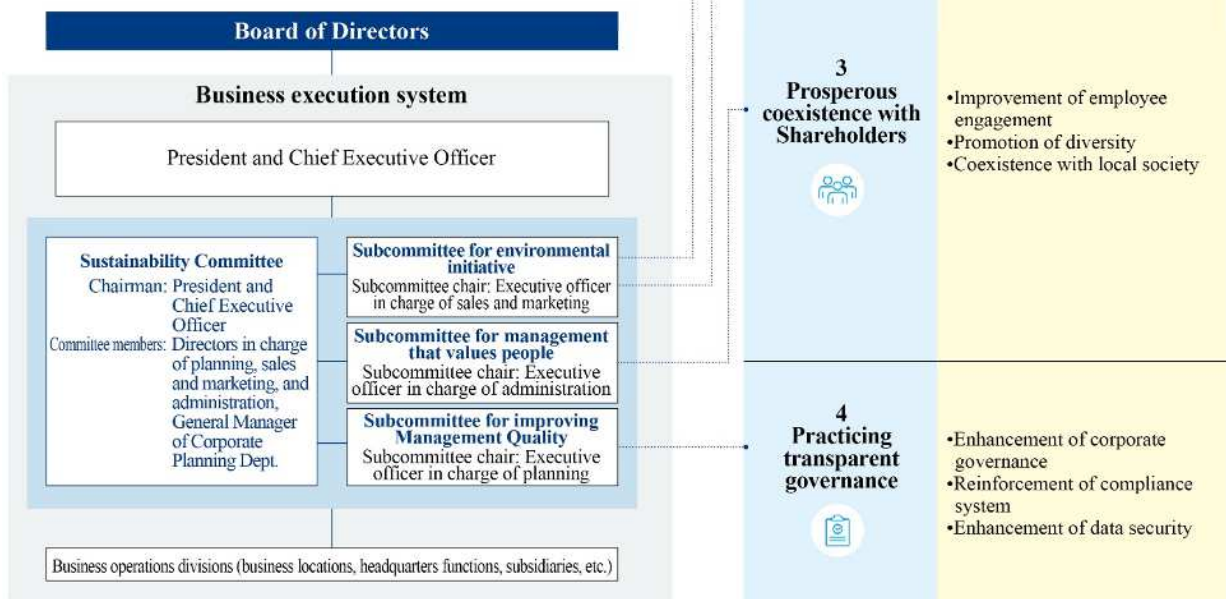

The Company’s medium- to long-term growth strategies and the revised numerical targets under the Long-Term Management Vision and of the Medium-Term Management Plan are as shown in the model diagram below.

In addition, the Group has identified four “Themes of Materiality” and 11 important issues and it should address on a prioritized basis by analyzing how various social issues relate to and affect the Company’s business. By correlating materiality to management strategies and measures taken by the Sustainability Committee, the Company aims to resolve these issues through its business activities.

Subcommittees under the Sustainability Committee take responsibility for issues by theme, set specific initiatives to resolve them and KPIs to measure the achievement, and report the progress to the Sustainability Committee. The Sustainability Committee gives instructions on the policies to subcommittees and monitors their activities, in order to establish a system that will ensure that the purposes and sustainability management will be put into practice.

Each year, the Board of Directors closely examines whether the purpose of holding individual cross-shareholdings is appropriate and whether the benefits and risks associated with holding them are commensurate with the cost of capital, and discloses the results of the verification in the Annual Securities Report.

The Company promoted sale of cross-shareholdings, aiming at improving capital efficiency. As a result, the ratio of cross-shareholdings to consolidated net assets at the end of the fiscal year under review was 16.78%.

In addition, at the meeting of the Board of Directors held on January 16, 2025, a resolution was made to set it a target to have the ratio of at a 10% level at the end of FY2027. In FY2026, the Company also plans to sell 4 issues.

