(Note) Modification from the most recently announced dividend forecast: None

* Daiwa Securities Group Inc. (hereinafter the "Company") will basically pay dividends semiannually (interim and year-end dividends) at a payout ratio of 50% or more based on consolidated financial performance. In addition to this, the Company has set a minimum dividend per share (full year) of 44 yen from the fiscal year ending March 31, 2025 to the fiscal year ending March 31, 2027. For convenience, the minimum dividend for the full year is shown in the total column of FY 2025 (expected) in the above table. As indicated in 3. below, the Company does not forecast operating results and it does not present the actual amount of the full-year dividends for FY 2025 because those amounts are currently undetermined. Those amounts will be determined in line with the aforementioned policy, taking into consideration the consolidated operating results.

3. Earnings forecasts for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2026 (consolidated)

Daiwa Securities Group's (hereinafter the "Group") principal business is securities-related business, and the performance of the Group is significantly influenced by the economic and market environment in which it operates. Therefore, the Company does not disclose the forecasts of consolidated operating results, considering the difficulty to forecast the performance.

1. Overview of operating results, etc.

(1) Overview of operating results

(i) Status of overall business

For the nine months ended December 31, 2025, operating revenue increased by 4.8% year on year to 1,075.6 billion yen, and net operating revenue increased by 10.8% to 522.5 billion yen.

Commission received increased by 15.1% to 347.2 billion yen. Brokerage commission increased by 17.7% to 77.7 billion yen due to an increase in stock trading. Commission for underwriting, secondary distribution and solicitation for selling and others for professional investors decreased by 5.8% to 30.7 billion yen due to a decrease in equity underwriting transactions, despite a large real estate security token underwriting transaction.

Net trading income decreased by 12.2% to 73.9 billion yen mainly due to a decrease in bond revenue.

Net financial income increased by 12.1% to 64.0 billion yen mainly due to a decrease in repurchase agreement expenses.

Selling, general and administrative expenses increased by 4.7% to 374.7 billion yen. Trading related expenses increased by 9.7% to 74.2 billion yen mainly due to an increase in commission expenses, and personnel expenses increased by 1.3% to 186.5 billion yen mainly due to an increase in salaries, despite a decrease in bonuses.

As a result of the above, ordinary income decreased by 3.6% to 167.4 billion yen.

After adding extraordinary income to this figure and deducting extraordinary losses, income taxes and profit attributable to non-controlling interests, profit attributable to owners of parent increased by 0.8% year on year to 125.4 billion yen.

(ii) Status by category described in segment information

Wealth Management Division:

The main sources of earnings of the Wealth Management Division are commissions on products and services related to asset management for individual investors and unlisted companies in Japan, and profit margin that Daiwa Next Bank obtained from the management of procured funds raised through acceptance of deposits, etc. Factors that may have a major impact on operating results include changes in domestic and overseas financial markets and economic conditions that affect investment trends, as well as the development and underwriting status of products to address customer needs, and the type of sales strategies employed.

For the nine months ended December 31, 2025, sales of a wide range of products expanded due to intensifying market investment activities and the deepening of total asset consulting. Asset-based revenue increased to 89.8 billion yen, while the contract amounts and net inflows for wrap account services remained at high levels. Contract AUM reached a record high of 5,783.6 billion yen.

The balance of deposits (including negotiable certificates of deposit) at Daiwa Next Bank as of December 31, 2025 increased by 15.0% from the end of the previous fiscal year to 4,954.5 billion yen. The number of bank accounts increased by 12.9% to 2.13 million.

As a result, net operating revenue in the Wealth Management Division for the nine months ended December 31, 2025 increased by 13.4% year on year to 214.6 billion yen, and ordinary income increased by 37.2% to 78.8 billion yen.

Asset Management Division:

Asset Management Division is comprised of Securities asset management, Real estate asset management and Alternative asset management.

The main sources of earnings of Securities asset management are the management fees for structuring and managing investment trusts from the Company's consolidated subsidiary Daiwa Asset Management. In addition, profit and loss of Sumitomo Mitsui DS Asset Management Company, Limited and Global X Management Company LLC, both equity method affiliate, are recorded in ordinary income according to the Company's ownership ratio. Factors that may have a major impact on operating results include the fluctuation in customer demand for investment trust and investment advisory services caused by the market conditions, the investment performance of the fund relative to market conditions and the appeal of the products themselves such as the development of products with themes that capture the interest of customers.

