(Progress on Disclosure Items) Notice Concerning Organizational Restructuring (Absorption-type Merger) between Consolidated Subsidiaries and Change of Trade Name

In the "Notice Concerning Organizational Restructuring (Absorption-type Merger) between Consolidated Subsidiaries and Change of Trade Name" disclosed on June 25, 2026, the Company announced that it would carry out an organizational restructuring (absorption-type merger) involving its wholly-owned subsidiaries, Japan Quick Service Co., Ltd. and Lufi Co., Ltd. It also announced that Japan Quick Service Co., Ltd., as the surviving company in the merger, would change its trade name to LinksMile Japan Inc. effective October 1, 2026, subject to approval at the Extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders to be held in September. The Company hereby informs you that, at the Board of Directors meeting held today, the location, as well as the positions and names of the representatives, which were undetermined at the time of the initial disclosure, have now been tentatively decided.

Please note that details regarding the outline of this matter and other information not included in this press release are described in the Notice Concerning Organizational Restructuring (Absorption-type Merger) between Consolidated Subsidiaries and Change of Trade Name dated June 25, 2026.

1. Status after the Merger

(1) Location	1-4-10 Kyobashi, Chuo-ku, Tokyo
(2) Position and names of representatives	Tsugio Wasami, Representative Director and Chairman Yasuaki Watanabe, Representative Director and President

*The trade name, location, and positions and names of the representatives are scheduled to be changed on October 1, 2026, subject to approval at the Extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders of the surviving company in the absorption-type merger in September.

2. Future Outlook

Since this merger is between consolidated subsidiaries, its impact on the Group's consolidated financial results is expected to be minimal.