- (4) Remuneration, etc. of Directors
- 1) Decision policy regarding the details of remuneration, etc. for individual Directors
Remuneration, etc. for Directors (with the exception of Directors Serving as Members of the Audit and Supervisory Committee) of the Company consists of basic remuneration (fixed remuneration) based on internal regulations, as well as (with the exception of Outside Directors) bonuses linked to short-term performance, and (with the exclusion of Outside Directors) stock remuneration linked to medium- to long-term performance.
In order to conduct the management conscious of expanding Group revenue, bonuses are calculated by multiplying consolidated operating profit and consolidated profit before income taxes, without consideration for the amount of size-based corporate taxes, by a calculation rate based on the achievement of the numerical targets for consolidated operating profit under the Medium-Term Management Plan and a factor depending on rank for payment.
In order to clarify the linkage between remuneration for Directors and the Company's performance and share value, and thereby to increase Directors' awareness of contribution to enhancing performance and increasing corporate value in the medium to long term, stock remuneration is calculated by multiplying a performance-linked factor based on the Company's market capitalization by the amount of stock remuneration depending on rank for payment, as well as considering the achievement levels of the consolidated ROE among the numerical management targets under the Medium-Term Management Plan and items set forth in the Medium-Term Management Plan.
Under the decision policy described above, remuneration, etc. for Directors (with the exception of Directors Serving as Members of the Audit and Supervisory Committee) of the Company is paid based on regulations resolved by the Board of Directors after extensive discussions, and within the limit approved by resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders.
Remuneration, etc. for Directors (with the exception of Directors Serving as Members of the Audit and Supervisory Committee) for the fiscal year under review is therefore deemed to be in accordance with the decision policy described above.

In order to reinforce fairness, objectivity, transparency and accountability, the Company has established the Remuneration Examination Committee as a voluntary body under the Board of Directors. A majority of the members of the Remuneration Examination Committee are Independent Officers (Outside Directors).

Remuneration, etc. for individual Directors is decided by the Board of Directors after deliberation and recommendations by the Remuneration Examination Committee.

(Reference)

At the Board of Directors meeting held on March 12, 2026, the Company revised the bonus calculation method under item 1) “Decision policy regarding the details of remuneration, etc. for individual Directors” above, and changed it to the following.

The performance-linked remuneration for the fiscal year under review was determined based on the policy prior to the revision.

[Revised bonus calculation formula]

In order to conduct management conscious of expanding Group revenue, bonuses are calculated by multiplying consolidated ordinary profit (excluding negative goodwill) by a coefficient set forth in a matrix table using the consolidated ordinary profit achievement rate and the total shareholder return (TSR) relative to the closing share price at the end of the previous fiscal year, to arrive at the total bonus amount, which is then used to calculate individual bonuses based on the number of eligible Directors (excluding Directors Serving as Members of the Audit and Supervisory Committee) and a factor depending on rank for payment.

At this time, four (4) Directors (excluding Directors Serving as Members of the Audit and Supervisory Committee and Outside Directors) are subject to this resolution, but the limit of 240 million yen or 160,000 shares for four consecutive fiscal years is calculated on the premise of a maximum of eleven (11) Directors, which is the maximum number allowed under the Company’s Articles of Incorporation, reduced by the number of Outside Directors.

Remuneration for Directors Serving as Members of the Audit and Supervisory Committee of the Company was limited to a maximum of 80 million yen per annum by resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders held on June 24, 2025. - 1) Evaluation standards and evaluation methods for significant assets

A. Securities

i. Securities - trading

Market value method

Additionally, the cost of sales is calculated based on the moving average method.

ii. Held-to-maturity bonds

Amortized cost method (straight-line method)

iii. Available-for-sale securities

a Securities other than shares, etc. that do not have a market price

Market value method

Additionally, valuation differences are treated entirely as a component of net assets, and cost of sales is calculated based on the moving average method.

b Shares, etc. that do not have a market price

Cost method based on the moving average method

Additionally, regarding investments in investment business partnerships, etc., valuations are made based on the corresponding amount of assets held in the partnership.

