Factors Affecting Net Income (FY2026 Profit Plan)

- ✓ Net income excluding non-recurring factors is projected to increase, despite the absence of major gains on the sale of U.S. data centers in the previous year

Net Income Bridge

○ Net income excl. non-recurring factors

Impact of the Middle East Situation

Impact on FY2026 Profit Plan

- Direct impact: Assumed to be limited at this time
- After-tax ¥2.0 billion risk buffer factored in for uncertainty
- Indirect impact: Closely monitoring risks from a prolonged situation (e.g., rising interest rates/costs, lower demand, customer credit)

Risk Assessment by Business Unit

Global Business

- No Middle East transactions
- Key watchpoints: Demand slowdown in CSI's business, driven by rising semiconductor and memory costs

Social Infrastructure

- No Middle East transactions
- Key watchpoints for renewable energy: Impact of higher electricity market prices and fuel costs driven by crude oil/LNG price hikes

Transport

- Aviation (ACG): No impact at present, despite leasing transactions with Middle Eastern airlines
- Key watchpoints: Decline in air passenger demand and airline performance trends amid rising crude oil prices
Impact of maritime market instability on the shipping business

Mobility

- Potential used car price instability due to Middle East market stagnation
- Key watchpoints: Potential decrease in rental car demand in Japan due to fewer inbound tourists, driven by higher airfares amid rising crude oil prices

Shareholder Returns

Dividend Policy

- Maintain progressive dividends as our basic stance, balancing investment in future growth with stable and continuous shareholder returns to achieve sustainable enhancement of shareholder value.
- Target payout ratio of 35% or higher while seeking dividend growth through earnings expansion.

Full-Year Dividend per Share and Payout Ratio

○ Dividend payout ratio (%)
 ■ Dividend per Share (Yen)

- FY2025 Plan: 80 yen (payout ratio: 35.1%), up ¥8 from the revised plan of 72 yen
- FY2026 Plan: 90 yen (payout ratio: 35.8%), up ¥10 YoY, marking the 4th consecutive year of dividend increases

Acquisition of Shares in Australian Car Rental Company

- ✓ First stand-alone investment in an overseas car rental company, establishing a business foundation in the growing Australian mobility market

Company Overview

Name	Bargain Car Rentals Australia Pty Ltd
Headquarters	Tasmania, Australia
Business	Car rental

Established:
2005

Revenue:
No. 1
among Australian car rental companies

Locations:
14 branches

Fleet Size:
Approx. 5,000 vehicles

Strategic Significance & Objectives of Acquisition

● Utilization of Operational Expertise

- Leverage insights from NRS operations (e.g., optimal fleet control, highly efficient branch operations, and service upgrades through digital transformation)

● Global Expansion

- Expand overseas mobility business
- Entry into Australia's robust car rental market as the first step

● Value Chain Creation

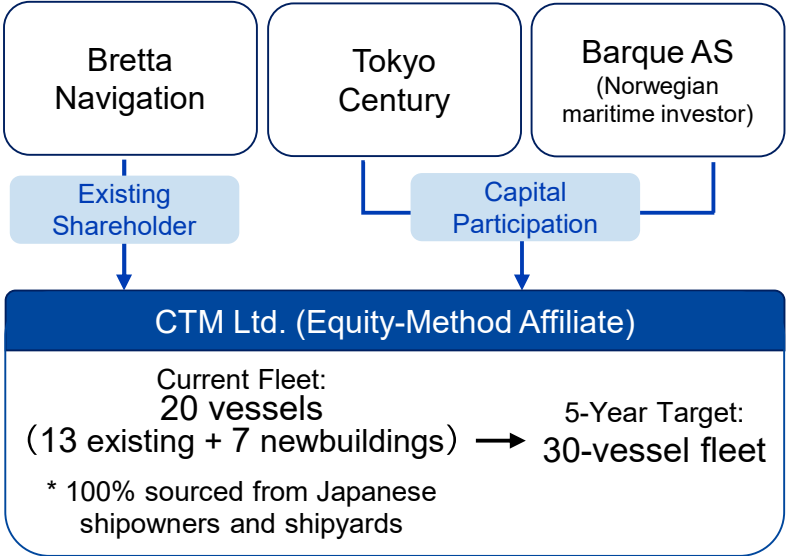

- Accelerate expansion into adjacent areas, including vehicle leasing, financing, and used car sales etc.
- Goal: Establish a comprehensive mobility business value chain

