TradeStation Group Unveils Insights AI, Advancing Market Analysis for Active Traders

Proprietary AI-powered tool delivers automated market insights to help enhance access to market information

Plantation, Fla., May 19, 2026 –TradeStation Group, Inc. (“TradeStation Group”), parent company of TradeStation Securities, Inc., the brokerage firm built for active equity and derivatives traders, today announced the launch of Insights AI, a proprietary AI-powered tool designed to enhance market analysis for active traders. By synthesizing financial news with market price data, Insights AI delivers intelligence on the most actively traded stocks,* giving traders faster access to the context behind market movements. With this launch, TradeStation Group companies reaffirm their commitment to equipping active traders with technology designed to enhance efficiency and decision-making in an increasingly complex market landscape.

Insights AI reduces the manual effort required to stay up to date with market trends by generating summaries on the market’s most actively traded companies. It combines market price data with media reports, based on data from financials, analyst ratings, historical milestones, and other public information. It is presented beside charts provided by TradingView† to help traders gain a deeper understanding of the driving forces behind stock movements faster and without the effort of having to comb through multiple data sources individually.

“TradeStation Group companies have always strived to be at the forefront of innovation, and Insights AI is another step toward empowering active traders with progressive technology,” said John Bartleman, President and Chief Executive Officer of TradeStation Group. “Additionally, the tool serves as an educational resource, helping traders understand market trends while inspiring them to explore new trading strategies.”

“At a time when market volatility can shift at a moment’s notice, traders need more than just raw data – they need context to help them uncover new opportunities,” said David Russell, Vice President, Market Insights and Research of TradeStation Group. “Insights AI provides just that, digesting price trends and financial news to help traders understand the ‘why’ behind stock movements.”

*,†The symbols selected by Insights AI include stocks that meet a specific set of criteria: reflecting the 50 most active stocks based on 21-day options volume; ETFs and meme stocks are not included. Insights AI content is derived from news and other information feeds provided by Accretive Capital LLC d/b/a Benzinga

("Benzinga") and market activity. TradeStation Group makes the content available for informational purposes only. See <https://www.tradestation.com/insights-ai/> for additional information.
