

Position and Policy on Reduction of Investment Units

1. Position on the Reduction of Investment Units

SoftBank Group Corp. ("SBG") recognizes that ensuring sufficient share liquidity and encouraging broader investor participation are important for revitalizing the stock market and supporting the appropriate formation of share prices. SBG views the reduction of the minimum investment unit as one of the effective measures to enhance share liquidity and expand the investor base.

2. Policy on the Reduction of Investment Units

SBG will continue to carefully assess the necessity of reducing the minimum investment unit, taking into account factors such as share price, trading volume, number of shareholders, and shareholder composition.
