SPARX Group Certified for the Third Consecutive Year as a 2026 Health & Productivity Management Outstanding Organization / Selected as One of the Top “Bright 500” Companies

TOKYO—March 9, 2026—SPARX Group Co., Ltd. (SPARX; TSE Prime: 8739) today announced it and its subsidiary SPARX Asset Management Co., Ltd., have been certified for the third consecutive year as a 2026 Health & Productivity Management Outstanding Organization of KENKO Investment for Health Program Small and Medium-Sized Enterprise Category. This certification is a joint promotion by the Ministry of Economy, Trade and Industry (METI) and the Nippon Kenko Kaigi [Japan Health Council]. In addition, the Company has newly been selected as one of the top 500 corporations under the “Bright 500,” as well as the “Next Bright 1000.”

During this fiscal year as well, SPARX and its subsidiaries (the “Group”) continued to take an individualized approach to promoting the health of executives and employees through follow-up interviews conducted by industrial health staff after medical checkups. At the same time, as the Group actively held seminars providing the latest medical information with the aim of enhancing each individual’s health literacy. Furthermore, in order to foster an environment and workplace culture that supports the Group’s people active within the Group, we have worked to enhance and further communicate systems that support balancing work with caregiving and medical treatment. These ongoing initiatives were highly evaluated and resulted in the above certification.

It is no exaggeration to say that the Group’s business is all about people. SPARX aims to make “the world wealthier, healthier, and happier,” a purpose served by creating a workplace where the Group’s people can work happy and healthy.