Securities Asset Management had an increase in both revenue and profit. At Daiwa Asset Management, the balance of assets under management of publicly offered investment trusts increased by 27.3% from the end of the previous fiscal year to 36.5 trillion yen, with a net increase in funds and rise in the stock market contributing to the result. As a result, net operating revenue for the nine months ended December 31, 2025 increased by 18.6% year on year to 50.9 billion yen, and ordinary income increased by 26.1% to 26.2 billion yen.

The main sources of earnings of Real estate asset management are real estate investment income from the Company's consolidated subsidiaries Daiwa Real Estate Asset Management, Daiwa Securities Realty, Daiwa Office Investment Corporation and Samty Residential Investment Corporation. In addition, profit and loss related to real estate investment of each of the subsidiaries of the Company's equity method affiliate Samty Holdings Co., Ltd., and Daiwa Securities Living Investment Corporation, which is similarly an equity method affiliate, are recorded in ordinary income according to the Company's ownership ratio. Factors that may have a major impact on operating results include trends in the domestic real estate market and office demand.

Real Estate Asset management had an increase in both revenue and profit. The total balance of assets under management of Daiwa Real Estate Asset Management and Samty Residential Investment Corporation increased by 8.6% from the end of the previous fiscal year to 1,733.5 billion yen due to new acquisitions of properties and other such factors. As a result, net operating revenue for the nine months ended December 31, 2025 increased by 18.5% year on year to 27.8 billion yen, and ordinary income increased by 6.3% to 23.2 billion yen.

The main sources of earnings of Alternative asset management are gains on sales from IPO and M&A transactions and capital gains from investment partnerships of the Company's consolidated subsidiaries Daiwa Corporate Investment, Daiwa PI Partners and Daiwa Energy & Infrastructure, and income gains including management fees and contingency fees received from funds based on contracts, dividends on stocks, and electricity sales income. Factors that may have a major impact on operating results include stock market and IPO market trends, changes in economic conditions that could affect values of invested companies, and liquidity of positions of held securities and investment assets.

Alternative Asset Management had a decrease in profit. Daiwa Corporate Investment secured earnings from the gains on sales of investees, while contributing to investment in domestic and overseas growth companies and listing support. In addition, Daiwa PI Partners invested in monetary claims, real estate loans and equity, and loans to corporations at home and abroad in addition to proceeding with the collection of existing projects. Daiwa Energy & Infrastructure recorded income and capital gains while executing energy and infrastructure related investment that contributes to the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), such as investing in storage battery businesses, but it recorded provisions and recognized impairment losses from revaluations of certain renewable energy-related investees. Consequently, ordinary loss for the nine months ended December 31, 2025 was 0.3 billion yen (ordinary income of 22.5 billion yen for the nine months ended December 31, 2024).

As a result, net operating revenue in the Asset Management Division for the nine months ended December 31, 2025 increased by 18.4% year on year to 85.8 billion yen, and ordinary income decreased by 24.7% to 49.0 billion yen.

Global Markets & Investment Banking Division:

The Global Markets & Investment Banking Division is comprised of the Global Markets, which conducts sales and trading of securities targeted at institutional investors, etc. and Global Investment Banking, which conducts underwriting of securities issued by industrial corporations and financial corporations, etc. and M&A advisory services.

Main sources of earnings of Global Markets are trading commissions from the buying and selling of marketable securities for institutional investors and trading income. Changing market trends with geopolitical risks and international economic conditions, etc. and the associated change in customer flows are factors that may have a major impact on operating results.

Global Markets had an increase in both revenue and profit. Fixed income revenue decreased due to difficulty in managing positions amid widely fluctuating interest rates, while Equity revenue increased mainly due to an increase in customer flows on the back of a favorable market for equities. As a result, net operating revenue for the nine months ended December 31, 2025 increased by 3.6% year on year to 117.1 billion yen, and ordinary income increased by 1.5% to 23.0 billion yen.