B. Derivatives

Market value method

- C. Inventories

Cost method based on the first-in, first-out method (calculations for balance sheet amounts are made after write-downs on book value based on declines in profitability)

However, overseas consolidated subsidiaries primarily utilize the lower of cost or market value method on an individual basis, and domestic consolidated subsidiaries primarily utilize the cost method on a weighted-average basis (calculations for balance sheet amounts are made after write-downs on book value based on declines in profitability).
- 2) Method of depreciation and amortization for significant depreciable assets
  - A. Property, plant, and equipment (excluding leased assets)

Declining-balance method

However, of rental assets, those based on lease agreements (uniform rental fee revenue), and buildings acquired on or after April 1, 1998 (excluding facilities attached to buildings), as well as facilities attached to buildings and structures acquired on or after April 1, 2016, and some consolidated subsidiaries utilize the straight-line method.
  - B. Intangible assets (excluding leased assets)

Straight line method

Additionally, regarding software for internal use, the straight line method is used over the internal useful life (five years).
  - C. Leased assets

Regarding finance lease transactions without transfer of ownership, the lease term is considered as the useful life, and the straight line method is adopted with residual value as zero.
- 3) Recording standards for significant allowances
  - A. Allowance for doubtful accounts

To prepare for losses resulting from irrecoverable receivables, ordinary receivables are accounted for based on the historical write-off rate, and for specified receivables such as doubtful accounts, the estimated amount of irrecoverable debt based on recoverability are recorded individually.
  - B. Provision for bonuses

To prepare for payment of employee bonuses and bonuses for non-Director executive officers, the estimated amount of payment to be borne during the consolidated fiscal year under review is recorded.
  - C. Provision for bonuses for directors

5) Other significant matters for the preparation of consolidated financial statements

A. Accounting treatment for consumption taxes that are outside the scope of elimination, etc.
Consumption taxes and local consumption taxes that are outside the scope of elimination are processed as expenses for the consolidated fiscal year under review.

B. Recording standards for revenue and expenses

i. Details of main performance obligations in principal businesses and the timing at which the Company recognizes revenue

The Group is engaged in the sale, maintenance, and servicing of machinery and equipment in the fields of energy, industrial machinery and product as well as related equipment and ancillary products, both in Japan and overseas.

In the businesses in which the Company engages in the sale of products, the Company is obligated to deliver the ordered products under the contract with a customer, and as for the timing at which these performance obligations are satisfied, the Company determines that control of products is transferred to customers when the products are delivered to the customer based on the contract with the customer. Accordingly, revenue from sales of products is recognized when such products are delivered to the customer. For transactions involving the provision of services, revenue is recognized at the completion of the service delivery when the Company satisfies the performance obligations based on the contract with the customer.

In addition, revenue from sales of products in which the Group acts as an agent is recognized at the net amount of the amount received.

Furthermore, revenue is measured at the amount of consideration promised with the customer under the contract less discounts, rebates, and returns.

ii. Recording standards regarding revenue for finance lease transactions

Revenue is recorded by the method of reporting net sales and cost of sales at the time of receiving lease fees.

In addition, for subleasing transactions, the sublease margin is recorded as net sales at the time of receiving lease fees.

C. Method of account treatment for retirement benefits

To prepare for payment of retirement expenses of employees, retirement benefit liability is recorded based on the estimated amounts as of the end of the consolidated fiscal year under review after elimination of the amount of pension assets from retirement benefit obligations. Actuarial differences are recorded as one-time expenses during the following consolidated fiscal year. Past service costs are recorded as one-time expenses during the fiscal year in which they are incurred. Unrecognized actuarial differences are recorded as remeasurements of defined benefit plans in accumulated other comprehensive income under net assets net of tax.

Additionally, in calculation of retirement benefit obligations, concerning the attribution of estimated retirement benefit expenses to the period until the end of the consolidated fiscal year under review, the benefit formula standard is used.

Furthermore, certain consolidated subsidiaries adopt the simplified method.

2. Notes on accounting estimates

Recoverability of deferred tax assets

(1) Amount recorded in the consolidated financial statement for the consolidated fiscal year under review:
729 million yen

(2) Other information

Deferred tax assets are recognized for unused tax losses carried forward and future deductible temporary differences, to the extent that it is probable that future taxable income will be available. In the judgement of the probability of taxable income, the Company reasonably estimates the timing and amount of taxable income that may be available in the future and calculates the amount accordingly.

These estimates are subject to the influence of uncertain future economic situation and operating status of the Company. If the actual timing when the taxable income becomes available and the amount thereof differ from the estimates, the amount to be recognized in the consolidated financial statements in and after the following consolidated fiscal year may be significantly affected. In addition, changes in effective tax rates due to revisions of the taxation system may also significantly affect the amount to be recognized in the consolidated financial statements in and after the following consolidated fiscal year.

