

ACOM recognized as the 2026 Outstanding Organizations of KENKO Investment for Health (White 500) for the first time

ACOM has been selected as one of the 2026 Outstanding Organizations of KENKO Investment for Health (White 500) by Trade and Industry (METI) and the Nippon Kenko Kaigi under the Recognition Program for the Outstanding Organizations of KENKO Investment for Health. This recognition marks the fifth consecutive year, within the large enterprise category.

The Recognition Program for the Outstanding Organizations of KENKO Investment for Health aims to highlight outstanding large enterprises and SMEs that have been implementing the KENKO Investment for Health program to develop an environment in which such enterprises are valued by employees, job seekers, related enterprises, and financial institutions. Among these organizations, the top 500 are recognized as “White 500” enterprises.

At ACOM, we believe that the physical and mental well-being of our officers and employees is essential to their happiness and the sustainable growth of the organization. Under our “Declaration of Health and Productivity Management” and “Basic Policy on Health and Productivity Management,” we are committed to creating a workplace environment where all employees can work with vitality and happiness. We will continue our efforts to foster an environment where our employees and their families can lead fulfilling and vibrant lives, striving to make each day better than the last.
