(Update) Notice Concerning Completion of Consolidation of Domestic Real Estate Businesses by Dai-ichi Life Holdings, Inc. and Marubeni Corporation, Involving a Company Split (Simplified Absorption-Type Company Split) by Marubeni Corporation with Succession by a Consolidated Subsidiary and a Partial Share Exchange by Such Consolidated Subsidiary

As of today, Dai-ichi Life Holdings, Inc. (“Dai-ichi Life HD”) and Marubeni Corporation (“Marubeni”; collectively with Dai-ichi Life HD, the “Two Companies”) implemented the consolidation of the domestic real estate business of the Two Companies through an absorption-type company split and partial share exchange announced in “Notice Concerning Execution of Business Consolidation Agreement and Shareholders Agreement Relating to Consolidation of Domestic Real Estate Businesses by Dai-ichi Life Holdings, Inc. and Marubeni Corporation, Involving a Company Split (Simplified Absorption-Type Company Split) by Marubeni Corporation with Succession by a Consolidated Subsidiary and a Partial Share Exchange by Such Consolidated Subsidiary” dated February 28, 2025 (“Business Consolidation”), and we completed the Business Consolidation.

We announce the overview of the JV company in which each of the Two Companies holds a 50% stake as below because the name and other relevant information, which had not yet been decided, have been finalized.

The JV company will realize sustainable growth and creation of new value through leveraging economies of scale facilitated by the fusion of Dai-ichi Life HD’s asset management and financial intermediation functions with Marubeni’s track record and expertise cultivated through Marubeni’s extensive network and knowledge, and the JV company aims to achieve top-tier real estate asset management in terms of size in Japan. With a focus on real estate asset management, the JV company will provide consistent services from real estate development/ownership to property management to enhance and expand the domestic real estate value chain.