Growth Strategies of Bargain

- ✓ Build a stable customer base by expanding new branches and acquiring corporate clients
- ✓ Enhance brand power through digital transformation and improve direct sales ratio and unit sales price
- ✓ Improve utilization rates through accurate demand forecasting and vehicle allocation

Strategic Investment in the CTM Group, a Top-Tier Dry Bulk Vessel Pool Operator

Overview

Strengths of CTM Ltd.

- Operations via World-Leading Dry Bulk Vessel Pool
Pool operations of 70–80 vessels by CTM S.A.M., incorporating the CTM Ltd. fleet
- Top-Tier Operational Expertise
Consistently outperforming market averages through proprietary routing and allocation logic
- Real-time Market Analysis
Specialized operations backed by in-house ship management functions

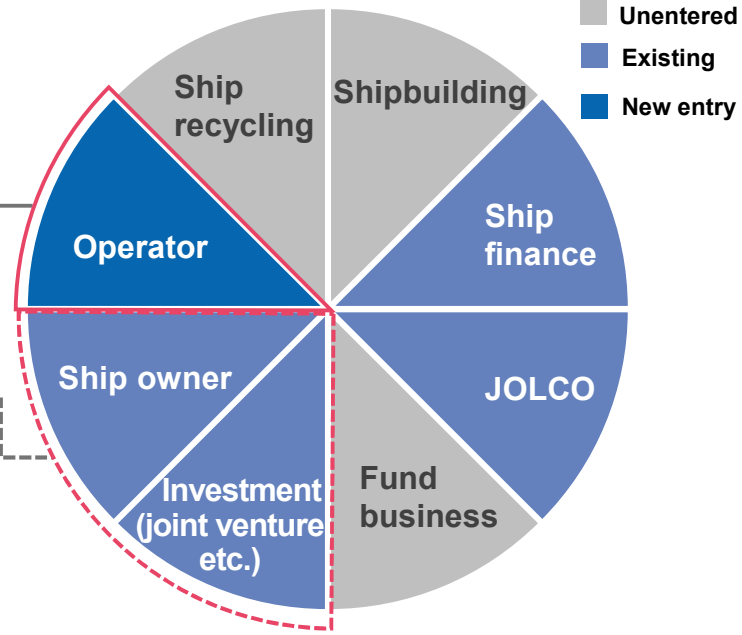

Integration of world-class operational expertise

Future Strategies

Enhance operator functions, building a system that covers everything from vessel ownership to operation and management

- Rapid upside capture during favorable market conditions
- High profitability through an asset-light model
- Lower market exposure with charter cover
- Capital gains from vessel sales

Resilience to market volatility and improvement in ROA

Evolution to an Integrated Maritime Service Provider

- Fusion of ship ownership and operational expertise
- Shifting from a simple vessel-leasing model to next-generation asset management that converts market volatility into profit through deep operational insights

Our proprietary vessel completed in 2026 (HERMES CENTURY)

*1 Gains/losses on divestment of PI and sales of operational investment securities

*2 After-tax basis

Key Factors

Aviation

Income increased substantially, primarily driven by insurance settlement proceeds related to Russia exposure(+65.0) and reversal of tax expense (+19.0)

Shipping

Income decreased, mainly due to foreign exchange valuation losses at equity-method affiliates and the absence of gains on vessel sales recorded in the previous year.

Real Estate

Results remained flat, as impairment losses on real estate goodwill, etc., were offset by gains on sales of U.S. data centers and other assets.

PI, Etc.

Income increased, primarily driven by capital gains in the PI business.

Gains on Sales & Impairment Losses

FY2025:

- Insurance settlement proceeds in aviation (+65.0)
- Gains on sales in real estate, principal investment (+15.5)
- Impairment losses on aircraft leasing assets, real estate assets and goodwill etc. (-10.3)

FY2024:

- Gains on sales in real estate, principal investment (+9.1)
- Impairment losses on aircraft leasing assets (-3.9)