Main sources of earnings of Global Investment Banking are underwriting and secondary offering commissions from underwriting business and M&A commissions from M&A advisory services. In addition to the domestic and overseas economic conditions that affect client companies' decisions on fundraising methods and M&A demand, whether or not the Company can capture corporate demand and secure projects is a factor that has a major impact on operating results.

Global Investment Banking had an increase in both revenue and profit. Underwriting and secondary offering commissions decreased compared to the nine months ended December 31, 2024, when we acted as lead manager on many bond offerings. In the M&A business, many transactions were executed both in Japan and overseas, leading to increased revenue. As a result, net operating revenue for the nine months ended December 31, 2025 increased by 9.2% year on year to 64.7 billion yen, and ordinary income increased by 168.8% to 12.4 billion yen.

As a result, net operating revenue in the Global Markets & Investment Banking Division for the nine months ended December 31, 2025 increased by 5.5% year on year to 181.9 billion yen, and ordinary income increased by 31.2% to 38.5 billion yen.

Others:

Other business includes the research and consulting business and system operations by Daiwa Institute of Research.

Daiwa Institute of Research contributed to the earnings of the Group by steadily advancing the development of the Group's systems as well as strengthening relationships with customers through high-value-added solution proposals, in addition to being involved in system development projects for large-scale customers.

For the nine months ended December 31, 2025, net operating revenue related to other adjustment, etc. was 40.1 billion yen (37.5 billion yen for the nine months ended December 31, 2024), and ordinary income was 0.9 billion yen (21.5 billion yen for the nine months ended December 31, 2024) mainly due to a year-on-year increase in ordinary income of some Group companies in the "Others".

(2) Overview of financial position

<Assets>

Total assets as of December 31, 2025 increased by 2,571.0 billion yen (7.1%) from the end of the previous fiscal year to 38,595.3 billion yen. The breakdown shows that current assets increased by 2,494.0 billion yen (7.3%) to 36,769.8 billion yen, including an increase in cash and deposits of 1,001.6 billion yen (26.7%) to 4,758.4 billion yen, an increase in securities of 467.4 billion yen (29.5%) to 2,054.3 billion yen, an increase in trading products of 3,030.9 billion yen (36.4%) to 11,358.4 billion yen, and a decrease in loans secured by securities of 1,601.7 billion yen (10.4%) to 13,775.8 billion yen. Non-current assets increased by 76.9 billion yen (4.4%) to 1,825.5 billion yen.

<Liabilities and net assets>

Total liabilities increased by 2,504.5 billion yen (7.3%) from the end of the previous fiscal year to 36,605.5 billion yen. The breakdown shows that current liabilities increased by 2,871.5 billion yen (9.4%) to 33,566.9 billion yen, including a decrease in trading products of 156.6 billion yen (2.1%) to 7,280.5 billion yen, a decrease in borrowings secured by securities of 171.5 billion yen (1.1%) to 15,273.9 billion yen, an increase in deposits for the banking business of 644.8 billion yen (15.0%) to 4,942.5 billion yen, and an increase in short-term borrowings of 558.1 billion yen (39.4%) to 1,973.4 billion yen. Non-current liabilities decreased by 367.0 billion yen (10.8%) to 3,032.3 billion yen, including a decrease in bonds payable of 176.2 billion yen (14.5%) to 1,042.2 billion yen, and a decrease in long-term borrowings of 210.1 billion yen (10.3%) to 1,826.4 billion yen.

Total net assets increased by 66.4 billion yen (3.5%) to 1,989.7 billion yen. Total share capital and capital surplus was 514.1 billion yen. Retained earnings increased by 45.0 billion yen (4.3%) to 1,086.5 billion yen, mainly due to the recording of 125.4 billion yen in profit attributable to owners of parent as well as the payment of 79.8 billion yen in dividends. Deduction for treasury shares increased by 40.0 billion yen (35.4%) to 153.2 billion yen, valuation difference on available-for-sale securities increased by 30.3 billion yen (60.6%) to 80.5 billion yen, foreign currency translation adjustment increased by 22.9 billion yen (17.2%) to 156.5 billion yen, and non-controlling interests decreased by 0.1 billion yen (0.1%) to 277.0 billion yen.
