Press Release

Company Name: Daiwa Securities Group Inc.
Representative: Akihiko Ogino, President and CEO

Regarding the Receipt of the Medal with Dark Blue Ribbon (Konju Hoshō)

Daiwa Securities Group (the "Group") hereby announces that it has received a certificate of commendation for the Medal with Dark Blue Ribbon in recognition of its donation to Japan Heart, a certified nonprofit organization. The Medal with Dark Blue Ribbon (Konju Hoshō) is a decoration awarded in recognition of contributions made through private donations for the public good by individuals or organizations.

As part of its support for the damage caused by the earthquake that struck central Myanmar in March 2025, the Group made a donation to Japan Heart, and the contribution was recognized with the award.

Right: Haruna Yoshioka, Chairperson, Japan Heart
Left: Akihiko Ogino, President and CEO, Daiwa Securities Group Inc.

Japan Heart is a Japan-based international medical NGO that provides medical care to places where it is not readily accessible, including developing countries, remote islands and underserved areas in Japan, as well as disaster-affected regions. In support of the organization's mission, the Group has continuously supported its medical assistance activities, including through initiatives such as the "OUEN Deposits" offered by Daiwa Next Bank.

Daiwa Securities Group will continue to contribute to the realization of a sustainable society through ongoing engagement in social contribution activities, including disaster relief.