6. Notes on financial instruments

(1) Status of financial instruments

For funds required for the performance of business, the Group conducts procurement primarily via indirect financing from bank borrowings.

Additionally, derivative transactions are used to avoid foreign exchange fluctuation risk on foreign currency-denominated debts and credits based on actual demand, and are not for speculative purposes.

Customer credit risk regarding notes and accounts receivable - trade and contract assets are managed by appropriately ascertaining the status of key transaction partners and managing balances and due dates on a per-partner basis, with the intent of early discovery and reduction of recoverability concerns resulting from deterioration, etc., in financial conditions.

Additionally, although foreign currency-denominated sales receivables and payables are subject to foreign exchange fluctuation risk, hedging is made in principle via utilization of forward exchange contracts.

Securities and investment securities are primarily shares, and investment trusts, and are held for the purposes of strengthening relationships with transaction partners, stabilizing capital, and trading. Although some of these securities are subject to market price fluctuation risk, their market values are ascertained on an ongoing basis.

The purpose of borrowings is to procure funds necessary for the acquisition of shares and business operations.

The Company prepares for liquidity risk by striving to ascertain the capital status of the overall Group on an ongoing basis, and via methods such as adjustment of long-term and short-term procurement balances in consideration of the market environment. The Company also secures means to conduct stable financing by establishing commitment lines and overdraft facilities, etc.

(2) Market value, etc., of financial instruments

Amounts recorded on the consolidated balance sheet as of March 31, 2026, market values, and differences are as follows. “Cash and deposits,” “notes and accounts receivable - trade, and contract assets,” “notes and accounts payable - trade,” and “short-term borrowings” are omitted because the settlement periods are short and the market values are essentially equal to the book values.

Level 2 market value: Market value measured using observable inputs other than Level 1 inputs.

Level 3 market value: Market value measured using unobservable inputs.

If multiple inputs are used that are significant to the market value measurement, the market value measurement is categorized in its entirety in the level of the lowest level input that is significant to the entire measurement.

Liabilities

The market value of long-term borrowings is calculated by discounting the estimated interest rate from the total amount of principal and interest categorized by certain period of time, assuming similar new borrowings, and is classified as Level 2.

ii. Shares, etc. that do not have a market price

(3) Evaluation standards and evaluation methods for inventories

Cost method based on the first-in, first-out method (calculations for balance sheet amounts are made after write-downs on book value based on declines in profitability)

(4) Method of depreciation and amortization for non-current assets

1) Property, plant, and equipment (excluding leased assets)

Declining-balance method. However,

i. Low value depreciable assets acquired at a cost of 100 thousand yen or more and less than 200 thousand yen are evenly depreciated over three years.

Straight line method. Additionally, regarding software for internal use, the straight line method is used over the internal useful life (five years).

3) Leased assets

Regarding finance lease transactions without transfer of ownership, the lease term is considered as the useful life, and the straight line method is adopted with residual value as zero.

(5) Recording standards for allowances

1) Allowance for doubtful accounts

To prepare for losses resulting from irrecoverable receivables, ordinary receivables are accounted for based on the historical write-off rate, and for specified receivables such as doubtful accounts, the estimated amount of irrecoverable debt based on recoverability are recorded individually.

2) Provision for bonuses

To prepare for payment of employee bonuses and bonuses for non-Director executive officers, the estimated amount of payment to be borne during the fiscal year under review is recorded.

- 3) Provision for bonuses for directors
To prepare for the payment of Directors' bonuses, the estimated amount of payment is recorded.

In calculation of retirement benefit obligations, concerning the attribution of estimated retirement benefit expenses to the period until the end of the fiscal year under review, the benefit formula standard is used.

In the businesses in which the Company engages in the sale of products, the Company is obligated to deliver the ordered products under the contract with a customer, and as for the timing at which these performance obligations are satisfied, the Company determines that control of products is transferred to customers when the products are delivered to the customer based on the contract with the customer. Accordingly, revenue from sales of products is recognized when such products are delivered to the customer. For transactions involving the provision of services, revenue is recognized at the completion of the service delivery when the Company satisfies the performance obligations based on the contract with the customer.
